

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 2 (8/86)

1. ABBOT, G. H. Mexico, and the United States; Their Mutual Relations and Common Interests. New York: Putnam, 1869. xvi, 391 pp., large folding colored map of Mexico, Texas, and the borderlands by Colton, another double-page map, steel-engraved portraits of Juárez and Romero. 8vo, original plum cloth, gilt seal of Mexican eagle on front cover. Slight discoloration to binding, else fine, map excellent.

First edition. Larned 3925: "A useful guide to the constitutional history, especially for the period from 1824 to 1859." Palau 521. $125.00

2. ADAMS, Ramon F. Come an' Get It. The Story of the Old Cowboy Cook. Norman: Univ. Okla. Press [1952]. xii, 170 [1] pp., illustrations by Nick Eggenhofer. 8vo, original terracotta cloth, brown backstrip. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Adams, Herd 12: "The first and only book devoted to this unique and interesting character." $35.00

3. ALAMAN, Lucas. Iniciativa de ley proponiendo al gobierno las medidas que se debian tomar para la seguridad del estado de Tejas y conservar la integridad del territorio mexicano de cuyo proyecto emanó la ley de 6 abril de 1830. Mexico: Vargas Rea, 1946. 50 pp. 8vo, original white printed wrappers. Very fine.

First edition, limited edition (#16 of 100 copies). Alaman's argument for one of the fundamental Texas laws, the Law of April 6, 1830, which banned U.S. immigration into Texas and, according to traditional Anglo interpretation, led to the Texas Revolution. See Streeter 759. $65.00

4. ALVARADO TEZOSOMOC, Hernando & Juan de Tovar. Crónica mexicana escrita por D. Hernando Alvarado Tezozomoc hacia el año de MDXCVIII. Anotada por el Sr. Lic. D. Manuel Orozco y Berra y precidida del Código Ramírez... Mexico: Ireneo Paz, 1878. 712 pp., 32 plates. 4to, contemporary half calf over marbled boards, spine with raised bands and black leather label. Very fine.

First appearance in print of Código Ramírez. Griffin 1878: "Third edition of Crónica mexicana by Alvarado Tezozomoc and first [edition] of the Tovar Relación from the Código Ramírez manuscript. At the date of this edition the Relación, here published with preface by J. F. Ramírez, its 32 drawings, and commentary by Orozco y Berra with included study by Chavero, was still considered anonymous." Very scarce. $550.00

5. AUBIN, J. M. A. [Historia Tolteca-Chichimeca]. [Paris, ca. 1849]. 20 lithographed leaves, 2 of which are hand-colored. Fine, laid in cloth folding box. Very rare.

First appearance in print of this codex. Glass, pp. 548-9: "Not examined. First, partial edition of the Historia Tolteca-Chichimeca without printer's name;" #359: "A part of the manuscript was lithographed for Aubin about 1849-51 or later. This ephemeral edition, which we have not seen...made the manuscript known in the 19th century. It is cited or utilized in the major historical writings of Brasseur de Bourbourg, Chavero, and Orozco y Berra." Historic-cartographic codex from Puebla, after 1544. $900.00

6. AUGER, E. Voyage en Californie... Paris: Hachette, 1854. [4] 238 [2] 8 pp. 8vo, original printed wrappers, rebaked. Light foxing as usual, otherwise very good.

First edition. Cowan, p. 23. Howes A393. Wheat, Books of the California Gold Rush 7. One of the best French accounts of the Gold Rush. Auger was a sightseer in California and not involved in the scramble for gold; thus, his account projects a more objective view. $200.00

7. AUSTIN, Stephen F. Exposición al público sobre los asuntos de Texas... Mexico: Edit. Acad. Lit., 1959. xvi, 344 [1] pp., portraits, plates, maps (some folding). 4to, original white printed wrappers. Very fine, uncut.

Limited edition (#241 of 600 copies) of the original edition printed in Mexico in 1835, which is one of the Fifty Texas Rarities). Howes A403: "Vindication of himself and Texas from charges of disloyalty to Mexico written by him while a virtual prisoner in Mexico." Streeter 817: "One of the most important Texas documents." Austin's Exposición is followed by Pablo Herrera Carillo's Las siete guerras por Texas. Plates include reproduction of rare 19th century Mexican lithographs of Texas. $125.00

8. [AZLOR Y ECHEVERZ, MARÍA]. Relación historica de la fundación de este Convento de Nuestra Señora del Pilar... Mexico: Zuñiga y Ontiveros, 1793. 10 [2] 165 [3] pp., copperplate portrait by Rea, woodcut ornaments. 4to, original full Mexican tree calf, gilt spine with morocco label. Fine copy of a beautiful Mexican imprint.

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

First edition of one of the few biographies of a woman of the 18th century Spanish-Texan borderlands. Beristain 4(1)4. Medina 8255. Palau 259736. Sabin 69226. Marí (1715-1755) was the daughter of the Marqués de Aguayo, governor of Coahuila y Tejas and first colonizer of Texas. After rejecting the marriage proposal of Conde de San Pedro de Alamo, Marí became a nun, using her considerable inheritance from the Mazapil mines (see Wagner 83) to further the work of the Catholic Church in Mexico. The convent which she founded was one of the first in Mexico committed to the education of women. The group of nuns who wrote the book declare: "The pious reader will be astonished to see that a group of unlettered women have had the spirit to undertake a work above their sex." See Dicc. Porrúa 188.$750.00

9. BAILEY, Olga. Mollie Bailey. The Circus Queen of the Southwest. Dallas: Harben-Spotts, 1943. 160 pp., frontispiece portrait, illustrations. 12mo, original green cloth. Small inkstamp of former owner on front free endpaper, else fine.

First edition. Winegarten, p. 183. Mollie Bailey (1841-1918) entertained Hood's Brigade and served as nurse and spy for the Confederacy during the Civil War. In 1869 she established a circus which became a Texas institution. See Handbook of Texas (I:96) and Abernethy, Legendary Ladies of Texas, p. 217. $75.00

10. BAKER, E. D. Oration of Colonel E. D. Baker over the Dead Body of Broderick. N.p., n.d. (San Francisco, ca. 1859). 4 pp. 8vo, unbound, as issued. Light marginal wear, otherwise very fine, with two contemporary manuscript corrections (author's?).

Unrecorded by Greenwood and Cowan, who both list a similar speech, but with different pagination. Baker eulogizes Broderick as a martyr opposed to the extension of slavery and political corruption after his death in a pistol duel at Lake Merced with ex-Texan David S. Terry, California Chief Justice. $150.00

11. BANCROFT, H. H. The Works. San Francisco: History Co., 1886-1890. 39 vols., complete, maps, illustrations. 8vo, original half sheep over marbled boards, spines extra gilt with red and tan morocco labels. A fine, handsome set, in the preferred binding. With a signed letter from N. J. Stone, Vice-President and Manager of Bancroft's History Company, dated April 20, 1888, to C. S. Neal indicating that this copy is being sent to him as a gift from James G. Fair. Each vol. in the set has a printed presentation leaf from Fair to Neal.

"As time passes and prejudice drifts into obscurity, these works become more strongly entrenched each year. For scholars and investigators, they will always remain the greatest source of authority" (Cowan, p. 33). Graff 155. Howes B91: "Colossal co-operative undertaking; nothing approaching it has ever been attempted in this country." Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 6 (referring to the two vols. on Texas): "A century after it was written, this remains one of the best single histories of Texas." Palau 32185. Zamorano Eighty 3: "His History of California is the best extant." $2,500.00

12. BANCROFT, H. H. History of the Northwest Coast. San Francisco, 1884. xxxiv, 703 + xiv, 768 pp., maps. 2 vols., 8vo, original brown cloth. A fine set.

Clark III:202: "Description of Pensacola Bay, fortifications, and the town, which the ship visited on July 1, 1839." Graff 323. Howes B507. Raines, p. 145: "The favorable report of Texas doubtless hastened the recognition of the Republic by France." Streeter 1343: "The visit of the French officers to Brazoria, Houston, and Galveston in May, 1839, is first described and then follows a thoughtful description of the country, its government, commerce, and social customs." After the reduction of Veracruz, Baudin's French fleet sailed to Texas where they were escorted by Thomas Jefferson Green to Col. Wharton's. They spent several days with President Lamar and Dr. Ashabel Smith at the Texas capital, and then sailed by steamboat down Buffalo Bayou to Galveston. Maissin's account of the newly independent Republic of Texas is one of the most colorful of the period. See Handbook of Texas III:563-4. $1,750.00

33. BOLTON, Herbert E. Map: Explorations on the Northern Frontier of New Spain 1535-1706. [Berkeley] Univ. Calif. Press, 1915. Measures 22 x 18 inches folded into beige 4to printed wrappers. Light wear to wraps, map fine.

First printing. No. 6 of the UC Map Series, showing the principal expeditions of Father Kino and his contemporaries. $65.00

35. BOLTON, Herbert E. Map: Texas and Adjacent Regions in the Eighteenth Century. [Berkeley] Univ. Calif. Press, 1915. Measures 17 x 20-1/2 inches folded into beige 4to printed wrappers. Light wear to wraps, map fine.

First printing. No. 2 of the UC Map Series, showing Texas in the 18th century, locating tribes, missions, presidios, Spanish towns, roads, and boundary lines according to Lafora. $65.00

36. [BORDERLANDS]. [GONZÁLEZ] ELÍAS, S. El gobernador y comandante general de departamento de Chihuahua á sus habitantes... [with] "UN SOLDADO RETIRADO." Plan de guerra... Chihuahua: Cayetano Ramos, May 18, and April 11, 1838. 2 items: Folio broadside printed on recto + 4 pp. folio folder. Excellent condition, with manuscript rubric and notes.

First printings of two early, unrecorded Chihuahua imprints relating to the Santa Fe Trail and Apache depredations. In the first item, the governor of Chihuahua expresses fear of U.S. invasion and suggests closing the port at Monclova. Further, commerce with "Anglo-American enemies" is forbidden, and any citizen of New Mexico who deals with persons from the U.S. will be considered a traitor and treated accordingly. The writer of the second imprint alleges, among other things, that the formerly peaceful Apaches have been making destructive raids under the leadership of U.S. citizens. $550.00

37. BORJA, Francisco de. Tassa y ordenanzas para el Reyno de Chile... Lima, 1620. [2] 22 pp. Large 4to, full brown crushed levant, inner gilt dentelles. Exceptionally fine.

First edition. JCB II(2)144-5. Medina, Lima 86. This important and extremely rare compilation of laws was transmitted to the King of Spain early in the year, and provides, in ten articles, for the government of Chile and the rights of Indians. $4,250.00

38. BORUP, May Watson Brandreth. Original holograph journal written from Sing Sing, Niagara Falls, Canada, Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Texarkana, Houston, and San Antonio, November 1878 to June 1880. 300 pp. written in ink, a few old clippings and photograph at end. 8vo, original sheep and leather covers, spine missing. Internally very fine, legibly written.

Unpublished journal with excellent, detailed content by an educated woman who was married to First Lieutenant Henry Dana Borup, a West Point graduate stationed at San Antonio, Texas. The section on San Antonio comprises pages 20-151. Among the interesting matters on which the writer comments are: army life, their tent, earthquake of 1878, visits to missions, Germans renting Mission Concepción to store oats, attending services at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, dislike of attending military functions, her reading habits, clothing and fashion, excitement about meeting General Ord, liking the Mexican population of San Antonio, social life in the army and town, attending and performing with the theatre and opera in San Antonio, likelihood that Col. Andrew(s?) will resign and go into the cattle business at Fort Davis, Chinese cook, Mission San Jose fast becoming nothing but a heap of stone, Alamo used as a storehouse, camp gossip, and much more. This highly interesting manuscript is the kind of social document that reflects the urban existence in San Antonio in the 19th century, and its publication would add to the small body of 19th century literature by army wives in the American West. $2,750.00

39. BOTURINI BENADUCCI, Lorenzo. Original manuscript copy of Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxochitl's Historia de la nación Chichimeca. Compendio histórico de los Reyes de Texcoco [and] Varios Fragmentos de Historia Mexicana de diferentes Autores, cuyo Original Manuscritto se guarda en la Librería del Collegio de Sn. Pedro y Sn. Pablo... Mexico, ca. 1750. 2 original manuscripts signed by Boturini: 180 leaves written in Spanish + 118 leaves written in Spanish and Nahautal (over half the work is in the Aztec language), both legibly written in ink. 2 vols., folio, parchment. Fine.

Apparently these manuscripts are Boturini's copies of early 17th century works by Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxochitl and others, now lost, which constitute, respectively, vols. 3 and 4 of Museo Boturini. The manuscripts cover pre-

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

Cortesian Mexico, the Spanish conquest, and early post-conquest periods. Glass #1043-4: "Ixtlilxochitl's manuscripts, as well as his collection, passed to Sigüenza y Góngora and thence to the Jesuit college library of San Pedro y San Pablo. A copy of the Relaciones and of the Historia were in the Boturini collection, from which source copies were made by or for Veytia about 1755... The originals are considered lost and the location of the Boturini and Veytia copies is uncertain..." Since Ixtlilxochitl's originals presumably are no longer extant, Boturini's manuscript copies may represent the oldest of the several known versions of these primary texts for the history of America. Ixtlilxochitl, Prince of Texcoco at the time of the conquest, was Cortés' Indian ally against Montezuma. Details upon request.

40. [BRACERO MOVEMENT]. Secretaría de Relaciones Exteriores. La migración y protección de mexicanos en el extranjero. Labor de la Secretaría de Relaciones Exteriores en Estados Unidos de América y Guatemala. Mexico, 1928. 60 pp. 8vo, contemporary three-quarter maroon cloth over marbled boards. Very fine.

First edition. Cumberland, The U.S.-Mexican Border, p. 26: "Indicative of Mexico's concern for her nationals working in the U.S." Gives information on each of the consular offices for Mexican nationals--as might be expected, the majority of these facilities were in Texas. $75.00

41. BRAMAN, D. E. E. Braman's Information About Texas. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1857. 192 pp. 12mo, original blind-stamped brown cloth, spine gilt-lettered. Very fine, tight copy.

First edition. Adams, Herd 305: "A chapter on stock raising in Texas." Howes B719. Rader 463. Raines, p. 30: "A good immigrants guide...especially as to land matters." Braman was a resident of Matagorda. $550.00

48. BREWER, J. Mason. Aunt Dicy Tales. Snuff-Dipping Tales of the Texas Negro...Foreword by Roy Bedichek. [Austin: Privately printed] 1956. xii, 80 pp., copiously illustrated by John C. Biggers. 8vo, original green padded leather. Very fine, signed by author.

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

First edition, limited edition (#360 of 400 copies). Scarce book on black Texas folklore, considered the classic in its field. Abernathy, Legendary Ladies of Texas, p. 130: "Brewer went to great personal expense to publish the tales [of Aunt Dicy] because he felt that a legendary character was being recorded who represented the flesh and spirit of the rural Texas Negroes... The elaborate art work would make the book too expensive to republish." $100.00

49. BROMME, Traugott. Hand- und Reisebuch für Auswanderer nach den Vereinigten Staaten von Nord-Amerika, Texas, Ober- und Unter Canada, Neu-Braunschweig, Neu-Schottland, Santos Thomas in Guatemala und den Mosquitoküen... Bayreuth: Buchner'schen Buchhandlung, 1848. xii, 555 pp., large folding map (lithographed and outlined in color, measures 20 x 20 inches). 8vo, original half brown cloth over drab grey boards, spine gilt-lettered. A very fine, unsophisticated copy. Seldom offered.

First edition. Clark III:16. Howes B800: "The most extensive source of information for emigration-minded Europeans." Raines, p. 31 (lists only an extract from the present work). See Streeter 1360, 1360A, and 1360B for the earlier editions which did not contain as extensive a section on Texas or the fine map which closely follows Emory, Mitchell, and Disturnell (not in Wheat). The section on Texas (pp. 292-352) contains an excellent description of the state and its resources, along with a discussion of Prince Solms-Braunfels' colonization project in Texas and advice to prospective emigrants. $2,000.00

50. BROWN, John Henry. History of Texas, from 1685 to 1892. St. Louis: Bechtold, 1892-3. [2] 631 + 591 pp., frontispiece portrait, plates, maps, text illustrations. 2 vols., large, thick 8vo, original brown cloth decorated in black, title in gilt on spines and upper covers. Two hinges neatly strengthened, light wear and staining to bindings, but overall very good--in much nicer condition than the set is usually found.

First edition. Howes B856. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 22: "The earliest comprehensive history of Texas written by an active participant... Replete with historical facts presented for the first time, and with incidents that would not have been remembered without Brown's work. His descriptions of events in which he participated are vivid and memorable. The set is still useful today, and forms one of the basic research sources Mexico: Secretarí de Hacienda Departamento de Gobierno. Seccion 1, May 21, 1836. 6 pp., folio. Very fine, with rubric at end and contemporary manuscript notes.

First printing. General commissariats were established in certain territories of Mexico by this important decree, which also gives for each the personnel, salaries, and organization. Among the states are New Mexico and Coahuila y Tejas, along with the territory of Alta California. $175.00

56. BUSTAMANTE, C. M. de. Cuadro histórico de la revolución de América Mexicana... [with] Continuación del Cuadro histórico... Mexico, 1823-7, 1846. 6 vols., complete, 8vo, contemporary half tan Mexican calf over marbled boards (final vol. not uniform in style of binding). Vols. 1-5 closely trimmed, but overall a very good, complete set. Very rare.

First edition, original parts issue. Griffin 3545: "An essential source for the period." Palau 37715-6. Sabin 9571 & 9575. Streeter 675n & 678n. An account of the Mexican Revolution and the early years of independence (1810-1824) in the form of letters to an imaginary correspondent, reprinting many actual documents and letters which have since disappeared. The final volume, which carries the history through the reign of Iturbide, is considered the best authority for that era. Streeter used this work in the preparation of his bibliography of Texas. Letters 21-25 contain valuable documentation on Texas, including the Mina expedition through Texas and the first Texas imprints, the Gutiérrez-Magee expedition, etc. Individual letters from this volume are sometimes found on the market, but it is highly unusual to find the complete set in original parts, along with the final volume on Iturbide. No copies of a complete set in parts are recorded in the auction records. $950.00

Title lightly foxed, else fine, with book label and stamp of a Mexican collector.

First edition. Palau 37735. Raines, p. 37 (citing the "Espedición de las Tejanos rendida á las fuerzas del General Armigjo en 5 de octubre de 1841" which appears in vol. 2, pp. 216-225): "This is a Mexican account of the Santa Fe Expedition, supplemented by Jno. Q. Adams' address, denouncing the Texans and rejoicing in their defeat. The Puritan is, if possible, more bitter than the Mexican." Sabin 9572. Although this work is usually catalogued separately from the author's Cuadro histórico (see preceding entry), it actually forms a continuation, covering the years 1837 and 1842. One of the best contemporary sources on the Mexican viewpoint during the bitter encounters between Texas and Mexico following the Texas Revolution, including accounts of the various abortive Mexican attempts to reconquer Texas, Burnet's plea for recognition of Texas independence, Mexican objections to the Anglo-Texan convention, Texan Santa Fe expedition, etc. Includes much of interest for California and New Mexico also. $550.00

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

61. [CALIFORNIA]. BARRAGÁN, M. El Exmo Sr. Presidente...los diputados de la alta y baja California tendrán voz y voto en el actual congreso. Mexico: Primera Secretaría de Estado Departamento del Interior, October 26, 1835. Folio broadside printed on recto. Very fine.

First printing. This decree states that deputies from Upper and Lower California will have a voice and a vote in the making of laws and decrees in the Mexican Congress, and names the following as members of the California deputation: J. M. Moreno, J. R. Malo, and A. Castellero. $200.00

62. [CALIFORNIA]. GARCÍA, Carlos. ...Se faculta al gobierno para...hagan efectiva la secularización de las misiones de la Alta y Baja California... Mexico: Primera Secretaría de Estado, November 26, 1833. Folio broadside, printed on recto. Very good.

First edition. Rare and important decree by President Santa Anna implementing the secularization of California missions. This attempt to break the Church's political power left its extensive land holdings in California in the hands of Indian converts and lay administrators; but all land eventually passed to the rancheros. A fundamental document for the history of California. $450.00

63. [CALIFORNIA]. GÓMEZ PEDRAZA, Manuel. ...Que el congreso general ha decreto lo siguiente: 1. En los territorios de la Alta y Baja California, se formarán seis compañías de caballeria permanente... Mexico: Secretarí de Guerra y Marina, May 8, 1928. Folio broadside printed on recto, large folding table. Wormhole affecting a few letters, else fine, with official ink stamp.

First printing. An important decree, establishing six new cavalry companies in California and appointing inspectors and other officials who will oversee the troops. The folding table gives the rank and number of personnel to be stationed at San Francisco, Monterey, Santa Barbara, San Diego, Fronteras, and Loreto. $425.00

64. [CALIFORNIA]. HERRERA, J. M. de. ...Que deseando por una parte aliviar las penalidades que un número considerable de desgraciados sufren en las cárceles... Mexico: Ministerio de Justicia y Negocios Eclesiasticos, August 29, 1829. 4 pp., folio folder, printed on first two leaves. Very fine, with Herrera's ink rubric.

First printing. Presidential decree regarding the slowness of the judicial system and the consequent suffering in overcrowded jails. Among the provisions is one allowing some offenders to serve out their time working on fortifications in California. Apparently, California was not considered an earthly paradise by Mexico at that time. $150.00

65. [CALIFORNIA]. ITURBIDE, J. de. ...De la necesidad que haya de erigir un Obispado en las dos Californias. Mexico: Secretaría de Justicia y Negocios Eclesiasticos, September 19, 1836. 4 pp., folio folder, printed on first page. Fine condition, with contemporary manuscript correction and notes. Later pencil note by Eberstadt stating that this copy was the official copy sent to El Paso, and pertinent passages underscored in red pencil, as certain bibliographers were wont to do in the 1930's. Very rare.

First printing. Of the highest importance in the history of California, this decree provides for the establishment of the first bishopric in California. The decree sets forth the procedures for establishing a separate diocese in California and appointing a new bishop, to be chosen by the government based on recommendation from the cabildo metropolitano and proposed to the Pope. The new bishop is also to be administrator of the Pious Fund. See Bancroft, California IV, p. 64. $450.00

66. [CALIFORNIA]. ITURBIDE, J. de. ...Expediente instructivo de la necesidad que haya de erigir un Obispado en las dos Californias. Toluca, October 3, 1836. One page folio broadside printed on recto. Light marginal chipping not affecting text, else fine.

Another issue of preceding, issued by Luis Gonzaga Vieyra to the Department of Mexico. $225.00

67. [CALIFORNIA]. ORTIZ MONASTERIO, J. M. ...El gobierno procederá al arrendamiento...al fondo piadoso de Californias... Mexico: Primera Secretaría de Estado, Departamento del Interior, May 25, 1832. 4 pp., folio folder, printed on first two leaves. Very fine.

First printing. Not in Cowan. This important decree regarding the famous Pious Fund of California authorizes the government of Mexico to proceed with the liquidation of the properties of the fund. The monies were to be deposited in the federal treasury but still utilized for the administration of the missions of California. $550.00

68. [CALIFORNIA]. ORTIZ MONASTERIO, J. M. ...El gobierno procederá al arrendamiento...al fondo piadoso de Californias... Toluca, June 1, 1832. Double folio bando, printed on recto. Very fine.

M. en que manifestando los justos motivos de su Real resolución de 21. de junio de este año, autorizo á sus vasallos americanos, para que por via de represalias y desagravio hostilicen por mar y tierra á los súbditos del Rey de la Gran Bretaña. Madrid: Marin, 1779. 10 pp., large armorial woodcut on first page. Folio, protective wrappers. Very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

First printing of the royal decree breaking off relations between Spain and England. The King says that he has tried to remain neutral in the war between France and England, but that is no longer possible since the English have commenced attacking Spanish colonies such as Darien and Honduras and inciting the savage Indians of Florida to attack settlers in Louisiana. Furthermore, the English have stopped Spanish ships and searched them without compunction, confiscating property and committing other crimes against the established order. An important announcement of an Old World war with significant consequences for the New World. $300.00

73. CARTER, Capt. Robert G. Tragedies of Cañon Blanco. A Story of the Texas Panhandle. Washington: Gibson, 1919. 97 pp., photographic frontispiece of Quanah Parker. 8vo, original tan printed wrappers. Fine copy of a scarce, privately printed account.

First edition. Howes C198. Rader 614. Carter recalls the scorched earth campaign of Mackenzie and the Fourth Cavalry while pursuing Quanah Parker, last Comanche chief and son of the famous Texas captive, Cynthia Ann Parker. Carter describes the disastrous battle at Palo Duro on November 5, 1874, when the Comanche villages were destroyed and their herd of nearly two thousand ponies slaughtered. $250.00

74. CASAS, Bartolomé de las. Brevíssima relación de la destrucción de las indias... [with the 8 other tracts]. Seville, 1552-3. 9 vols., complete, 8vo, each volume bound in antique-style Spanish vellum with ties. A beautiful set of the superlatively rare and important Las Casas Indian tracts, seldom found complete, as this set is. Dibdin remarked: "This History is a prodigiously great gun in the bibliographical battery of collectors; especially if the parts be complete."

First editions of the nine tracts of Las Casas, the first appeal for the humane treatment of the natives of the New World and the first printed work advocating abolition of slavery in America. JCB I:167. Church 887-8. Field 860-1. Medina 151. Pequot 122-30. Sabin 11227-8. One of the most remarkable and significant works ever written about America, containing an account of mistreatment and extermination of the Indians in regions conquered by the Spanish. The tracts resulted in the "Black Legend" of Spanish misrule in America and led to the New Laws of the Indies. The author's family was among the earliest European settlers in America, and Las Casas, who became known as "The Protector of the Indians," was the first Catholic priest ordained in America. He came to Cuba in 1502 and spent most of his time in the Caribbean and Mexico until his final return to Spain in 1547. In 1552 he launched this series of tracts which had been previously banned from publication. A cornerstone for any collection on the New World and Indian history. $12,500.00

85. COOKE, Capt. Edward. A Voyage to the South Sea, and Round the World... London: H. M., 1712. [22] 432 [10] + [8] xxiv, 328 [8] pp., 18 plates, 12 maps and tables (some folding), numerous woodcut outlines of landmasses. 2 vols., 8vo, contemporary panelled calf, spines gilt, leather labels. Hinges slightly cracked and spines a bit chafed, otherwise a fine set, with armorial bookplates, preserved in a cloth drop box.

First edition of Vol. II, second edition of Vol. I (entirely reset, with some additions and omissions). Cowan, p. 141. Hill, p. 64: "Cooke was second captain on board the Duchess, the ship which accompanied the Duke, both under Rogers, on a privateering voyage around the world. This edition was preceded by a one-volume work, hastily produced in the same year in order to beat Rogers' account to the market. The account by Rogers does not contain the translation of the Spanish manuscript describing the West Coast from Tierra del Fuego to California, here profusely illustrated with woodcut outlines of the land, nor does it contain the large number of maps and plates of Cooke's narrative. It is generally accepted that Daniel DeFoe used this account of Alexander Selkirk's years on Juan Fernández Island for his Robinson Crusoe." Howes C733. 92. CURTIN, L[enora]. M. By the Prophet of the Earth. Santa Fe [Merle Armitage at the Rydal Press] for San Vicente Foundation [1949]. 159 [2] pp., colored frontispiece, photographic plates, text illustrations. 8vo, original orange decorated paper over heavy boards. Slight wear to fragile binding, but overall fine.

First edition. Purcell, Armitage 78: "An attempt 'to parallel the Indian's own true design, in a white man's idiom.'" Finely printed documentation of Pima ethnobotany. $75.00

93. DAVIS, Capt. George W. Report to the Secretary of War on the Fort Brown Case. Washington: GPO, 1894. 119 pp., large detailed folding map of Brownsville-Matamoros (measures 21-1/2 x 33 inches). 8vo, original three-quarter sheep over marbled boards. Binding scuffed and rehinged, overall very good, the map excellent.

First edition. History and statistical study of Fort Brown (later Brownsville, Texas) including land claims from the Spanish era to the time of publication, with interesting information on the Mexican-American and Civil Wars. The map, which is not listed by Day, shows the changes in surveys and in the course of the Rio Grande from 1867 to 1887. Scarce borderland report. $275.00

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

94. DAVIS, William Heath. Seventy Five Years in California... San Francisco: John Howell, 1929. xxxii, 422 [3] pp., colored frontispiece, 39 plates, 3 facsimiles, folding map. Large 8vo, original blue cloth. Very fine.

Second edition, expanded to include author's additional notes (first edition San Francisco, 1889). Barrett 647a. Cowan, p. 260. Howes D136. Zamorano Eighty 27n. "One of the most trustworthy sources for the period before 1850. Davis settled permanently at Yerba Buena (later San Francisco) in 1838 after a period of trading between Boston and the Pacific Coast in 1831 and 1833. There were few people of importance he did not know and his narrative is one of the most interesting and valuable accounts we have" (Howell 50:407n & 1260). $100.00

95. DE LEÓN, Alonso. Historia de Nuevo Leon con noticias sobre Coahuila, Tamaulipas, Texas y Nuevo México... Monterrey: UNL, 1961. lvi, 283 [1] pp., plates. Small 4to, original white printed wrappers. Very fine.

Scholarly reprint with added notes. The founder of Nuevo León relates the conquest and settlement of the region. Includes material on La Salle. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 19n & 114n. $60.00

96. DÍAZ, Porfirio. Memorias de Porfirio Díaz 1830-1867. Mexico: La Oficina Impresadora de Estampillas, 1892. [2] xiv, 470 + [2] 330 pp. 2 vols., royal 8vo, (vol. I) original half crimson calf over marbled boards, (vol. II) original half green calf over marbled boards, both vols. with raised bands. Upper hinge of vol. I strengthened, else a very fine set, with Díaz's 2-page A.L.s. to Casimiro del Collado laid in, along with Collado's letter in response.

First edition, limited edition (#2 of 100 copies printed, with presentation leaf to Collado completed in ink by Díaz). Not in Palau or Griffin. A note on half title states that the present copy is the only known example of the first edition, which Díaz distributed privately among his intimate friends to obtain their opinions about the book. An important association copy. $950.00

97. DÍAZ CALVILLO, J. B. Sermon que en el aniversario solemne de gracias a María Santísima de los Remedios... Noticias para la historia de Nuestra Señora de los Remedios desde el año de 1808, hasta el corriente de 1811... Mexico: Arizpe, 1811. 59 [60-66] 67-269 pp. 8vo, contemporary half tan calf over marbled boards, olive green spine label. Very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

First edition. Palau 72318. The Sermon (pp. 7-59), which was delivered on the first anniversary of the Royalist "victory" over Hidalgo's forces at Monte de las Cruces, attributes the retreat of Hidalgo to the intervention of Our Lady of the Remedies, the patroness of the City of Mexico. The Noticias (pp. 67-269) contain a history of events in Mexico City and of the course of the insurrection from 1808 to 1811, beginning with the miraculous intervention of the Virgin of the Remedies during a terrible drought in 1808. This work is an example of the rather sophisticated type of propaganda used by the government to bolster its position and discredit the rebels. Especially noteworthy is the attempt to invoke divine intervention on behalf of the Spanish cause, a technique not without precedent in Spanish-American policy. $500.00

98. DÍAZ DEL CASTILLO, Bernal. The True History of the Conquest of Mexico by...One of the Conquerors. Written in the Year 1568... London: J. Wright for John Dean, 1800. [6] 514 pp., engraved plan of the Valley of Mexico. 4to, three-quarter contemporary calf over marbled boards (rebacked, original spine preserved). Lacks half-title and ad leaf at end, otherwise a fine, crisp copy.

First English edition. Field 425. Hill, p. 82: "This notable work is universally accepted as the most complete and trustworthy of the various chronicles of the conquest of Mexico and Central America." Palau 72373. Classic eye-witness account of the Conquest by a conquistador who accompanied Cortez. $375.00

99. DÍAZ DEL CASTILLO, Bernal. Historia verdadera de al conquista de la Nueva España...única edición hecha según el códice autógrafo la publica Genaro García. Mexico: Oficina Tipográfica de la Secretaría de Fomento, 1904. xcvi, 506 [1] + 560 pp., frontispiece portrait and plate illustrating the conquistador's writing and signature. Royal 8vo, contemporary three-quarter brown morocco, spines extra gilt with raised bands. Handsome set.

Another edition of preceding, the most scholarly of the Spanish editions, and the first to print the author's own manuscript. Griffin 2316: "Second only to Cortés' letters as an account of the conquest of Mexico by a conquistador... Famous description of the first Spanish view of Tenochtitlan." Palau 72359. $125.00 portrait. 12mo, original green cloth, upper cover lettered and ruled in red. Author's signed presentation copy with her note: "The story of Don Pedrito and his work is the outstanding folklore of South Texas." Printed on poor paper and browned as usual, else fine. Issued in only a small printing and consequently quite scarce.

First edition. Stoddard, et al., Borderlands Sourcebook, p. 332 (lists only the 1951 reprint by the Texas Folklore Society). Dobie, p. 70. A classic in the field of folklore and native medicine documenting the life and work of Jaramillo, the legendary curandero of Southwest Texas (see Handbook of Texas III, p. 249 & 441). $125.00

101. DOMENECH, E. Missionary Adventures in Texas and Mexico, a Personal Narrative of Six Years' Sojourn... London: Longman, et al., 1858. xvi, 366 [24] pp., large folding map of Texas, (measures 17-1/4 x 14 inches), mission areas tinted in pink. 8vo, original blind-stamped rose cloth. Fine.

First English edition (first published in Paris in 1857). Bradford 1350. Day, Maps of Texas, p. 59: "The map shows the [author's] routes, counties, towns, chief towns of counties, boundary of Texas, boundaries of missions, principal roads, rivers, mountains, forts, camps, La Salle's settlement of 1685, distance from New Orleans to Galveston by water, location of Indian nations, parts of territories and states on Texas borders." Field 443. Graff 1120. Howes D408. Plains & Rockies III:356n: "A genuine narrative... The Abbé worked in southern Texas and along the lower Rio Grande in Mexico, which he describes with a wealth of incident and personal detail." Rader 1176. Raines, pp. 69-70. The excellent map, which is not listed by Wheat, follows De Cordova's conformation. $500.00

102. DOMENECH, E. Voyage pittoresque dans les grands déserts du nouveau monde. Paris: Morizot, 1862. [6] 608 [2] pp., 40 engraved tinted plates. Royal 8vo, original blind-stamped black morocco over black pebbled boards, spine extra gilt with raised bands, a.e.g. Joints weak, but overall, very good condition, in special presentation binding.

First French edition. Cowan, p. 178. Howes D410. Plains & Rockies IV:356. Rader 1177. Raines, p. 70. The author visited the Southwest and Texas, but apparently based portions his text on Catlin, Marcy, and U.S. government reports of exploration in the West. The surrealistic tinted plates, an interesting French interpretation of the West, include scenes on the Canadian and Little Colorado Rivers in Texas, Salt Lake, the Great Basin, Columbia River, Wilamette Valley, Pyramid Lake, and numerous Catlinesque portraits of Indians and their artifacts. $750.00

103. [DUPAIX EXPEDITION]. LENOIR, A. (editor). Antiquités Mexicaines...1805-1807... Paris: Didot, 1833-4. [4] xiv [2] 20, 56, 40, 88 + 82, 224 pp. (text) + 166 lithographed plates in mounted India-proof state, in 5 sections, each preceded by letterpress half-title and title. 3 large folio vols., contemporary three-quarter crimson gilt calf, t.e.g. An exceptionally fine set, unmarred by the usual foxing.

First edition. Field 468. Leclerc 1065. Palau 23069. Pilling 4082. Sabin 40038: "An indispensable supplement to Humboldt." The beautiful plates, which constitute "the first drawings of Maya architecture to be published" (Wauchope), were later used by Kingsborough in the latter part of his monumental study of American antiquities. Dupaix made the second expedition to survey Maya archaeology, preceded only by Antonio del Río, who made a cursory tour in 1787. "Dupaix was a pioneer of considerable merit. His report and illustrations provided the most comprehensive account of archaeological remains in Mexico for years to come" (Brunhouse). $9,500.00

104. DWINELLE, John W. The Colonial History of the City of San Francisco... San Francisco: Towne & Bacon, 1867. xlv [1] 34 [2] 106, 391 pp., with pp. 363-369 inserted after p. [366], frontispiece, 4 lithographed plates, 2 maps (one folding). 8vo, original half black morocco gilt. A very good copy, with Dwinelle's presentation inscription and stamp.

Fourth and best edition, with added material, one of a few copies with the 4 extra leaves after p. 365 (this issue seldom appears on the market). Cowan, p. 189. Howes D614. Rocq 7692. Zamorano Eighty 32n. "An indispensable storehouse of information on the beginnings of San Francisco, containing the texts of a large number of documents either destroyed or now inaccessible. The city had filed a claim for four square leagues of 'pueblo' land, and filed these documents as part of the brief to support the claim" (Howell 50:782). $900.00 original plum cloth stamped in gilt and blind, a.e.g. An unusually fine copy.

105. EASTMAN, Mary H. The American Annual... Philadelphia: Lippincott [ca. 1854]. 126 pp., 21 engraved plates of North American Indian life by Seth Eastman. 4to,

Second edition (originally issued under title Chicóra). Howes E18. Myres, Following the Drum, p. 8. Plains & Rockies 238a:2 (new entry in the revised fourth edition). The Virginia author and her husband, artist Seth Eastman, were stationed at Fort Snelling from 1841 to 1848. They were accompanied by their three children, and a fourth was born while they were there. During this period Mary interviewed many Indians and recorded their way of life in a sympathetic fashion. Among the tribes illustrated and described are the Sioux, Dacotah, Navajo, and Zuñi. "Her writings were to memorialize the existence of a vanishing people" (Notable American Women I:545-6). $500.00

106. EDWARD, David B. The History of Texas: or, The Emigrant's, Farmer's and Politician's Guide... Cincinnati: James, 1836. 336 pp., folding engraved map of Texas (12-3/4 x 8-1/4 inches), land grants hand-colored in outline. 12mo, original brown cloth, printed paper spine label. Binding slightly worn and occasional foxing, overall a very good copy of a book difficult to find in original binding and with the map.

First edition. Clark III:35. Day, Maps of Texas, p. 24. Graff 1208. Howes E48. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 53. Raines, p. 74: "One of the few choice early histories of Texas." Streeter 1199: "One of the essential Texas books. It gives a good account of the physical features and towns and products of the Texas of 1835, followed by an excellent analysis of the colonization laws of the Republic." The superb map, based on the Austin-Tanner conformation, shows each of the Texas land grants, early towns, Indian villages, mines, etc. $1,500.00

107. [ESCANDÓN, JOSÉ DE]. Original manuscript entitled: Informe del Reyno Sn. Exs. el consejo de la días, cerca de las Misnes... Colegio San Fernando, December 3, 1749. 42 pp., folio, sewn. First leaf slightly rubbed, otherwise in excellent condition, legibly written in sepia ink.

An important borderlands manuscript relating to the Sierra Gorda Missions in northern Mexico, which were promoted and established by D. José de Escandón, colonizer of the Rio Grande Valley (see Handbook of Texas I, p. 571 and Casteñeda, Our Catholic Heritage in Texas III, chap. 4). In this report prepared by the Franciscan missionaries of the College of San Fernando, they argue against perceived unfair actions by Escandón in the establishment of the missions in the newly settled area of Nuevo

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

Santander (now Tamaulipas). They state that they are victims of Escandón's desires to cut costs by employing them instead of secular clergy and that he has failed to properly pacify the Indians who are to inhabit the missions. They also complain that they are overextended by the removal of one missionary from each of the Sierra Gorda Missions. A highly interesting document which casts Escandón in an entirely different light from what is generally written. $3,000.00

108. EVERETT, Edward, Saml. W. Everett, & V. Adam (artists). Sketchbook containing original pen and ink drawings, watercolors, ink sketches, and lithographs hand-colored by the artists. Dates from 1846-1852. The sketchbook, which was printed in England, has embossed plates of flowers on heavy paper between sections containing original art work of the three artists. 4to, original burgundy morocco, elaborately embossed and gilt-stamped, a.e.g. Other than occasional light spotting, excellent condition.

The sketchbook documents the artists' travels and adventures in Mexico and Texas, and theatres of war (including scenes from the Mexican-American War). Of high Texas interest are the exquisitely hand-colored lithographs by Edward Everett prepared for the Hughes report (see item 144 in this catalogue for further description of the Texas plates; see also Holman and Tyler's forthcoming Texas Lithographs 1818-1900). One of the ink sketches, "S. B. New Orleans, off Pass Caballo [Texas], 1848," is signed by Edward Everett. Among the original signed pen and ink and watercolor drawings by Samuel W. Everett (younger brother of Edward Everett) are "Street in Mexico" (equestrian and pedestrian groups by the House of Tiles, now Sanborn's in Mexico City); "Plaza and Cathedral, Mexico, 1848" (troops in review); Mexican women making tortillas; Texas pioneer cabin beside a body of water; "S.W.E. Texas 1847" (self portrait of the artist on horseback); untitled drawing of a rider crossing a river (San Antonio?); etc. $4,500.00

115. FORBES, R. H. The Penningtons, Pioneers of Early Arizona. A Historical Sketch. [Lancaster] Ariz. Arch. & Hist. Soc., 1919. iv, 42 pp., frontispiece portrait of Larcena Pennington, maps, plates, illustrations. 8vo, original beige printed wrappers. Light wear to fragile wraps, else fine.

First edition. Scarce work on the early days of Arizona, about the Pennington family who left Texas in 1857 because the state was getting too crowded. They headed for California by wagon train with their herd, taking the Pecos-Rio Grande route, but after a series of setbacks, they stayed on in Arizona making their living in the Apache country by freighting and supplying hay, cattle, and other goods to the Army. Excellent material on the Pennington women, including an Indian captivity. $125.00

First edition. Howes P59. Leclerc 2526: "Piece curieuse et peu connue." Palau 96980. Gálvez's diary of his operations as an ally of the American colonists against the British under Chester and Campbell in Florida and of his brilliant capture of Pensacola and West Florida for Spain. Gálvez, namesake of Galveston, Texas, "was conspicuous for his aid to the American Revolution, recognizing the independence of the United States, and capturing Florida, Jamaica, and the Bahamas from the British" (Handbook of Texas). He was "the most direct tie between Spanish officials in Texas and the American revolutionists" and "became the prime mover in leading Spain to join France in supporting the American colonists and waging open warfare on England" (Inst. Texan Cultures, Texas and the American Revolution, pp. 13-17). Gaálvez also provided invaluable assistance to the American colonists by keeping New Orleans open for American shipping and staging the first great Texas cattle drive to sustain the American campaign against British strongholds on the Gulf coast. $3,000.00

One of the four known manuscripts prepared by Humboldt and his associates for presentation to the Viceroy of Mexico and other high officials who had assisted the savant in his research for the monumental Essai politique sur le Royaume de la Nouvelle Espagne, which came out in 1811 (see

Plains & Rockies 7a:1 and Streeter, Texas 1042n). The manuscript, which is the first modern treatise on Mexico and the Southwest, discusses physical geography, agriculture, industry, statistics, and Indian population. Each intendency and province of Mexico is described, including extent of territory, resources, and leading towns. Of special Southwest interest are contemporary statistics and conditions for California, New Mexico, and Texas. The latter section of the manuscript contains details on agriculture, mines, commerce, manufactures, revenue, and military defenses. A superb manuscript. See Printing & the Mind of Man 320. $8,500.00

Frontispiece, lithographic title, 48 colored lithographs, each with descriptive letterpress leaf. 4to, original marbled boards, tan calf spine label. Occasional light foxing and a few short marginal tears repaired. A very good copy of a rare and important plate book, seldom found complete.

First edition. Mathes, Mexico on Stone, pp. 8-14: "Immediately became the basis for many other illustrations of Mexico, as well as the principal source for information on the region since Humboldt." Palau 138502. Toussaint, La Litografía en México, pp. xxii-xiv: "De este primer monumento de nuestra litografía existe un ejemplar incompleto en la Biblioteca del Museo y otro en la Nacional." Linati's lithographs were based on his watercolors of Mexican costumes and pastimes made in the early 1820's when he introduced lithography to Mexico. These outstanding lithographs, which document a rich panorama of Mexican life and manners, include a magnificent illustration of an Apache chief "of the type inhabiting the area from the Rio Colorado to California." $5,000.00

Folio, original grey printed wrappers bound in red cloth. Frans Blom's copy, signed by him, with his note: "This copy was used by me on my visit to Tikal 1924. Blom. And also in 1928." Extensively annotated by Blom, including his sketches and the addition of an overlay on one plate. Map of Tikal and 2 plates removed by Blom. Old tape repairs on title and stains.

First edition. Palau 147800 & 338385. Marvelous association copy of two landmark reports on Mesoamerican archaeology, being the actual copy used by Frans Blom, Maler and Tozzer's brilliant Danish successor, during his research at Tikal. $475.00

174. [MAP]. BOLTON, S. (cartographer). North America...by the Sieur d'Anville. Greatly Improved by Mr. Bolton. Ingraved by R. W. Seale. London [ca. 1763]. Engraved map on 4 sheets, total dimensions, 36 x 32 inches, with two beautiful cartouches illustrating the elements of geography and trade. Fine.

This large-scale wall map is very significant historically, triumphantly recording in various notes British gains throughout North America as a result of the Treaty of 1763 which ended the French and Indian War. One of Bolton's improvements was to reclaim California with a note on Drake's discovery of New Albion, stating that Delisle and D'Anville "castrate their own Maps to blind his Discovery." The map extends from Hudson's Bay to Panama, with an inset of the latter. Sellers & Van Ee, Maps and Charts of North America and the West Indies 1750-1789 14. $850.00

A reissue of Bradford's 1835 map (see Martin & Martin 31), with a few changes. Bradford's map is almost identical to Austin's famous map of Texas printed in 1830. $300.00

177. [MAP]. [BURRIEL, A. M.]. Carta de la Mar del Sur, ó Mar Pacifico. Madrid, 1757. Copper engraved map measuring 9-3/8 x 9 inches. Very fine.

First Spanish edition of Anson's chart of California, graduated for latitude (from Venegas' Noticia de California). Cowan, p. 659. Lowery 428. Wagner, Northwest Coast 1757; Spanish Southwest 132. Shows the coast of California from above San Francisco to Cabo San Lucas, and the Pacific coast of Mexico to south of Acapulco, including the islands of the Santa Barbara Channel, Monterey Bay, and major points of interest along the coast. $250.00

178. [MAP]. Carta esférica de las costas y golfo de Californias llamado Mar de Córtes que comprende desde el Cabo Corrientes hasta el Puerto de S. Diego... Mexico, 1825. Large engraved map measuring 34 x 22 inches. Very fine.

This handsome large-scale nautical chart extends from San Diego, California, to the southern tip of Baja California, and down the Mexican coast to the vicinity of present-day Puerto Vallarta. Includes islands, soundings, and major points of interest on the Pacific coast. At the top are three insets, each measuring 8-1/2 x 6-3/4 inches, of Guaymas, La Paz, and Pichilingue. This rare map and the following two entries apparently were part of a series of separately issued coastal charts put out by the Mexican government after independence. $500.00

179. [MAP]. Carta esférica que comprende las costas del Oceano Pacifico desde los 7º lat. S. hasta los 9º lat. N.... Mexico, 1825. Large engraved map measuring 34 x 22 inches. Very fine.

Large-scale nautical chart with a finely detailed coastal configuration of the Pacific from Southern Costa Rica to Northern Peru. Includes soundings, coastal cities, and other points of interest. To the left are coastal profiles showing mountain ranges. $400.00

180. [MAP]. Carta general para las navegaciones india oriental por el mar del sur y el grande oceano que separa continente americano del asiatico... Mexico, 1825. Large engraved map measuring 24 x 27 inches. Unusually fine, on high quality rag paper.

This large scale nautical chart shows the Pacific coast from Alaska to Panama, including the Hawaiian Islands, and along the Gulf of Mexico (shows Florida and Cuba and prints soundings). Coastal cities and other points of interest are designated. $250.00

181. [MAP]. COLTON, G. W. & C. B. General Map of the Atlantic & Pacific R.R. showing Connections & Comparative Profiles. New York: Colton, 1867. Engraved map measuring 10-3/4 x 12-1/2 inches, contemporary coloring, ornate floral border. Very fine, in acid-free double mat and natural oak frame.

First edition. Not in Wheat, Modelski, Phillips, etc. This important railroad map is one of the early maps to show a trans-continental route and the route across the Southwest. Below are profiles of the U.S. from St. Louis to the California plateau on the Pacific and from Boston to Mt. St. Helens. $750.00

182. [MAP]. CONSAG, Ferdinando. Seno de California, y su costa oriental nuevamente descubierta, registrada desde el Cabo de las Virgenes, hasta su termino, que es el Rio Colorado año 1747... Madrid, 1757. Copper engraved map measuring 12 x 11-1/4 inches. Very fine.

First edition (from Venegas' Noticia de la California). Cowan, p. 659. Wagner, Northwest Coast 1757; Spanish Southwest 132. The map was prepared to accompany Consag's account of his expedition to the mouth of the Colorado River in 1746. The map shows the Gulf of California from about 27-1/2° to the mouth of the Colorado River at about 33°, and the Sonora shore from the mouth of the Yaqui. $250.00 map with text on both sides, overall measurement 16-1/4 x 21 inches. A few light foxmarks, but overall very fine, in an acid-free double mat.

First edition of the Carey and Lea map of the Southwest and Mexico, and one of the earliest U.S. printings of the Humboldt conformation (see Martin & Martin 23). Phillips, America, p. 408; Atlases 2728. "The map shows provinces, towns, rivers, roads, mines, military forts, location of Indian tribes, mountains, various notes on charting of the country, people and government in the margins" (Day, Maps of Texas, p. 13). $475.00

184. [MAP]. GENERAL LAND OFFICE. Map of the United States and Territories. Shewing the extent of Public Surveys...of the General Land Office Under the Direction of the Hon. Jos. S. Wilson Commissioner. by Theodore Franks... Washington: Engraved by D. McClelland, 1866. Large wall map measuring 28-1/4 x 55-1/2 inches, mining areas and boundaries colored. Very fine copy of this magnificent, oversize map, encapsulated in acid-free mylar.

First edition. Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 1137 & V, p. 181-2: "Shows the newly adjusted Nevada boundaries...interesting for its often surprising showings of settled places (including many towns in Utah, and 'Ft. Casper' in the Wyoming area). Proposed railroad routes are shown... Various wagon roads of note appear, too, including the Oregon Central Military Road in southeastern Oregon, and a Wagon Road which goes from the Niobrara to Virginia City, Montana, via Ft. Conner, near the sources of the Powder River. Clustered thickly in the mountainous parts of the West are symbols showing the presence of gold, silver, copper, quicksilver, iron, tin, asphaltum, coal, and oil springs." Wheat notes that this map issued with the Annual Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office (House Ex. Doc. 9, Serial 1284); the present copy was found with an incomplete copy of a French report on the public lands of the United States. $500.00

186. [MAP]. MITCHELL, S. Augustus. County Map of the State of Texas Showing also Portions of the Adjoining States and Territories. Philadelphia, 1870. Engraved map with original coloring, measures 10-3/4 x 13-1/4 inches, ornate vine border, inset "Plan of Galveston and Vicinity." Very fine in acid-free double mat.

The most popular and reprinted conformation of Texas in the 19th century, showing counties, territories, parts of New Mexico and Indian Territory, towns, forts, roads, existing railroads, location of Indian tribes and reservations, Staked Plains, etc. Day, Maps of Texas, p. 153. Scale: 1-1/2 inches = 100 miles. $100.00

187. [MAP]. MITCHELL, S. Augustus. Map of Mexico, including Yucatan & Upper California... Philadelphia, 1847. Engraved colored map within decorative border measuring 17-1/2 x 25-1/2 inches folded into original 24mo blue embossed calf folder, gilt-lettered on upper cover, printed table of distances on inside front cover. An exceptionally fine, crisp copy, with bright original coloring.

Unrecorded by Wheat, Transmississippi West, Gold Regions, etc., but see Historic Texas Maps Datebook 1985 in which the map and inset are reproduced in full color. A large, colorful pocket map, with a wonderful conformation of Texas--outlined in bright red and its panhandle extending to the 42nd parallel. Flags designating Texas Revolutionary battles are marked at the Alamo and San Jacinto. Mitchell issued this map to show the progress of the Mexican-American War, a subject that generated much interest in the U.S. Battle flags depict military engagements at Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterrey, Buenvista, Veracruz, and Cerro Gordo. At the upper right is a large inset in pink showing the Battle of Monterrey, one of the key engagements of the Mexican-American War. $2,500.00

188. [MAP]. ORTELIUS, Abraham. Culiacanae, Americae Regionis Descriptio [and] Hispaniolae, Cubae, Aliarumque, Insularum Circumiacentium, Delineatio. Antwerp, ca. 1585. Two maps printed on one sheet, measuring overall 14 x 19-1/4 inches. Full original color. Faint crease at center fold, else very fine.

This map is from Ortelius' Theatrum, the first modern atlas, and the lower map, Hispaniolae..., is the first printed map of the West Indies to appear in any atlas. The regions depicted are South Florida, the Bahamas, and the West Indies as far as Martinique. The Culiacanae map, which shows a portion of the Pacific coast of Mexico--then a frontier region of northern New Spain--is one of the earliest published maps to accurately depict the geography of Mexico. Phillips, Atlases 388. $600.00

189. [MAP]. RUSCELLI, Girolamo. Nueva Hispania Tabula Nova. Venice, 1561. Copper engraved map measuring approx. 8-1/2 x 12-1/2 inches. Fine condition, excellent impression.

First printing of Ruscelli's map of New Spain, one of the very first maps to show any detail in Texas and the Southwest, based on Gastaldi's 1548 map, with several significant corrections. Martin & Martin 3: "The map of New Spain was significantly improved, correctly showing Yucatan as a peninsula. The place names along the upper Gulf Coast revealed the explorations of Piñeda, Cabeza de Vaca, and Moscosso, and the Mississippi, here shown as the 'Rio de Spiritu Santo,' was carefully depicted. The map enjoyed wide influence, appearing in successive editions Ptolemy." Nordenskiold, p. 26. Phillips, Atlases 371, 372. Wagner, Northwest Coast 48. $500.00

190. [MAP]. SCHOYER, S. Map of the United States drawn from the most Approved Surveys. New York: Engraved by G. W. Merchant, 1826. Engraved pocket map outlined in color, large eagle at lower left. Map measures 16 x 25 inches, folded into 16mo original gilt-lettered rose calf covers. Neatly mended at folds. Very good.

The young Republic, with 23 states and the territories of Arkansas, Northwest, Michigan, and Missouri, the latter of which extends beyond the Rockies and to the present Canadian border. The map shows the area beyond Rio del Norte, but the geography of Texas remains distorted and vacant, with Texas going only slightly beyond the Colorado River. Not in Phillips. $200.00 otherwise an unusually fine copy of this handsome pocket map.

A revised and enlarged edition of "one of the better travel guides and handbooks of the mid-century period" (Clark, III:413), and one of the first printed maps to show Dallas. Howes S615. Phillips, Maps of America, p. 899. A unusually attractive map of the United States on the eve of Manifest Destiny, with large inset of Oregon, California, and New Mexico (Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 522, p. 48: "This insert...was copied on many later maps"). Smaller insets show railroads in the East, and the map is graced by several picturesque vignettes. Excellent detail in Texas. Text includes a general description of each state, list of points of interest, canals, currency rates, and an index of cities and towns. $575.00

192. MARCY, R. B. Exploration of the Red River of Louisiana in the Year 1852... Washington: SED, 1854. xvi, 310 pp., 65 lithographed plates (a few with tinted grounds), colored folding geological profile of Texas from Washington County to Fort Belknap. 8vo, original brown blindstamped cloth. Moderately foxed, otherwise very fine in a bright binding.

Second edition, Senate issue (first printed in 1853--SD54). Clark III:354. Howes M276. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 135A. Meisel III, p. 144. Plains & Rockies IV:226:2. One of the best 19th century accounts of exploration in Texas, containing Marcy's official report of his expedition to the headwaters of the Red and Canadian Rivers. Holman and Tyler, in their forthcoming book on 19th lithographs of Texas, state that Marcy's report provides "the first lithographic documentation of the Palo Duro Canyon." About 30 of the lithographs are of Texas subjects. $150.00

First edition of the author's only published book. Poetry by the legendary actress-poet, whose daring stage

act made her a sensation of the Victorian age. Her background is obscure, and although it has been said that she was born in Nacogdoches, Texas, it can only be documented that she performed in Texas, was captured by the Indians, and lived in Liberty, Texas in the 1850's. She later became a member of the circle of Charles Dickens, to whom the book is dedicated. See Palmer, "Adah Isaacs Menken from Texas to Paris" in Legendary Ladies of Texas (pp. 84-93); Handbook of Texas (II:174); Notable American Women (II:526-9); and DAB. $200.00

Mexico, 1847-51. About 300 pp., lithographs, woodcuts, text illustrations. 16mo, contemporary half black calf over marbled boards, spine gilt. Occasional light browning, overall fine.

First printing, as issued over a period of several years, forming a continuous history of Mexico and the U.S.

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

The work listed in the preceding entry covers only the extracts relating to the Mexican-American War. This longer version contains much of interest on the Texas Revolution. The lithographs include a portrait of Winfield Scott, an allegorical illustration of the invention of lithography, and two satirical plates. $175.00

203. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. BUSTAMANTE, C. M. de. El nuevo Bernal Díaz del Castillo ó sea historia de la invasión de los anglo-americanos en México. Mexico: García Torres [1847]. [2] 162 [2]; 235 [5] pp., lithographed frontispiece portrait of author (not in Mathes). 2 vols. in one, 8vo, contemporary half Mexican calf over purple floral boards, spine with raised bands. A trace of foxing to the portrait, which is usually lacking, otherwise fine.

First edition. Howes B1047. Palau 37738. Raines, p.38. Sabin 9584. Tutorow 3269: "Bustamante was a general during the Mexican War. This is undoubtedly one of the best contemporary accounts of the Mexican War." Author's famous scathing attack on the politics and policies of Santa Anna, which led to the loss of one-half of Mexico's territory. Bustamante asserts that the U.S. was guilty of aggression against Mexico because of annexing Texas and gives the Mexican side of the Texan Santa Fe expedition. Very scarce--the last copy on the market was the Mendel copy at Phillips in 1979. $975.00

208. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. JUAN MANUEL (Archbishop of Mexico). Contestación...a la circular de 19 de mayo del Ministerio de Justicia... Guadalajara: Rodriguez, 1847. 20 pp. 12mo, original printed wrappers, stitched. Lightly creased, else fine.

First Guadalajara edition (reprinted from an issue that came out shortly before in Mexico City). One of the first pronouncements by a prominent ecclesiastic on the policy of government confiscation of church land and property to raise money to fight the war. The archbishop of Mexico protests, stating that the Church gave 3,130,000 pesos to the government from 1810 to 1839, not including the money it gave for the war against Texas. He makes a stand against religious toleration, and claims that the colonization of Texas by settlers and bandits unsympathetic to Mexico and the Church paved the way for the present occupation of Mexican territory by the U.S. $200.00

209. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. JUAN MANUEL (Archbishop of Mexico). Representación que algunos vecinos de la capital de Mexico dirigieron al...D. Antonio Lopez de Santa-Anna, sobre los males que comienzan á la religión las sociedades federalistas. Mexico, June 15, 1847. 20 pp. 12mo, protective wrappers. Slightly browned, else fine.

Another issue of preceding, with an added tract complaining that since the reestablishment of the 1824 constitution a society of federalists with an anti-religious bent has arisen. $125.00

210. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. McCLELLAN, George B. Engraved map entitled: Battle of Cerro Gordo. [Washington: U.S. War Dept., 1847]. Measures 12 x 18 inches. Some details shown in color. Moderate surface soiling.

First printing. Phillips, Maps of America, p. 217. Tutorow 4510. Shows the positions and movements of the troops under Worth, Twigg, and Patterson, as well as other details in the decisive battle of the Cerro Gordo. $750.00

211. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. McCLELLAN, George B. Engraved map entitled: Siege of Vera Cruz, by the U.S. Troops under Major General Scott, in March 1847. [Washington: U.S. War Dept., 1847]. Measures 15-3/4 x 25 inches. Some surface soiling, mainly confined to lower blank margin.

First printing. Phillips, Maps of America, p. 971. An excellent map showing details pertinent to the siege of Veracruz, including a street map of the city. Statistics, such as the number of men in each regiment, casualties, and wounded, are provided in the lower left and right areas of the map. $850.00 illustrations. 8vo, original marbled boards, rebacked in black cloth. Fine.

First edition, second printing, with added chronology. Wright III:3921. Novel about the Mexican War, illustrated by F. A. Carter, in which the author attempts to give some historical perspective and exhibits more understanding of the Mexican side than other contemporary writers. $85.00

213. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. NEW HAMPSHIRE PATRIOT. The Causes and Justice of the Mexican War: Containing Ninety-Five Instances of Wanton Murder, Robbery, Aggression and Outrage, by the Mexican Authorities upon the Persons and Property of American Citizens. Concord: N. H. Patriot, 1846. 16 pp. 8vo, original printed self-wrappers, stitched. Inkstamp of Pilgrim Hall Library on title. An uncut copy with some marginal fraying and a few spots.

First printing of this extra issued to drum up the war spirit against the Mexicans. As might be expected, a number of the outrages relate to incidents in Texas. $85.00

214. [MEXICAN AMERICAN WAR]. PAREDES Y ARRILLAGA, M. ...Que desde mi ingreso al supremo mando de la nación me dediqué á examinar el estado de nuestra marina de guerra... Mexico: Ministerio de Guerra y Marina, April 4, 1846. 4 pp., folio folder, printed on first 3 pages. Lightly browned, else fine, with contemporary manuscript note at top and Tornel's rubric at end.

First printing. Decree concerning the improvement of the Mexican Navy, about to be used in war actions against the United States. The facilities which Mexico has, both steam and sail navigation, are considered, with specific mention of San Blas and San Diego. An important source for the history of naval operations during the war. $375.00

215. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. PEÑA Y PEÑA, M. Manifiesto...a la República Mejicana publicado a su entrada en la capital del estado soberano de Querétaro el día 13 de octubre de 1847. Querétaro: Friás, 1847. 8 pp. 12mo, original light blue printed wrappers. Very fine.

First printing. Palau 217560. See Bancroft V, p. 527. After being driven from the capital city by U.S. troops, the Mexican Congress took refuge in the city of Querétaro until the Guadalupe Hidalgo Congress opened. This important publication is the address of the provisional president of Mexico upon his entry into Querétaro. $200.00

216. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. Report of the Select Committee of the Senate, in Relation to the Proceedings of the Board of Commissioners on the Claims Against Mexico. Washington: SRC182, 1854. xvi [2] 386 pp. 8vo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Investigation of the spurious claims of George A. Gardiner, U.S. physician-dentist, for alleged destruction of silver mines in San Luis Potosí by Mexican citizens when U.S. forces invaded. It was later established that the mines never existed. $75.00

217. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. ROA BÁRCENA, J. M. Recuerdos de la invasion norte-americana 1836-1848 por un jóven de entónces. Mexico: Madrileña de Juan Buxó, 1883. [6] ii, 686 pp. 8vo, modern three-quarter Mexican calf, spine gilt, raised bands. First few leaves lightly creased, else fine.

First edition. Griffin 4245: "This is the most impartial, detailed, complete, and well-written account on the North American invasion. Roa Bárcena's thesis is that defending Mexican forces did not give such a bad account of themselves." Haferkorn, p. 17. Howes R333. Palau 270660. Tutorow 3672: "Generally considered the standard history of the Mexican War from the Mexican perspective." $750.00

218. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. SANTA ANNA, Antonio López de. Detalle de las operaciones ocurridas en la defensa de la capital de la república... Mexico: Cumplido, 1848. 48 pp. 8vo, original printed wrappers. 2 small wormholes, and occasional staining, overall very good. Second edition (the first edition printed at Orizava the same year is very rare). Haferkorn 51. Howes S97. One of the most important of Mexican War books, in which Santa Anna masterfully defends his conduct of the war and explains why the capital city of Mexico was lost to invading U.S. forces. Contains many important documents printed in full that are not found elsewhere. $400.00

219. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. TAYLOR, Zachary. Parte circunstanciado del General Taylor, sobre la batalla de Buena-Vista o la Angostura. Mexico, May 31, 1847. 4 pp., folio folder, bound in full burgundy calf. A few creases where formerly folded, otherwise very good.

First Mexican printing. A rare and interesting broadside of a type seldom found, containing a Spanish translation of General Taylor's official account of the Battle of Buena Vista, the first major battle of the war. At the end a Mexican editor has added a note which states that this account was printed to show the detractors of Santa Anna that even the Americans admitted that the Mexicans distinguished themselves by their courage and tenacity. $575.00

220. [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. VARIOS MEXICANOS. Consideraciones sobre la situación política y social de la República Mexicana, en el año 1847. Mexico: Valdes y Redondas, 1848. 56 pp. 12mo, protective wrappers. Fine. First edition. This pamphlet, which is dated December 1847 at its conclusion, gives some idea of the state of disaster in which Mexico found itself during the war with the U.S. and attempts to explain why the assault of the Americans was so successful. $175.00

221. [MEXICAN REVOLUTION]. Photographic postcard of a smiling Mexican soldadera wearing a long dress and bandolier, rifle in hand. Fine. Contemporary note on verso in English: "One of the gol darn baby Dolls of Mexico." $25.00

222. [MEXICO]. Album gráfico de la República Mexicana. México en el Centenario de su Independencia. Mexico: Muller, 1910. 411 [3] pp., over 400 full-page photographs (some folding). Oblong folio, original burgundy cloth elaborately gilt stamped, Mexican eagle on front cover in gold and silver. Very fine. First edition. Palau 5600. A magnificent album documenting Mexico in its centennial year of independence. Contains documentation of architecture that has since disappeared and interesting photographs of pre-Cortesian sculpture and archaeology. $250.00

223. [MEXICO]. Collection of 29 printed treaties with calligraphic title: Colección de tratados celebrados con la República Mexicana. Mexico, 1825-1856. 29 printed treaties bound in one vol., folio, contemporary three-quarter calf over mottled boards. Exceptionally fine. First editions. The first treaties in the collection are conventions of friendship and commerce entered into by Mexico as an independent nation with other countries, including the U.S. Texas related treaties include the Treaty of Limits (Streeter 1103D) and the Revised Southwestern Boundary Treaty of 1836 (Streeter 1257A). Other noteworthy treaties are the 1842 treaty with Great Britain abolishing the slave trade and the 1838 Treaty of Peace between Mexico and Spain. Basic treaties present for the history of the Mexican-American War are the 1848 Mexico

City printing of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo and the exceedingly rare original bilingual edition of the Gadsden Treaty of 1853 (this is the only copy of this issue of the Gadsden Treaty that we have owned or seen offered). An appendix at the end contains the unrecorded March 23, 1847, tariff enacted by the U.S. for collecting duties "in such ports of Mexico as may be now, or hereafter, in our military possession by conquest" along with various decrees by J. Y. Mason relating to the conquest and occupation of California by U.S. forces. $3,750.00

224. [MEXICO CITY-CUZCO]. BRAUN, G. & F. Hogenberg. Mexico Regia et Celebris Hispaniae Novae Civitas. Cvsco Regni Perv in Novo Orbe Capvt. [Brussels, ca. 1572]. Two engraved bird's-eye views on one sheet, measuring overall 10-1/2 x 18-1/2 inches, full color. Very fine, matted.

These two handsome city plans of Mexico and Cuzco are from the French edition of the Northern European book of town views, Civitates Orbis Terrarum (see Repts, Cities on Stone, p. 2). The views, which are the first of any American cities to be included in the 16th century town books, document Mexico City and Cuzco during the early years of Spanish occupation. Mexico City is depicted with its intricate canal system and grand temple-pyramid (later destroyed and built over, but now being excavated and restored). The plan of Cuzco, capital of the Inca empire, was based on Ramusio's depiction. $550.00

225. MOCTEZUMA, Francisco. Memoria de marina... Mexico: Ximeno, 1829. [14] pp., 5 folding tables. 12mo, original white printed wrappers, sewn. Fine.

First edition. This report on the condition and deployment of the Mexican Navy, which appeared right before Mexico's naval battle with Spain over the fortress at San Juan de Ulúa, gives the interesting information that two mail boats were docked in the Californias, and six companies of cavalry, totalling 422 men, were stationed in Upper California. $225.00

226. MOLINA, Felipe. Bosquejo de la república de Costa Rica, seguido de apuntamientos para su historia... Nueva York: Benedict, 1851. [2] 120 pp., 9 maps, 2 plates (some folding and/or colored), 3 lithographed portraits. 8vo, contemporary marbled boards, terracotta cloth backstrip. Small ink stamp of former owner on title and occasional light foxing, else fine.

century guide to Costa Rica by a Costa Rican diplomat. The first part gives a description of the geography, politics, and statistics of the country; and the second part contains a history. The excellent maps and plates include a long folding lithographic panorama of Greytown. $375.00

227. MÖLLHAUSEN, B. Reisen in die Felsengebirge Nord-Amerikas bis zum Hoch-Plateau von Neu-Mexico...Colorado-Expedition... Leipzig: Purfürst [1860]. xvi, 455 + ix, 406 pp., folding map, 10 colored and 3 black and white plates. 2 vols., 8vo, contemporary half calf. Text a little spotted and binding lightly rubbed, overall a very good copy.

First edition. Graff 2850. Hill, p. 764. Howes M712. Plains & Rockies IV:362:2. Rader 2419. Rittenhouse 416n (citing a small extract published in English in the Kansas Historical Quarterly--the only translation into English thus far of this important book): "Möllhausen was with the Ives' expedition on the Colorado River in 1857-58 and returned east over the SFT from Santa Fe to Fort Leavenworth in 1858... Möllhuasen saw the SFT with an artist's eye for details... The full work is scarce even in German." Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 1032. The German author, an artist and naturalist, made three trips to America, accompanying the expeditions of Prince Paul of Würtemberg, Whipple, and Ives. This book contains Möllhausen's journal of the Ives' expedition which opened up the unknown Colorado River and conducted the first scientific exploration of the Grand Canyon. "The narratives of personal experience written by Möllhuasen are documents of first-rate importance and the illustrations he drew to accompany them enhance their value" (Chapter 2, Taft, Artists and Illustrators of the Old West). The handsome plates include ruins on the Pecos, Grand Canyon, views on the Colorado River, and Southwestern Indians.$1,500.00

228. MONDOT, Armand. Histoire des Indiens des États-Unis... Paris: Durand, 1858. [2] 352 pp., 3 lithographed plates, map. 8vo, original half black French morocco over mottled boards, spine gilt with raised bands. Very fine.

First edition, the issue with the Paris imprint (no priority). Howes M721: "Condensation of the first three volumes of Schoolcraft." See Plains & Rockies IV:203b. Includes discussion of Southern Indians, Seminoles, Dakotas, Shoshone, Five Civilized Tribes, etc., with plates illustrating pictographs and an Indian in feather headdress. $225.00

First edition, limited edition (160 copies printed). Eberstadt 138:38: "An edition of 160 copies was supposed to have been printed but actually, it is said, only 80 copies were printed. The author...lived for eleven years near the River Yaqui in close association with the Opatas and travelled through Sonora. At the end of this time, in 1761, the manuscript history was prepared but not published. The present is the first appearance of the work in print except for a portion treating of the ancient edifices along the River Gila, which was used by Alegre in his Historia." Field 1430. Graff 2979: "Contains a good deal of fascinating information about the Indians of Arizona and New Mexico." Howes S578. $500.00

239. [NEW BRAUNFELS, TEXAS]. Engraved view entitled: Neu Braunfels im Texas. Germany, 1850's. Image measures 4-1/4 x 6-1/4 inches. Very fine in acid-free double mat.

shall discover a North West Passage through Hudson's Straights, to the Western and Southern Ocean of America." London: Thomas & Robert Baskett, 1745. [6] pp. (numbered [iii] 483-486), large woodcut of the Great Seal on title. Small folio, marbled wrappers.

First printing, extracted from the official printed Acts of Parliament. Majors, Science and Exploration on the Northwest Coast of America 1542-1841 60. Belief in a navigable northern route between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, backed by the incentive provided by this Act offering a £20,000 reward for the discovery of a Northwest Passage, led to numerous expeditions in the North Pacific during the 18th and early 19th centuries. This landmark act for the history of the Pacific was passed at the instigation of Arthur Dobbs, foremost advocate for the existence of the Passage who continually stirred up interest in England by badgering the British Admiralty and the Hudson's Bay Company on the issue. See Hill (p. 85) and Glyndwr Williams' The British Search for the Northwest Passage (pp. 31-57) and Desmond Clarke's Arthur Dobbs. $1,100.00

253. PHILIP V (King of Spain). El Rey por quanto en mi Consejo de las Indias se movieron por mi Fiscal de el algunas dudas, que según su obligación á la observancia del Real Patronato...y guardar con los religiosos de la Compañía de Jesús, que passan á emplearse en el Sagrado instituto de Misioneros... Spain, May 27, 1703. 4 pp., folio folder on sealed paper, printed on first 3 pages. Very fine, with official signatures, rubrics, and royal stamp.

Royal cedula requiring all Jesuit missionaries who travel to Nueva Vizcaya, Nueva Galicia, New Mexico, and other parts of New Spain to proceed to their assigned missions and not divert themselves elsewhere. It is also rules that Jesuit superiors must consult with those holding the vice-patronato before removing a missionary from his post. This was one of the first moves by the new Bourbon dynasty of Spain to flex its muscles over the Jesuits and foreshadows the conflict which led the Crown to expel the Jesuits from the empire in 1767. $250.00

This is the only Texas cabinet card we have seen by a woman photographer. $40.00

256. PLUMMER, Clarissa. Narrative of the Captivity and Extreme Sufferings of Mrs. Clarissa Plummer...who, with Mrs. Caroline Harris...were, in the Spring of 1835...taken Prisoner by ...the Camanche Tribe of Indians, while Emigrating to Texas.... New York: Perry & Cooke, 1838. 24 pp. 8vo, original plain rose wrappers bound in, rear wrapper reinforced. Last leaf torn, affecting about 15 words, supplied in expert facsimile. Half calf and marbled boards, overall a very good copy of a fragile work.

First edition. Ayer 209. Field 1223. Graff 3310. Howes P427. Jones 1018. Plain & Rockies IV:71: "The captivity of Mrs. Plummer is a famous episode in the history of Texas. Parker's Fort on the Navasota River was taken on May 19, 1836, and the Indians wandered with their captives over the country for many months, traveling as far as the headwaters of the Arkansas River, where a number of tribes held a big council in March, 1837 to plan war against the Texans. Mrs. Plummer was finally ransomed by a Mexican trader and delivered in Santa Fe to an American who took her to Independence in 1838, where she died the until the 1930's and the establishment of the Aransas Pass refuge, where the few remaining birds spend October and November after flying 2,500 miles from their breeding grounds in Alberta, Canada. $200.00

302. [TEXAS LITHOGRAPH]. HOUTTE, Louis van (artist). Gaillardia Amblyodon, Texas. Ghent, 1875. Hand-colored lithograph measuring 9-1/2 x 6-3/4 inches. Very fine. One of the more attractive Texas wildflowers; this solid red gaillardia was discovered by Lindheimer. It grows in the sandy prairies of East and South Texas. $75.00

303. [TEXAS LITHOGRAPH]. HOUTTE, Louis van (artist). Obeliscaria Pulcherrima Dc. Ghent, 1857. Hand-colored lithograph measuring 9-1/2 x 6-3/4 inches. Very fine.

Commonly known as Mexican hat or cone-flower, this flower was discovered by Berlandier and introduced into England by Drummond in 1836. $75.00

304. [TEXAS LITHOGRAPH]. HOUTTE, Louis van (artist). Penstemon Baccharidifolius Hook. Texas. Ghent, 1851-2. Hand-colored lithograph measuring 9-1/2 x 6-3/4 inches. Very fine.

This showy scarlet penstemon, discovered by Wright in Texas in the 1840's, grows on limestone ledges, bluffs, and in canyons in West Texas, blooming from April to July. $75.00

305. [TEXAS MISSIONS]. ORTIZ, Father F. X. Original manuscript entitled: Razon de la Vissita de las misiones, de San Xavier, y de las de Sn. Antonio de Valero en la Provincia, y Governazion de Texas. N.p. (Querétaro or Texas), 1756. 27 pp., folio, written legibly in sepia ink, apparently that of Father Joaquin Baños, who along with Father Ortiz, has signed the report 11 times in full and with rubrics. In addition, the rubric of Ortiz appears at the bottom of 17 of the pages. In a perfect state of preservation, laid in a half morocco slipcase.

This excellent manuscript contains an account of the inspection of San Xavier and San Antonio de Valero Missions in Texas in 1756 by Ortiz and Baños (see Castañeda, Our Catholic Heritage in Texas, Vol. 3). The document gives a history and description of the three ill-fated missions of San Xavier which were originally established on the San Gabriel River near present-day Rockdale, Texas, but moved to the San Marcos and Guadalupe Rivers in 1755 due to internal disorder and relentless Apache incursions. Next are descriptions of the San Antonio missions--San Francisco de la Espada, San Juan Capistrano, Nuestra Señora de la Purísima Concepción de Acuña, and San Antonio de Valero. Each description contains a short history of the founding of the mission in question, present condition, statistics, Indian towns associated with each mission, farms and gardens, looms and forges, and detailed surveys of cattle and other livestock holdings. The report concludes with short essays on the Texas Indians and church matters distribution, employment of converted Indians in mission work, and other church matters. Details available upon request.

306. [TEXAS MISSIONS]. ORTIZ, Father Francisco Xavier. Razón de la visita a las misiones de la Provincia de Texas. Mexico: Vargas Rea, 1955. 42 + 38 + 45 pp. 3 vols., small 4to, original cloth. A very good set with the usual browning, due to the paper used.

First publication of the above manuscript; limited edition (75 numbered copies). $125.00

307. [THOMPSON & WEST (publishers)]. History of Santa Barbara County, California, with Illustrations and Biographical Sketches... Oakland: Thompson & West, 1883. 477 pp., frontispiece, numerous lithographed illustrations and portraits. Large 4to, original gilt-stamped brown calf over brown cloth, bevelled boards. Edge wear to binding, new endpapers, a few marginal tears repaired, but overall a very good copy of a book difficult to find in collector's condition.

First edition. Adams, Guns 1724: "Chapter IX, entitled 'Bad Men,' deals with Jack Powers and Vásquez." Cowan, p. 889: "As Ventura County was a part of Santa Barbara County until 1872, this history is of Ventura as well as Santa Barbara." Howes S100. Rocq 13462. Massive history, profusely illustrated with charming Victorian lithographs. The illustrations include portraits, ranches, residences, businesses, government offices, town and country views, etc. $750.00

312. VENEGAS, Miguel. Noticia de la California... Madrid: Fernández, 1757. [24] 240 + [8] 564 + [8] 436 pp., 4 engraved folding maps. 3 vols., small 4to, original full vellum, manuscript titles on spines. An exceptionally fine set.

First edition. Cowan, p. 659. Graff 4470. Howes V69. Medina 3855. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 132. Zamorano Eighty 78. Considered by Cowan to be "the foundation of a library of Californiana," this is the most extensive account of Lower California of its period. Concluded in Mexico in 1739, the Noticia was extensively revised and brought up to 1750 in Spain by Fr. Andres Marcos Burriel, who restricted the account to actual voyages, rejecting all apocryphal material. The first two volumes are concerned entirely with Lower California. The third contains extracts from López de Gómara and Torquemada relating to early Northwest Coast explorations, including an account of the 1602-3 Vizcaíno expedition. The four excellent maps include the large Mapa de la California su golfo, y provincias fronteras described by Wheat as "a well drawn map, showing the missions and Indian towns of Pimería Alta" (Mapping the Transmississippi West, p. 85 & no. 138). $4,000.00

313. VENEGAS DE SAAVEDRA, F. X. Manifiesto de su Virey a la Nueva España. Mexico, October 27, 1810. 7 pp., folio. Exceptionally fine, crisp copy.

First printing of one of the earliest public governmental responses to Hidalgo's revolt. Viceroy Venegas denies rumors credited to Hidalgo that Spain is about to turn over the country to France or England and claims that these rumors have caused many citizens to fall into insurrection. He makes an appeal to the religious feelings of the people by citing Hidalgo's excommunication, immorality of other revolutionaries, and just appeals for peace by the bishops. He says that Spain will not give up any of its possessions so long as one Spaniard remains capable of bearing arms. $400.00

314. VENEGAS DE SAAVEDRA, F. X. ...Virey, Gobernador y Capitán general de esta N. E....Entre los infames medios de que se ha valido el pérfido Cura Hidalgo para corromper la imperturable... Mexico, January 19, 1811. Large folio bando printed on light blue paper, with viceregal ink rubric and another official manuscript note. Fine.

This bando issued by Viceroy Venegas is of the highest significance in the drama of Spain's departure from Mexico, and it is one of the earliest mentions of the uprising led by Father Hidalgo against the Spanish power in Mexico. Venegas denounces Hidalgo, whom he refers to as a "monstrous rebel" and accuses of deliberately making trouble for Spain in the New World at the same time that the "interloper Joseph Bonaparte" is taking over in Spain. Not in Medina or Aciciones. $475.00

315. VICTORIA, Guadalupe. Derrotero de las Islas Antillas de las costas de Tierra Firme, y de las del Seno Mexicano.... Mexico, 1825. 599 pp. 8vo, modern full Mexican calf gilt, spine with raised bands and green morocco labels. First few leaves with wormholes that touch a few letters, else very fine.

First Mexican edition, extensively revised from the Spanish editions that came out beginning in 1809. Palau 362304. Contains complete coastal survey and sailing directions for the Caribbean, the Gulf of Mexico, and all Mexican coasts. Includes Texas and Galveston. $650.00

316. VICTORIA, Guadalupe. ...Saldrán de la república todos los españoles que residan en los estados ó territorios internos de Oriente y Occidente, territorios de la Alta y Baja California y Nuevo México... Mexico: March 20, 1829. 4 pp., folio folder printed on three pages. Very fine. Signed in type at end by Bocanegra.

First printing. Presidential decree expelling Spanish citizens from the Internal Provinces, California, and New Mexico. The provisions of this decree are much more severe than those of the decree of December 20, 1827. $550.00

317. [VILLA, PANCHO]. Collection of printed House and Senate bills relating to the Mexican Revolution and the Punitive Expedition against Pancho Villa. Washington, December 10, 1915 to August 15, 1916. 18 separate bills, 2 to 4 pp. each, small folio. Each bill bears the stamp of the War Department Judge Advocate General's Office. Ragged blank margins apparently where removed, else fine, each bill in acid-free mylar envelope.

First printings. Includes House resolution of January 12, 1916, urging the President to abandon his policy of "watchful waiting" (in response to the murder of 16 U.S. engineers in Chihuahua by Villistas); Senate resolutions of January 13 and 18, 1916, authorizing use of Army and Navy forces in Mexico; House resolution of January 31, 1916, delivering an ultimatum demanding that Huerta resign as President of Mexico and recognizing Carranza; House resolution of February 11, 1916, authorizing negotiations to purchase Mexican territory south of the California Imperial Valley to protect the irrigation system; Senate resolution of March 10, 1916, authorizing the punitive expedition in response to the Columbus, New Mexico, raid; House resolution of June 26, 1916, prohibiting sales and shipment of firearms, cartridges, dynamite, gunpowder, etc. into Mexico. Detailed listing of House and Senate document numbers available upon request. $750.00

318. VITERI Y UNGO, J. de (Bishop of Nicaragua). Tenemos la complacencia de dar á luz pública la carta respetable que la Santidad de Pio IX... N.p. (Guatemala): Imprenta de la Paz, February 11, 1850. 2 pp. folio broadside, printed on recto. Very good.

Promulgation of Pius IX's letter of November 5, 1849, to the Bishop of Nicaragua creating a new diocese of San Salvador separate from the diocese of Nicaragua. $75.00

319. [VOLLMER, C. G. W.] Californien und das Goldfieber. Reisen in dem wilden Westen Nord-Amerika's, Leben und Sitten der Goldgräber, Mormonen und Indianer... von W. F. A. Zimmermann. Berlin: Thiele, 1863. [4] 744 pp., 8 colored lithographs, 51 text illustrations. 8vo, original marbled boards, red calf spine label. Contemporary ownership inscription on front fly-leaf and title. Other than occasional mild foxing (not affecting plate images), a fine copy.

First German edition (first published in Stockholm the prior year). Cowan, p. 701. Flake 9491. Graff 4496. Howes V140. Wheat 238. Besides California and life at the gold mines, the author describes Mormon settlements and Western tribes, including Comanche, Cherokee, Kiowa, Navajo, Cree, and others. The unusual lithographs depict Willis expedition encampment, Indian fights, Indian camp in Utah, Indians hunting buffalo, San Francisco Vigilance Committee lynching by moonlight, drinking party in the gold country, bear hunt, and prairie fire. The latter may be a Texas lithograph; it appears to be a reworking of the plate reproduced by Del Weniger in The Explorer's Texas (Austin, 1984, see p. 195). $500.00

320. WALDECK, J. F. M. & C. E. Brasseur de Bourbourg. Monuments anciens du Mexique et du Iucatan, Palenque, Ococingo et autres ruines de l'ancienne civilisation du Mexique... Paris: Bertrand, 1866. xxxiii, 84, viii pp., 56 lithographic plates (mostly tinted), map. Large folio, modern three-quarter burgundy calf. Very fine. Exceedingly rare, and little known.

First edition. Brunet (Supp.) 939: "Tres beau livre." Leclerc 605. Palau 373690. Waldeck was the third European--after Dupaix and Kingsborough--to throw himself heart and soul into the exploration of Mesoamerican antiquity. After illustrating Rio's noted book on Palenque, Waldeck met Kingsborough, and the two became fast friends. Kingsborough financed Waldeck's three-year expedition to America in the 1830's to record the monuments which are described and magnificently illustrated in the present work. $8,500.00

Dorothy Sloan Books - Bulletin 3 (7/87)

First edition. Ferguson 18245. A narrative of family life in the early days of the Colony, between the years of 1837 and 1845. About half the book is devoted to an index containing letters written by the author's sister "Lena" in the 1850's. Many of these letters describe Lena's sojourn in the U.S., where she visited Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Cincinnati, and went by steamer to Louisville, which she found "very untidy and slovenly," with pigs roaming the streets. She also visited Michigan, Chicago, Minnesota, and travelled by steamer up the Mississippi and on to Canada. $400.00

322. WAUD, A. R. (artist). Woodcut print entitled: A Drive of Texas Cattle Crossing a Stream. New York: Harper's Weekly, October 29, 1867. Image measures 9-1/4 x 14 inches, title beneath. Very good condition, in acid-free double mat.

One of the most famous Western prints, showing a cattle drive by moonlight. $50.00
