Dorothy Sloan Books – Bulletin 10[a] (12/97)

Clark & Brunet 44: "The work contains biographies of the full fifty-one members who set out on the expedition, plus the seven who joined en route. It is based on many years of primary research by the author. Also included is a composite diary of the daily events of the expedition, summarizing the setting and principle occurrences for easy reference." $250.00

15. CONKLING, R. P. & Margaret B. The Butterfield Overland Mail, 1857-1869. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1947. 412 + 440 pp. (text) + atlas, 77 plates, 3 maps. 3 vols., 8vo, red cloth. Superb condition. Vols. III-V, Western Trails Series. Clark & Brunet 50: "The primary source of information on the Butterfield Overland Mail, the first great overland postal service from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Coast. The reviews were almost embarrassing in their praise. With its detailed information on routes, the various stations, the personnel, it is constantly in demand, and the book's value has appreciated dramatically over the years." Dobie, p. 78. The definitive study of the great stagecoach line begun in 1858 to cross 2,800 miles from St. Louis to California via Arkansas, El Paso, Tucson, and Yuma to Los Angeles and San Francisco. $900.00

16. CROSS, Osborne, George Gibbs, & W. W. Loring. The March of the Mounted Riflemen: First United States Military Expedition to Travel the Full Length of the Oregon Trail...1849...Edited by Raymond W. Settle. Glendale: Arthur H. 21. DICKSON, A. J. Covered Wagon Days: A Journey across the Plains in the Sixties, and Pioneer Days in the Northwest.... Cleveland: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1929. 287 pp., map, plates. 8vo, navy blue cloth. Adams, Guns 591: "An excellent history based on the journals of a man who went west in the early days." Clark & Brunet 62: "Albert Dickson's journals include an overland trip from Wisconsin into the northern Plains and finally to Virginia City, Montana Territory. An accessible and detailed account of wagon train life, it includes information of the vigilantes of Montana, as well." Eberstadt, Modern Narratives of the Plains and the Rockies 135. Mattes 1941. Mintz 126. $150.00

22. DRURY, C. M. (ed.). First White Women Over the Rockies: Diaries, Letters, and Biographical Sketches of the Six Women of the Oregon Mission who made the Overland Journey in 1830 and 1838. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1963-1966. 280 + 382 + 332 pp., plates, maps. 3 vols., 8vo, blue cloth. Signed by editor. Vols. VI-VIII, Northwest Historical Series. Clark & Brunet 67: "These women were pioneers in the truest sense of the word, living in a world completely foreign to them after a trans-continental journey which was still in large part being discovered. The set contains extremely rich and valuable primary source material." Mattes 32, 35-40, 42-43. Plains & Rockies IV:68n. $250.00

23. DRURY, C. M. Marcus and Narcissa Whitman and the Opening of Old Oregon. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1973. 476 + 435 pp., frontispiece portraits, maps, plates. 2 vols., 8vo, blue cloth. Vols. X-XI, Northwest Historical Series. Clark & Brunet 68 "Dr. Drury considered this two-volume work his culminating study of the Protestant missionaries in Oregon." $200.00

Nez Perce and the missionary effort at Lapwai and elsewhere." Mattes 30, 39. $75.00

25. DRURY, C. M. William Anderson Scott: "No Ordinary Man". Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1967. 352 pp., frontispiece portrait, plates. 8vo, blue cloth. Clark & Brunet 72: "Dr. Scott served as a chaplain in the Black Hawk War, experienced frontier life in the pioneer communities of Tennessee and Illinois, was involved in the dramatic vigilante period in frontier San Francisco, and witnessed the formative years of California's statehood." $50.00

26. ERWIN, A. A. The Southwest of John H. Slaughter 1841-1922: Pioneer Cattleman and Trail-Driver of Texas, the Pecos, and Arizona and Sheriff of Tombstone. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1965. 368 pp., frontispiece portrait, plates, map. 8vo, red cloth, d.j. Vol. X, Western Frontiersmen Series. Adams, Guns 682. Clark & Brunet 78: "Slaughter was a cattleman in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, a Civil War soldier, Texas Ranger, Indian campaign army scout, Arizona legislator and founder of Douglas, Arizona. He was sheriff of Tombstone's Cochise County. With an introduction by William McLeod Raine and Ramon Adams, and based on extensive research, this biography has been well received by layman and scholar, and is becoming difficult to find. It is also a fine example of the Company's quality and style of production during the 1950s and '60s." $175.00

27. FAUX, W. & A. Welby. *Early Western Travels, Comprising I. Memorable Days in America...by W. Faux.... II. A Visit to North America and the English Settlements in Illinois...by Adlard Welby. 29. FOLMER, Henry. Franco-Spanish Rivalry in North America, 1524-1763. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1953. 346 pp., frontispiece (De l'Isle's 1718 map). 8vo, red cloth. Signed by author. Vol. VII, Spain in the West Series. Clark & Brunet 84: "The struggle between France and Spain is presented in the form of a continuous narrative, a task which had hitherto not been attempted, and which gathered the loosely connected events in a coordinated fashion. Military and naval actions, the colonial expeditions, the Catholic missionary activity, and the Huguenot colonization, the sea and land explorations, are dealt with in considerable detail." $100.00

30. FORDHAM, E. P. Personal Narrative of Travels in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky; and of a Residence in the Illinois Territory, 1817-1818. Cleveland: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1906. 248 [10] pp., plates. 8vo, dark green cloth. Clark, Old South II:20. Clark & Brunet 85: "Fordham's manuscript was here published for the first time. He was an educated young Englishman who assisted Morris Birkbeck in establishing his Illinois settlement. In his travels for Birkbeck to encourage new emigrants, he often took the opportunity to make frank and pointed comments on society, manners, morals, as well as careful observations of the face of the country and industrial conditions." Howes F257. $60.00

31. FOREMAN, Grant. Pioneer Days in the Early Southwest. Cleveland: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1926. 349 pp., plates, maps. 8vo, red cloth. Clark & Brunet 86: "A study of the early exploration and development of Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Arkansas, New Mexico, Colorado and Kansas. It is based primarily on research of unpublished manuscripts and contemporary newspapers dealing with the period between the Louisiana Purchase and the Mexican War. Foreman travelled widely to access accounts." Howes F260. Rader 1436. $200.00

Clark Company, 1940. 334 pp., frontispiece, plates, map. 8vo, green cloth. Vol. II, Western Frontiersmen Series. Adams, Guns 762. Clark & Brunet 89: "Between 1862 and 1866 nearly four thousand miles of stage lines were owned and operated by Holladay. The communication lines between the East and isolated communities of the West were maintained by the stage lines during the Civil War when disruption would have been disastrous to the Union. The records of the Holladay Overland Mail and Express Company were destroyed in the San Francisco fire of 1906. The author's research was conducted through newspapers and periodicals, private papers and personal interviews." Dobie, p. 79. $250.00

35. GERHARD, Peter. Pirates on the West Coast of New Spain, 1575-1742. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1960. 274 pp., frontispiece, plates, maps. 8vo, burgundy cloth. Vol. VIII, Spain in the West Series. Clark & Brunet 95: "Piracy in the Pacific between Panama and the Californias was never given the attention that the Caribbean pirates received. The activities of privateers such as Oxenham, Drake, Cavendish, Dampier, Clipperton and many others are detailed. They sought the Manila Galleons and the wealth of the mines of New Spain." Hill, p. 430. $50.00

36. GOLDER, F. A. Russian Expansion on the Pacific. Cleveland: Arthur H. Clark Company, 1914. 368 pp., frontispiece, plates, maps. 8vo, red cloth. Hinges cracked. Clark & Brunet 98: "Golder's study on Russian expansion is one of the pioneering efforts in elucidating the early

Clark & Brunet 108: "This series was Hafen's final major work in the field of western American history. Together with noted scholars and history buffs from throughout the country, he compiled biographies of the major male figures in the fur trade of the Far West. The series was very well received and continues to garner interest even after being out-of-print for nearly 20 years. The account of the fur trade written by Dr. Hafen...provides an excellent background study of the development of the trade." Rittenhouse 266. See Plains & Rockies IV:28n, 37an, 58cn. $900.00
