

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

1. ADAMS, Edson F. Oakland's Early History. [Oakland: Tribune, 1932]. 22 pp., tipped in photograph of author's father, founder of Oakland. 8vo, original blue cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Rocq 689.
$50.00

2. ADAMS, John Quincy. Texas. Extracts from the Address...to His Constituents of the Twelfth Congressional District of Massachusetts, at Braintree, September 17, 1842... Washington, 1842. 32 pp., text in English, French, and Spanish. 8vo, disbound.

"A condensed version of Adams' famous Braintree speech in which he accused the Jackson administration of promoting the 'dismemberment of our neighboring Republic of Mexico, and the acquisition of an immense portion of her territories...including the port and harbor of San Francisco, in California.' Adams' primary concern, however, was the proposed annexation of Texas, and its admission as a slave state--a condition that he ardently opposed" (Howell, Americana 52:473) Rader 46. Sabin 311. Streeter 1405 (locating 3 copies).
$400.00

3 [ADAMS-ONIS TREATY]. ONIS, Luis de. Memoria sobre las negociaciones entre España y los Estados-Unidos de América que dieron motivo al Tratado de 1819... Mexico: C. Martin Rivera, 1826. [6] 72 pp. 8vo, protective wrappers. Moderate browning at end of text, otherwise fine.

First Mexican edition. Howes 098. Sabin 57335. Streeter 1079A: "One of the most important documents in Texas history." This work contains a dissertation on the physical aspects and inhabitants of the disputed Texas-Louisiana boundary, along with the text of documents that passed between the U.S. and Spain during the negotiations leading up the the Adam-Onis Treaty. Written by the Spanish minister who negotiated the 1819
$500.00

4. ADDAMS, Jane. The Long Road of Woman's Memory. New York: Macmillan, 1916. xvi, 168 pp. 12mo, original gilt-lettered navy blue cloth. Ink library stamp on front pastedown, else very fine, signed by author.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition of the autobiography of the noted social reformer, settlement founder, and pacifist. See Notable American Women I:16-22.
$75.00

5. ADDAMS, Jane. Twenty Years at Hull House with Autobiographical Notes. New York: Macmillan, 1910. xviii, 462 [2] [4, ads] pp., frontispiece portrait, plates. 8vo, original terracotta cloth with illustration of Hull House on upper cover, t.e.g. An unusually fine, bright copy.

First edition. Downs, Books that Changed America 16: "Hull House was the beginning of what was to become a major movement to ameliorate the condition of the very poor in America...the original concept of social work." Kaplan 44-45.
$100.00

6. AGUAYO, Marqués de San Miguel de. Señor... [Printed petition to the King of Spain]. N.p., ca. 1710. 2 pp. folio folder. Very fine, original condition.

Unrecorded document of the second Marqués of Aguayo, Don Joseph de Azlor, whose expedition to Texas in 1721 was the cementing factor in assuring Spanish possession of Texas. In petitioning for clear title to his wife's estates in northern Mexico he presents interesting information on his own family status and that of his wife. Most important, he traces the family tree of the Marquesa through a series of female heirs to her fourth grandfather, Don Alonso López de Lois, a companion of Cortes. He also states that López de Lois was the discoverer and founder of the Royal Mines at Mazapil, a $750.00

7. AGUAYO, Marqués de San Miguel de. Señor... [Printed petition to the King of Spain]. N.p., ca. 1718. 3 pp. folio folder. Very fine, original condition.

Unrecorded. Aguayo asks the King to approve his own land title on estates in northern Mexico. In presenting his case, he reveals information that adds to our knowledge of his own life and events related to the Spanish settlement of Texas. He notes that his arrival in New Spain was in 1711, not 1710 or 1712 as previously believed. Perhaps most interesting of all, Aguayo here asserts that it was he who furnished cattle from his own hacienda in Coahuila for the missions of South Texas in 1717 when "there was none in that land." The Texas cattle industry had its genesis in the 18th century Spanish settlements along the San Antonio River, and this document shows that the father of the Texas cattle industry was Aguayo.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$1,500.00

8. ALESSIO ROBLES, Vito. Coahuila y Texas en la época colonial. [with] Coahuila y Texas desde la consumación de la independencia hasta el Tratado de Paz de Guadalupe Hidalgo. Mexico: Editorial Cvltvra, 1938; [Talleres Gráficos de la Nación, 1945-46. xii, 751 [2] pp., 8 maps (3 folding), 9 plates (3 in color) + xv, 542; 540 [1] pp, 8 maps (7 folding), 7 plates (1 in color). First work: 4to, original printed paper wrappers bound in full contemporary Mexican sheep, spine with raised bands and red morocco label. Former owner's signature on half title, else very fine. Second work: 2 vols., 4to, original printed paper wrappers. Fine set.

First editions, limited editions (100 copies printed). Griffin 2458 & 4903: "Provides a rich, solid history...a major work [that] will long be considered a standard work of reference." Howes R382. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 1: "Presents the history of Texas as a Spanish province and state from the Mexican viewpoint." Palau 7433. Steck, Borderlands, p. 53: "A splendid, authoritative study, heavily documented, with a rich bibliography." It is very difficult to locate all three volumes together, especially in the limited edition.

$750.00

9. ALESSIO ROBLES, Vito. Coahuila y Texas desde la consumación de la independencia hasta el Tratado de Paz de Guadalupe Hidalgo. Mexico, 1945-46. xv, 542; 540 [1] pp., 8 maps (7 folding), 7 plates (1 in color). 2 vols., 4to, original printed paper wrappers. Very fine

First edition. Trade edition of second work listed in preceding entry.

$300.00

10. ALEXANDER, Eveline Martin]. Among the Pimas or the Mission to the Pima and Maricopa Indians. Albany: Ladies' Union Mission School Assn., 1893. 136pp., photographic frontispiece of ladies in Victorian attire standing before the primitive mission house and chapel at Sacaton, Arizona, other plates (photographic and engraved). 12mo, original dark green cloth. A little light staining at end, otherwise very fine.

First edition. Not in Howes, Graff, etc. Dr. Sandra L. Myres, author of Cavalry Wife, the Diary of Eveline M. Alexander, was kind enough to examine this book and identify the author as Alexander. In her preliminary bibliography on army wives in the Trans-Mississippi West, she comments: "Probably written while Colonel Alexander was commanding officer at Fort McDowell, Arizona, 1868-1869. Mrs. Alexander was active in raising funds for a mission to the near-by Indians." (Following the Drum, p. 1).

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$125.00

11. ANDUEZA, José María de. Isla de Cuba pintoresca... Madrid: Boix, 1841. vii, 182 [1] pp., 12 lithographic plates. 4to, half 19th century vellum over red marbled boards, navy blue morocco spine label. First few leaves lightly foxed, otherwise very fine, the plates excellent.

First edition. Palau 12363. Very scarce Cuban plate book, including street scenes, harbor views, architecture, countryside vistas, etc.

$1,500.00

12. ARISTOTLE. The Midwife's Guide Being the Complete Works of Aristotle... New York: Published for the Trade, 1846. 161 pp., colored frontispiece of a midwife presenting an infant to a new father, 3 delicately colored anatomical plates, numerous text illustrations. 16mo, original brown blind-stamped cloth, gilt spine. Title browned and occasional foxing, otherwise very good.

An Americanized version of Aristotle's Secrets of Women. This little book was probably carried overland by many families who anticipated having to bring their children into the world without medical assistance.

$100.00

13 [ARIZONA].. Hoof and Horn. Official Organ of the Territorial Live Stock Association of Arizona. Official Paper of Yavapai County. P rescott, April 19, 1888. 14 pp., folio, pictorial ads (including Kansas City Stock Yards, Ayers' saddles and Burton rail stock cars), numerous cattle brands illustrated. A few leaves with small marginal tears and creased where folded, but overall a very good copy.

First printing of Vol. III, No. 35 of a very scarce Southwestern newspaper. Not in Adams or Wallace. Contains general news on the ranges of the Southwest and specific news for the territorial range by county. The presence of over 100 illustrations of cattle brands make this periodical practically a brandbook.

$300.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

14. ARIZPE, I. de. (Mexican Governor of Coahuila y Tejas). Señores. Encargado por una ley de Estado de dar cumplimiento... [Mexico, 1827]. 9 pp., 4 large folding tables. 8vo, original plain wrappers. Very fine copy, preserved in felt-lined brown slipcase.

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:28: "This is the first of the governor's reports to contain the indispensable tables, one of which (No. 7) is a schedule of sales of land by Austin and others. On page 9 Arizpe takes up the Fredonia revolution in Nacogdoches, promoted by troublesome Americans, and the means taken to suppress it." Streeter 717 (five loc., only one in Texas). This report by the governor of the state of Coahuila y Tejas provides a summary of political and economic conditions of the state during the years 1825 and 1826. The folding tables, one of which records the sale of lands in Texas by Stephen Austin and others, contain statistical information.
$2,500.00

15. AUDUBON, John J. and John Bachman. The Quadrupeds of North America. New York: Audubon, 1854. 3 vols., complete, 155 colored lithographed plates. Royal 8vo, publisher's original dark brown gilt morocco, spine with raised bands, inner gilt dentelles, a.e.g. Hinge of vol. 2 neatly repaired and new front free endpaper supplied. Moderate browning and occasional light stains, but overall a very good set.

First complete octavo edition of the text and plates. BMC (Natural History) 1:71. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books, p. 5. Meisel III:440-44. Nissen 162n. Wood, p. 208. A classic work of American natural history, depicting the mammals of North America in the same superb style as Aududon's Birds. To prepare this work, Audubon traveled throughout the eastern U.S. and Canada, and as far west as the Yellowstone. His son, John Woodhouse, went to Texas and London to assist his father, and when Audubon suffered a stroke, his son finished the sketches his father had begun. Bachman, a friend of the family and a naturalist, wrote the text. Many of the animals were depicted for the first time, and many had never been so accurately and beautifully painted. Includes several plates of Texas interest that will be included in the forthcoming work by Holman and Tyler.
$4,500.00

16. AUSTIN, Harriet N. The American Costume :Woman's Right to Good Health. Dansville: Hurd, 1866. 22 pp. 8vo, protective wrappers. Fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Schlesinger Collection, p. 65. Not in Sabin. A rather forward-looking work by a woman doctor who counsels against whalebone stays and other unhealthy attire for American women.

$125.00

17. AUSTIN, Mary. The Land of Little Rain. Boston and New York: Houghton, Mifflin, 1903. xi [5] 280 [2] pp., pictorial title-page, frontispiece, 3 full-page plates, numerous marginal illustrations. Square 8vo, original dark olive green pictorial cloth, t.e.g. A very good copy with a few light stains.

First edition. Cowan, p. 24. Edwards, The Enduring Desert, p. 14: "Ranks among the all-time great books on California, and an acknowledged classic of the desert." Graff 114. Howes A400. Zamorano Eighty 1. A series of charming sketches of the desert area surrounding Owens Valley and the approaches to Death Valley. The illustrations and marginal decorations by E. Boyd Smith vividly capture the atmosphere of desert life described in this classic.

$300.00

18. BAKER, D. W. C. A Brief History of Texas from Its Earliest Settlement. To Which is Appended the Constitution of the State... New York & Chicago: Barnes, 1873. 200 [16] pp., frontispiece portrait of Sam Houston, portrait of Stephen F. Austin, text illustrations of Indians, branding cattle, etc. 12mo, original black cloth embossed with lone stars, sympathetically rebaked in dark brown morocco antique.

First edition. Raines, p. 18. Not in Howes. Apparently the first textbook devoted solely to Texas history, written by the founder of the Austin Public Library, who also was instrumental in the founding of the Austin public school system. From the time of his arrival in Texas in the 1840's, Baker gathered and preserved historical records of Texas, and the present work provided the inspiration for his better-known, and less scarce, A Texas Scrap-Book (see Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 5). The Appendix of the present work, with its extracts from writings and speeches of early Texans, contains original material that has contributed to a better understanding of the Republic era.

$275.00

19. BANCROFT, H. H. History of Alaska. 1730-1885. San Francisco: Bancroft, 1886. xxxviii, 775 pp., maps. 8vo,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

original three-quarter brown morocco over marbled boards. Other than very light shelf wear, a very fine

First edition. Howes B90: "Includes the most comprehensive English account of Russian America." Tourville 379. Smith 509. Wickersham 4049. After almost a century, still the most detailed authority on $65.00

20. BANCROFT, H. H. History of California 1542-1884. San Francisco: Bancroft, 1884-90. 7 vols., complete, 8vo, original brown cloth. Call numbers on spines, otherwise a fine, tight set.

First edition. Cowan, p. 33: "As time passes and prejudice drifts into obscurity, these works become more strongly entrenched each year. For scholars and investigators they will always remain the greatest source of authority." Howes B91. Palau 23185. Rocq 16668. Smith 530. Zamorano Eighty 3. $300.00

21. BANCROFT, H. H. History of Mexico. San Francisco, 1883. 6 vols., complete, original three-quarter brown morocco over marbled boards, spine gilt with raised bands, t.e.g. Very fine in a handsome, durable binding.

First edition. Griffin 993: "Despite passage of time, this monumental work continues to serve as an important reference work and a gold mine of bibliographic information. It can serve as a point of departure for virtually any topic in Mexican history." Larned 3927. Palau 32185. $350.00

22. BANCROFT, H. H. History of the Northern Mexican States and Texas. 1531-1889. San Francisco: Bancroft, 1884-89. xlvi + xvi, 751 + 888 pp., 2 folding maps, illustrations. 2 vols., 8vo, original brown cloth. White library numbers at foot of spine and one hinge weak, otherwise fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 11. Graff 155. Howes B91. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 6. Raines, pp. 20-21: "Were I restricted to a single book on Texas, I would, without hesitation, take Bancroft's history." An invaluable, comprehensive history of Texas. $300.00

23. BARBÉ-MARBOIS, M. The History of Louisiana, Particularly of the Cession of that Colony to the United States of America... Philadelphia: Carey & Lea, 1830. 7, viii-xviii [3] 18-455 [1, errata] pp. 8vo, new red morocco over red cloth. Small ink stamp on title and occasional light foxing and browning. Very good.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition in English (original edition, Paris 1829). Howes B115. Raines, p. 21: "In this history of Louisiana, and of its cession to the United States, the author takes occasion to say: 'Texas is one of the finest countries in the world, of whose existence Europeans, so engrossed in making conquests in America, seem up to this time to have no knowledge.' Also an account of the old French colony at Camp Asylum on the Trinity." The author represented France in the preliminary negotiations with the United States on the Louisiana Purchase, and his book is one of the main sources on the subject.

$250.00

24 [BARBED WIRE].. The Celebrated Baker Perfect Barb Wire. Pocket Record... Chicago: Baker Department Consolidated Steel & Wire Co., 1896. 48 pp., illustrations of barbed wire. 32mo, original pictorial wrappers. Very fine.

First edition of this interesting ephemeron of the cattle country. Contains about 15 full pages of advertising and illustration of Baker's barbed wire along with record-keeping pages, each with a short statement or endorsement of the firm's barbed wire. The endorsements are from individuals in Gainesville, Fort Worth, Quanah, Houston, Weatherford, and Pittsburgh, Texas, along with one from Oklahoma Territory.

$45.00

25. BARREIRO, Coronel J. Diario de las operaciones... Puebla: Macias, 1857. 64 pp., large folding colored map of Puebla, folding chart. 8vo, original green printed wrappers.

First edition. Sutro, p. 910. Not in Palau. Rare pamphlet on the decisive Puebla revolt between October and December of 1856 during the Reform War, with the valuable city map of Puebla.

$175.00

26. BARRIENTOS, Bartolomé. Pedro Menéndez de Avilis. Founder of Florida... Gainesville: University of Florida Press, 1965. xxviii, 161 [2]; 152 pp., frontispiece portrait. 8vo, original gilt-decorated red cloth. Very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First English translation. Includes a facsimile of the first edition in Spanish. The author was a contemporary of Menéndez. Uncommon.
$40.00

27. BARTLETT, John R. Personal Narrative of Explorations and Incidents in Texas, New Mexico, California, Sonora, and Chihuahua, connected with the Mexican Boundary Commission...1850-53. New York: Appleton, 1854. xxii, 506 [6]; xviii, 624 pp., folding map, 16 tinted lithographic plates (2 folding), numerous wood-cut plates and textcuts. 2 vols., 8vo, original green cloth, gilt pictorial spines. Interior lightly browned and binding with a few small nicks, but a near fine set in a bright, tight binding.

First edition. Abbey 658. Clark III:272. Cowan, p. 36. Graff 298: "An essential book for the Southwest." Hill, p. 18: "First thoroughly scholarly description of the Southwest." Howes B201. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 12. Plains & Rockies IV:234:1. Powell, Southwestern Century 9. Raines, p. 22. Wheat, Gold Regions 252; Mapping the Transmississippi West 798: "Among the most important Western maps...excellent early maps showing Gadsden Purchase Boundary." "As a piece of narrative writing about the American West, Bartlett's book ranks alongside those of Fremont, Parkman, and Gregg as a classic. Within its pages is contained a panoramic view of the way of life of an entire region previously known only to a few" (Goetzmann, Army Exploration, pp. 205-06). Contains handsome plates of Mexico and the Southwest--one of the lithographs is to be included in Holman and Tyler's forthcoming book on 19th century lithographs of Texas.
$750.00

28 [BARTLETT, JOHN R.]. HINE, Robert V. Bartlett's West. Drawing the Mexican Boundary. New Haven and London: Yale University Press [1968]. [1] xviii, 155 pp., 56 illustrations, some in color. Oblong 8vo, original brown pictorial cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Historical survey of marking of the border after the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, with illustrations of original art work by Bartlett and other members of the expedition.
$35.00

29. BENÍTEZ, Fernando. La ruta de Hernán Cortés. Mexico: Salvat, 1983. 258 [1] pp., profusely illustrated, including colored drawings by Miguel Covarrubias and facsimiles of engravings and maps from various editions of

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Solís and other works on the conquest. Small folio, original full maroon calf, gilt-lettered map on upper cover, gilt dentelles, gilt gaufered edges. Preserved in publisher's half maroon calf drop box, with special framed compartment for the original initialled pen and ink sketch by Covarrubias for one of the drawings in the book. Very fine, signed by

First edition, limited edition, one of the five copies specially made for the author and contributors to the production of the book, in the publisher's gift binding and with an original Covarrubias sketch. Mexican fine press book.

$950.00

30. BENÍTEZ, José R. Las catedrales de Oaxaca, Morelia y Zacatecas. Estudio de arqueografía comparada. Mexico: Talleres Gráficos de la Nación, 1934. 62 [12] pp., plans and illustrations. Small 4to, original decorated wrappers. Fragile wraps moderately worn.

First edition. Palau 27393.

$60.00

31. BENÍTEZ, José R. Historia Gráfica de la Nueva España. Mexico: Instituto Gráfico Oliva de Vilanova, 1929. 305 [4] pp., double-page color plates and maps. 4to, original white and maize printed wrappers. Very light wear to wrappers, overall very fine.

First edition. Includes topical maps and charts for routes of the conquistadores, missions and missionaries, coinage, Indian population, etc. Finely printed.

$75.00

32. BENNETT, William P. The First Baby in Camp, a Full Account of the Scenes and Adventures during the Pioneers Days of '49... Salt Lake City: Rancher Publishing, 1893. 68 [2] pp. 12mo, original pink wrappers printed in blue. Light staining to upper wrapper, else fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 48. Flake 407. Graff 263. Pioneer recollections of the Sierras and the Gold Rush, including an account of the first baby born in the gold fields.

$75.00

33. BENNETT, William P. The Sky-Sifter, the Great Chieftainess and "Medicine Woman" of the Mohawks...Scenes in Canada, in the States, on the Great Lakes on the Plains and in California... N.p., 1892. 302 [2] pp., wood-engraved frontispiece of Sky-Sifter. 12mo, original grey printed wrappers. Small tear to fragile wrapper and some minor marginal wear, but generally a fine copy of a scarce book.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Cowan, p. 48. Flake 208: "Contains a fictionalized account of his aunt's captivity by the Mohawk." Wright (III:489) lists the work but states that the author was not Bennett. A curious work of which Eberstadt (105:30) remarked: "Cited by Kelly (Salt Desert Trails) as one of the three known narratives of the crossing of the Salt Desert by the Emigration of $175.00

34. BERLANDIER, J. L. The Indians of Texas in 1830. Washington, 1969. xii, 209 pp., maps, illustrations, some in color. 4to, original brown cloth. Very fine in

First edition in English. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 14B: "The best scientific study of Texas during the colonial period." Howes B379n. Raines, p. 4n. Plains Rockies IV:178an. This scholarly edition is printed from the original manuscript at the Gilcrease Institute and contains previously unpublished watercolors made during the expedition. One of the few sources available on Indian women in Texas prior to the Revolution.
$60.00

35 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. BECKER, Robert H. The Plains & the Rockies.... San Francisco: Arion Press for John Howell-Books, 1982. xx, 745 pp., illustrations. Large 8vo, original maroon cloth. Very fine.

Fourth edition, enlarged and revised. The standard bibliography on the Western trek, published by the distinguished bookman, Warren R. Howell.
$150.00

36 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. BELLINGHAM, Susan. A Catalogue of the Dance Collection in the Doris Lewis Rare Book Room... Waterloo: University of Waterloo Library, 1983. [6] 201 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original blue wrappers. New, as issued.

Second and best edition, revised and enlarged.
$20.00

37 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. CARTER, John and Percy H. Muir. Printing and the Mind of Man, a Descriptive Catalogue Illustrating the Impact of Print on the Evolution of Western Civilization during Five Centuries... [London & New York, 1967]. xxxvi, 280 pp., illustrated. Small folio, original burnt orange cloth. Fine in d.j. with slight wear.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition

$150.00

38 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. CARTER, John, et al. Printing and the Mind of Man. Catalogue of the Exhibitions at the British Museum and at Earls Court. London, 1963. 128; 64 pp., plates.

First edition. Includes items from bibliography described in the preceding entry, along with material on the history of printing.

$60.00

39 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. DYKES, Jeff. Rare Western Outlaw Books. Albuquerque: Albuquerque Corral, 1985. vi, 42 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original printed wrappers. New, as issued.

First edition, limited edition (#427 of 535 signed copies). Another fine contribution to Western bibliography by Dykes.

$20.00

40 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. EBERSTADT, Edward & Sons. Catalogue 162, Texas, Being a Collection of Rare & Important Books & Manuscripts Relating to the Lone Star State, with an Introduction by Archibald Hanna. New York [1963]. 220 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original ecru printed wrappers. Fine, with date stamp on upper wrapper.

First edition. Finest Texana catalogue ever issued, containing 950 annotated entries and introduction by Dr. Hanna.

$75.00

41 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. EBERSTADT, Edward & Sons. The Annotated Eberstadt Catalogues of Americana. New York: Argosy-Antiquarian, 1965. 4 vols., complete, illustrated, 8vo, original maroon cloth. Very fine.

Indispensable reference work for Americana, providing thousands of bibliographical entries and commentary.

$125.00

42 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. EDWARDS, E. I. The Enduring Desert. A Descriptive Bibliography. [Los Angeles]: Ward Ritchie Press, 1969. xiv, 306 pp. 8vo, original beige cloth. Very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First printing of the revised, enlarged, and updated edition of this classic bibliographical treatise on California desert literature.

$75.00

43 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. EVANS, Herbert McLean. Exhibition of First Editions of Epochal Achievements in the History of Science. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1934. 48 pp. 16mo, original grey printed wrappers.

First edition. Contains 114 annotated entries by the noted bibliophile and discoverer of Vitamin E.

$40.00

44 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. GARCIA ICAZBALCETA, Joaquin. Bibliografía Mexicana del siglo XVI...nueva edición, por Agustín Millares Carlo... Mexico: Fondo de Cultura Económica, 1954. 581 [2] pp., illustrations. 4to, original Mexican gilt calf over beige linen. Light wear from use, still a very good copy.

Revised edition of the 1886 original. Griffin 2268: "The revised edition makes some correctons and adds some new items to the original edition of 1886. Chronological listing of 179 Mexican imprints from 1539 to 1600 with bibliographical data and commentary. Special articles on the introduction of printing, sixteenth-century medicine...An elaborate publication with numerous facsimiles of title-pages and exact typographical reproductions. A virtually definitive work."

$125.00

45 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. GRIFFIN, Charles C. (editor). Latin America, a Guide to the Historical Literature. Austin & London: University of Texas Press, 1971. 700 pp. 8vo, original cloth. New, in d.j.

First edition. Indispensable reference work, with over 7,000 annotated entries.

$45.00

46 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. HARPER, Lathrop C. Catalogue 14. Americana Iberica. New York, 1962. [2] 226 pp., plates. 8vo, original printed wrappers. Fine.

First edition. Excellent catalogue with 859 annotated entries for books, pamphlets and broadsides printed in Mexico, Cuba, Central and South America from 1556 to 1866. Includes much on the Southwest and Texas.

$20.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

47 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. HART, Dr. James D. A Companion to California. New York: Oxford University Press, 1978. [12] 504 pp. Small 4to, original navy blue cloth. Very fine in lightly worn d.j.

First edition. About 3,000 cross-referenced entries.
$25.00

48 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. HECKMAN, M. L. Overland on the California Trail, 1846-1859. A Bibliography of Manuscript & Printed Travel Narratives...Foreword by Louis L'Amour. Glendale: Clark, 1984. 159 [2] pp. 8vo, original red cloth. Mint in d.j.

First edition, limited edition (#24 Of 500 copies). Annotated bibliography of printed and manuscript overland narratives to California via the South Pass from 1846 to 1859, including those published after 1859. An excellent supplement to Plains & Rockies.
$50.00

49 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. HILLS, Margaret T. The English Bible in America. A Bibliography of Editions of the Bible & the New Testament Published in America 1777-1957. New York: American Bible Society and New York Public Library, 1961. Large 8vo, original blue cloth. Fine.

Standard work on the subject; revised and greatly expanded version of the corresponding portion of Darlow and Moule.
$100.00

50 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. HOWES, Wright. U.S.-iana (1650-1950). A Selected Bibliography in which are Described. 11,620 Uncommon and Significant Books Relating to the Continental Portion of the U.S. New York: Bowker, 1983. 652 pp. 8vo, original brown cloth. Very fine copy of the reprint of the standard bibliography on

$75.00

51 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. KING, Evelyn. Women on the Cattle Trail and in the Roundup. Glendale: Brazos Corral of the Westerners, 1983. 22 pp. 8vo, original blue wrappers with illustration by Cisneros. Very fine.

First edition. Contains a useful bibliography that will be the basis of a forthcoming catalogue of this
$15.00

52 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. LADA-MOCARSKI, Valerian. Bibliography of Books on Alaska Published before 1868...With an

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Introduction by Archibald Hanna, Jr. New Haven & London: Yale University Press, 1969. viii, 567 pp. 4to, original red cloth. Very fine in lightly worn d.j.

First edition. The premier bibliography on early Alaska and Russian America, with reproductions of 161 title-pages and complete bibliographical citations. Out-of-print and very scarce.

$250.00

53 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. MARTIN, J. C. and R. S. Maps of Texas and the Southwest, 1513-1900. Albuquerque: University of New Mexico Press for Amon Carter Museum, 1984. x, 174 pp., numerous illustrations of maps, some in color. Oblong 4to, original cloth, d.j. New, as First edition. Illustrations and detailed descriptions of 50 historically significant maps of Texas and the Southwest.

$50.00

54 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. MEDINA, José T. Historia y bibliografía de la imprenta en el antiguo Virreinato del Rio de la Plata. London, Buenos Aires, Paris, and La Plata: Quaritch, et al., 1892. [4] xiv, 36, xiv, 12 [4] xlv, 452, xvi, 15 [1] xviii pp., numerous illustrations and plates. Folio, original half brown morocco over marbled boards, spine with raised bands. Head of spine worn, light foxing to first few leaves, and small ink stamp on title, but overall a very good copy of a scarce book.

First edition. Palau 159478. The major source book for the establishment and early years of printing in Rio de la Plata, with separate sections for Paraguay, Córdoba, Buenos Aires, and Montevideo.

$450.00

55 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. PEÑA, E. A. Estudio de los periódicos y revistas existentes en la "Biblioteca Enrique Peña." Buenos Aires, 1935. 632. pp., illustrations. 4to, original brown printed wrappers.

First edition, limited edition (#33 Of 250 examples). Palau 217340. Very scarce bibliography on the newspapers and periodicals of South America printed between 1801 and 1935.

$150.00

56 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. RAINES, C. W. A Bibliography of Texas... [Houston: Frontier Press of Texas, 1955]. xvi, 268 pp. 8vo, original black cloth. Fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Facsimile reprint of the very scarce 1896 original edition, which constitutes the first Texas bibliography.
$75.00

57 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. RAMÍREZ, José F. Obras...Tomo III...Adiciones á la Biblioteca de Beristain. Mexico: Agüeros, 1898. 496 [1] pp. 12mo, contemporary blue cloth. Occasional light marginal staining, otherwise very good.

First edition. Palau 27967. Glass, pp. 680-81. This work, which supplements and forms the final volume of Beristain de Souza's Biblioteca Hispano-Americana Septentrional, contains largely undocumented biographical and bibliographical data on authors, books, and manuscripts, including some material of interest to Mexican pictorial codices and pre-Cortesian events.
$85.00

58 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. REED, Richard B., cataloguer. Anniversary Catalogue. One Hundred and Twenty Fine Books, Manuscripts and Works of Art Selected to Commemorate the 70th Anniversary of John Howell-Books and the 50th Anniversary of Warren R. Howell's Association with the Firm. San Francisco, 1982. [6] 187 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original blue wrappers. Mint.

First printing. A splendid gathering of material; Warren R. Howell's last catalogue.
$20.00

59 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. RIO BRANCO, J. M. da Silva. Catálogo da coleção Visconde do Rio-Branco. [Rio de Janeiro, 1950]. 508; 508, lxxxiv [1] pp., portrait. 4to, original white printed wrappers. Small tear to vol. 1 wrapper, else very fine.

Catalogue of the collection of Baron Rio Branco, containing over 5,000 items on South America.
$85.00

60 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. SWANSON, E. B. A Century of Oil and Gas in Books--A Descriptive Bibliography. New York: Appleton-Century-Crofts [1960]. xvi, 214 pp. 8vo, original light blue cloth. Fine in lightly worn d.j.

First edition. Over 2,000 entries with informative annotations. Uncommon.
$75.00

61 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. SWINGLE, John (compiler)]. John Howell-Books, Catalogue 33. San Francisco: Lawton Kennedy,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

1961. 100 pp., illustrated. 4to, original white decorated wrappers. A fine copy.

First edition. Describes 111 outstanding items in the fields of Americana, science, and literature, including a Mexican codex. Glass, pp. 629-30: "Photoreproduction of two pages of the Techialoyan Codex of Santa Maria Tepexoyucan."

$25.00

62 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. TOOLEY, R. V. Tooley's Dictionary of Mapmakers. Hertfordshire: Map Collector Publications, 1979. xii, 684 pp., portraits. Thick 8vo, original maroon buckram. Very fine in d.j.

First edition.

$35.00

63 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. VAIL, R. W. G. The Voice of the Old Frontier. New York: Yoseloff, 1949. xii, 492 pp. 8vo, original navy blue cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Standard bibliography on the early American frontier period, with 1,300 annotated entries on Westward expansion to 1800.

$45.00

64 [BIBLIOGRAPHY]. VALTON, Emilio. Documentos para la historia de la tipografia americana. Mexico, 1936. x, 36 pp., plates. 4to, original printed wrappers. Light marginal staining to wrappers, otherwise fine, with author's signed presentation inscription to John Howell at San Francisco in 1936.

First edition. Contains the legal instruments relating to Juan Pablos' producing the first imprints in the New World.

$75.00

65. BIDDLE, Ellen McGowan. Reminiscences of a Soldier's Wife. Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1907. 257 [2, list of subscribers] pp., frontispiece portrait, 18 photographic plates. 8vo, original gilt-decorated blue cloth, t.e.g. Fine, with contemporary ownership

First edition. Graff 288: "A very good account of Army life at western posts after the Civil War." Howes B426. Myres, Following the Drum, p. 3. A Mississippi belle recounts cavalry life in Arizona, Colorado, California, Nebraska, and elsewhere.

$125.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

66. BINGHAM, Helen. In Tamal Land. San Francisco: Calkins, 1906. [12] 141 pp., profusely illustrated with photographs. 8vo, original green pictorial cloth. Light outer wear, interior fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 54. Rocq 4954. Very scarce history of Marin County, especially valuable for its many fine documentary photographs. Not in Adams, although there is excellent coverage of the regional cattle industry. $150.00

67. BIRDSEYE, Sidney H. (commissioner). Informe detallado de la comisión técnica de demarcación de la frontera entre Guatemala y Honduras... Washington: Roberts, 1937. xii, 477 pp., numerous folding maps and plates, photographic illustrations + atlas portfolio containing 16 large folding maps. Laid in are about 45 typewritten sheets prepared by the Comité de Estudiantes Universitarios Anticomunistas relating to sensitive affairs in Guatemala, including a list with biographical notes on persons the group considers politically dangerous. 2 vols., large 4to, original green gilt-decorated cloth. Fine.

First edition. Highly detailed report on the marking of the boundary between Guatemala and Honduras, including the treaty of arbitration made in Washington in 1930. $125.00

68. BLAKE, R. B. (compiler). The San Jacinto Campaign of 1836 as Given by Depositions in the Case of John Forbes vs. Nicholas D. Labadie. District Court of Nacogdoches County, Texas. N.p., ca. 1920. [3] 177 + [1] 190 pp., mimeographed typescript. 4to, original wrappers, black cloth backstrip. Very good.

First printing of a libel suit brought by John Forbes, who came to Nacogdoches in 1834, where he became chairman of the Committee of Vigilance and Public Safety and later aide-de-camp to Sam Houston. Forbes served as commissary general for the Republic of Texas army, and following the battle of San Jacinto, he had charge of all the spoils of battle. The 1866 libel suit arose on account of statements made by Willard and Daniel Richardson in the 1858 Texas Almanac stating that Forbes had incited the unjustified murder of a prisoner of war at the Battle of San Jacinto and had wrongly appropriated to himself many spoils of the Revolution. Forbes regained his tarnished honor and the publishers were ordered to print a retraction. The content of the lawsuit goes far beyond its revelation of the character of Forbes. The transcript of the case contains numerous depositions by witnesses at the Battle of San Jacinto, such as Sam Houston, W. Austin Bryan, the Borden brothers, and many others, that contain previously unpublished details about the Texas Revolution. Very rare, only a few copies having been printed for private distribution.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$225.00

69. BOCANEGRA, José Maria de. ...Se concede al ciudadano Juan Davis Bradburn por el término de quince años, privilegio exclusivo de introducir buques de vapor ó de caballo en el Rio grande del Norte... Mexico, May 13, 1829. Folio broadside. Fair copy only, stained and repaired.

Unrecorded issue of Streeter 748. The original decree of May 9th is known by only one copy--Streeter's copy now at Yale--and this is an unrecorded issue. An important Rio Grande document, granting Bradburn exclusive rights to navigate the Rio Grande with steam or horse-powered vessels for fifteen years.

$650.00

70. BOLLES, J. S. Las Monjas. A Major Pre-Mexican Architectural Complex at Chichén Itzá. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press [1977]. xii, 304 pp., numerous photographs, maps, plans, text illustrations. Oblong 4to, original grey pictorial cloth. Very fine in d.j., with author's presentation inscription to Howell.

First edition.

$60.00

71 [BORDERLANDS]. COKE, Richard (Governor of Texas)]. Mensaje del gobernador de Texas a la legislature decimacuarta segunda sesion. Mexico: Cumplido, 1876. 168 pp. 12mo, recent half red Mexican calf over red cloth. A few leaves lightly browned, but overall fine.

First Mexican edition. Palau 164643. Porrua 8338. Apparently unknown to Anglo-American bibliographers--not recorded by Raines, Howes, Adams, etc. Governor Coke's message outlines increasing problems with outlaw bands, cattle rustlers, and hostile Indians operating from both sides of the border and the need for increased troops and Texas Rangers to bring law and order to Texas. Included is an appendix of highly interesting documents, such as Coke's letter to the U.S. Attorney General in regard to an order he issued to Capt. Refugio Benavides to cross the Rio Grande "if necessary".

$475.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

72 [BORDERLANDS].. Informe de la Comisión Pesquisidora de la Frontera del Norte...en cumplimiento del Artículo 3... [with] Informe de la Comisión Pesquisidora de la Frontera del Norte...sobre depredaciones de los Indios [and] Apéndice...que contiene estados de las incursiones de los indios, varios documentos sobre sus depredaciones, y muchas otras constancias del mal estado de las relaciones entre las fronteras de México y los Estados-Unidos. Mexico, 1874. 124; [8] 168; [86] xliii-lxiv pp., 3 folding maps outlined in color, one of which is a huge map measuring 82 x 71 cm. Small folio, full Mexican calf. Tears in folds of maps expertly repaired, else a fine copy of a very rare item.

First edition. Adams (Six-Guns 1108; Herd 1130), Howes (I33), and Palau (119576-77) list only the first report. These reports were prepared by a Mexican commission investigating recurring Indian depredations, cattle rustling, and the general chaotic state of the border. An English translation was published in 1875, but it does not contain all of the material found in this Mexican edition. The complete Mexican text of these cornerstone borderlands reports have never been printed in English. The large map showing the Rio Grande from its mouth to the Big Bend region is the most detailed of the period, including even the ranches on both sides of the border (see Day, Maps of Texas, p. 87).
$1,200.00

73 [BORDERLANDS].. Secretaria de Guerra y Marina...Se adopta el sistema de compañías presidiales para la defensa de los Estados internos de oriente, occidente, y territorio de Nuevo-México... Mexico, March 21, 1826. 6 leaves and 2 folding tables. Folio, plain wrappers, stitched. Very fine.

First edition. Streeter 714 (locating only two copies, one at the University of Texas and his own, which subsequently went to Yale). Eberstadt, Texas 162:335: "A rare and important decree, setting up a new system for the defense of the frontiers. The tables show the make-up of the forces of the presidial companies at Tucson, Túbac, Altar, Bahia del Espiritu Santo, San Antonio de Béjar, etc. In all Sonora and Sinaloa were to have nine presidial companies, New Mexico three, and Coahuila y Tejas seven. The text gives many interesting details of the presidial system in eleven numbered
$900.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

74. BOTURINI BENEDUCI, Lorenzo. Idea de una nueva historia general de la América Septentrional... Madrid: Juan de Zúñiga, 1746. [40] 167 [8] 96 pp., finely engraved frontispiece depicting Indians, globe and portrait of the King of Spain. 4to, old Spanish calf, a.e.g. A clean, crisp copy in a handsome binding.

First edition. Field 159. Glass, p. 564. Medina 3403. Palau 33786: "Obra estimada e indispensable a todo americanista." Sabin 6834. This book constitutes one of our most valuable sources for the earliest history of Mexico and the manners and customs of the Indians. It contains important information on Mexican antiquities never before published based on manuscripts and pictures preserved in monasteries. Much of Boturini's book came directly from interviews with Indians and the rich collection of Mexican pictorial codices described in the appendix have for the most part disappeared.
$1,000.00

75. BOURKE, John G. The Snake-Dance of the Moquis of Arizona, being a Narrative of a Journey from Santa Fe, New Mexico, to the Villages of the Moqui Indians of Arizona... New York: Scribner's, 1884. xvii, 371 pp., 33 lithographed plates (17 colored, one folding). 8vo, original green gilt pictorial cloth. Hinges strengthened and occasional light browning (not affecting plates), otherwise a very fine, bright copy.

First edition. Aliot, p. 36. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books, p. 16. Graff 368. Howes B655. Saunders 1471. This outstanding ethnological work, which Dobie called "the pioneer work on the subject," remains unsurpassed both in content and illustration of the ancient snake dance of the Moqui Indians. "One of the last in the tradition of humanist-scientific military officers who recorded the American West, Bourke's historical work is vivid, observant, and humorous, and his ethnological studies remain invaluable to modern scholars" (Lamar). A very
$375.00

76. BRACKENRIDGE, H. M. Voyage to South America, Performed by Order of the American Government in the Years 1817-1818, in the Frigate Congress... Baltimore: Published by the Author, 1819. 351 [1] [1, errata] + 381 pp., large folding map hand-colored in outline. 8vo, full mottled calf extra gilt by Riviere. The exceptionally fine Cintas copy in a handsome binding. Laid in is author's interesting 2-page holograph letter to Dr. William Baldwin dated from Baltimore in November 1818 regarding affairs in various South American countries. The letter, with integral address and early American postal mark, is in very fine condition.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Borba de Moraes I:117: "Valuable account." Hill, p. 33: "Brackenridge was made secretary of the commission sent by Monroe to study the political situation in South America." Jones, South America Rediscovered, p. 243. Palau 34367. Shaw & Shoemaker 4713. Important narrative of the earliest U.S. diplomatic mission to the newly independent South

$750.00

77. BRAMMER, William. The Gay Place... Boston: Houghton Mifflin; Cambridge: Riverside Press, 1961. x, 626 pp. 8vo, original red cloth. Very fine in d.j. Signed by author, invitation to publisher's party in Austin honoring author laid in, along with review and advertisement for the book from the Austin American.

First edition. Greene, The Fifty Best Books on Texas, pp. 62-63: "In many ways the best modern novel about Texas."

$125.00

78 [BRAZIL]. COMMISSAO GEOGRAPHICA E GEOLOGICA DO ESTADO DE S. PAULO. Exploração do Rio Tieté... [plus about ten other reports of exploration of São Paulo]. São Paulo: Typographia Brazil de Rothschild & Cia, 1910. Hundreds of pages of text and a profusion of huge folding maps and photographs (panoramic views, Indians, etc.). Large thick folio, full contemporary black morocco with ownership stamp of A. W. K. Billings, spine with raised bands. Excellent condition.

A truly remarkable gathering of in-depth field studies of the Brazilian state of São Paulo, particularly rich in materials on geography, geology, and ethnography. The commission of investigation which performed the explorations was formed as a result of the economic agreements by the Rothschilds and Campos Salles, one of the country's first civilian presidents. These reports with their incredible detail were the first of this type for the region, and some of them remain unsurpassed even today.

$500.00

79. BREMER, Fredrika. The Homes of the New World; Impressions of America...Translated by Mary Howitt. London: Arthur Hall, Virtue, & Co., 1853. xv [1] 407; [4] 460; [4] 463 pp., 6 plates. 3 vols., 8vo, dark brown calf antique over marbled boards, spine with raised bands and red and black morocco labels. A handsome set.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First English edition. Buck 459: "Interesting descriptions of Illinois towns, prairies, and homes...especially the condition of Scandinavian immigrants." Clark I:450. Howes B745. Tuckerman 298. A fresh, perceptive account of the East Coast, South, Midwest, and Cuba by the noted Swedish reformer-feminist who founded the international women's peace movement.
$300.00

80. BREWER, J. Mason. Snuff-Dipping Tales of the Texas Negro...Foreword by Roy Bedichek. [Austin: Privately printed] 1956. xii, 80 pp., copiously illustrated with elaborate artwork by John C. Biggers. 8vo, original green padded leather. Very fine, with letters and clippings relating to the author laid in, along with an 8-page leaflet of illustrated black poetry from the First edition, limited edition (#101 of 400 copies). A very scarce book on authentic black Texas folklore, considered a classic in its field. The author, who worked with Doble, was the first to seriously preserve the black folklore of Texas. Abernethy, Legendary Ladies of Texas ("Aunt Dicy, Legendary Black Lady"), p. 130: "Brewer went to great personal expense to publish the tales [of Aunt Dicy] because he felt that a legendary character was being recorded who represented the flesh and spirit of rural Texas Negroes...The elaborate art work by John T. Biggers would make the book too expensive

$125.00

81. BRINGAS DE MANZANEDA Y ENCINAS, Diego Miguel. Sermón eucarístico que por el venturoso restablecimiento del Tribunal Santo de la Inquisición y por la fausta agradable restitución de nuestro augusto soberano el Señor don Fernando Séptimo al trono de las Españas. Mexico: Doña Maria Fernández de Jáuregui, 1815. [xiv] 34 pp. 8vo, protective wrappers. Fine.

First edition. Medina 11046. Palau 25868. Another of Bringas' reactionary diatribes against the Mexican movement for independence from Spain. The author, one of the most celebrated clerics of colonial Mexico, was guardian of the College in Querétaro.
$275.00

82. BRINGAS DE MANZANEDA Y ENCINAS, Diego Miguel. Sermón que en las solemnes honras celebradas en obsequio de los vv. pp. predicadores apostólicos Fr. Francisco Tomas

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Hermenegildo Garcés... Madrid: Imprenta de D. Fermin Villapando, 1819. 94 [2, blank] pp. 8vo, original plain grey wrappers. Small wormhole, else a very fine, crisp copy. Preserved in a half black morocco

First edition. Graff 401: "Gives a good deal about the history of New Mexico and Arizona Franciscan missions." Howes M269. Jones 805. Leclerc 2292. Streeter 1067 (locating five copies, only one in Texas): "This is much more than a funeral oration on Father Garcés and his fellow missionaries who were murdered on the Colorado...Many of the missionaries served in Texas, as well as in Sonora and Arizona." Wagner, Spanish Southwest 174a. One of the major sources for the history of the Southwest, this rare work is usually considered to be a continuation of Espinosa and Arricivita (see Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 60). This book, which the Eberstadts considered much rarer than Arricivita, contains a great deal of information on some of the most important Southwestern missionaries, including Margil, Garces, Font, and others. The author was a native of Alamos in Sonora and one of the most noted preachers in Mexico during the period from 1800 to the time of his leaving Mexico, probably in 1821.

$2,500.00

83 [BRISCOE, MARY JANE HARRIS]. LOOSCAN, Adele Lubbock Briscoe. A Brief Sketch of the Life and Characteristics of Mrs. Mary Jane Briscoe... [Houston: A. C. Gray, ca. 1904]. vi, 72 pp., frontispiece portrait, 15 plates and portraits. 4to, unbound signatures laid in cloth slipcase. Very fine copy of an exceedingly rare Texas biography. Original autograph letter of James Briscoe dated 1857 laid in.

First edition. Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 24. In 1836 Jane Harris (1819-1903) of Sainte Genevieve, Missouri immigrated to Harrisburg, Texas, where she became known as "the belle of Buffalo Bayou." In 1837 she married Andrew J. Briscoe and subsequently they had five children. Jane moved to Houston in 1874, and the organizational meeting of the Daughters of the Texas Revolution was held in her home in 1891. A charter member of the Texas State Historical Association, she was elected an honorary life member in 1897.

$750.00

84. BUCHANAN, James. Execution of Colonel Crabb and Associates... Washington: HED64, 1858. 84 pp. 8vo, sewn. Very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. The most detailed extant report on the ill-fated expedition of Crabb and his Californian adventurers, which under pretense of peaceful colonization, attempted a filibuster conquest of Sonora in 1857. The party set out for Sonora by way of Los Angeles and Yuma, but were defeated at Caborca, where the American survivors were executed en masse and Crabb's head put on display to warn other would-be conquerors.

$150.00

85. BUITRAGO, Pablo (President of Nicaragua). Ministerio General del Gobierno, Supremo del Estado de Nicaragua... En atención: a que el estado de Costarrica ha sido ocupado con fuerza armada por el faccioso Francisco Morazin... León, Nicaragua, April 28, 1842. One-page folio broadside. A few old wormholes not

First edition. Rare Nicaraguan imprint regarding Morazán's invasion of Costa Rica. Details military plans for the anticipated invasion of Nicaraguan territory by Morazan.

$125.00

86. BULLEN, Frank T. The Cruise of the Cachalot. Round the World after Sperm Whales. New York: Appleton, 1899. xx, 379 pp., foldout map, plates. 8vo, original grey-green pictorial cloth. Fine.

First American edition. Day, Pacific Islands Literature 64. Hill, p. 39 (citing the English edition): "Bullen, an English sailor and adventurer who went to sea when he was thirteen, signed articles on an American whaling ship out of New Bedford in 1875...The book ranks next to Melville's Moby Dick among the classic works on

$100.00

87. BULLOCK, W. A. Description of the Unique Exhibition Called Ancient Mexico...Now Open for Public Inspection at the Egyptian Hall Piccadilly. London [1823]. [2] 50 pp., folding lithograph of the exhibit showing the Aztec calendar stone. 8vo, recent half calf over marbled boards. Very fine.

First edition. Glass, p. 568: "Exhibit catalogue with 52 numbered entries, of which 17 appear to be pictorial manuscripts...Identifiable items are Códice de la Cueva, Códice Boturini, Códice de Huamantla, Fragments 2-5, Plano en Papel de Maguey, and Códice de Tlaxcala. Also unidentified copy of Códice Boturini and unidentified Testerman manuscript."

$150.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

88. BUNTON, Mary Taylor. A Bride on the Chisolm Trail in 1886. Austin: Naylor, 1939. x, 77 pp., 2 portraits, line drawings in text. 12mo, original green cloth decorated and lettered in blue. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Adams, Herd 354. King, Women on the Cattle Trail, p. 14: "An excellent account of the author's experiences on a cattle drive to Coolidge, Kansas [from Sweetwater, Texas]." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 106. The author comments: "I happen to be one of the very few women who rode the old trail and the only woman living today to tell the story publicly and give not only facts but a woman's viewpoint of life and of the trail generally as it existed at that time," and "I was the first woman to ride astride in our part of the State, and you may be sure that it caused a stampede among the cowboys." Very scarce, only 200 copies privately printed.

$65.00

89. BURNET, David G. Government Bond, payable to the holder... Republic of Texas... New Orleans: Endicott & Clark [1840]. Ornately engraved 4to bond with vignette of an Indian warrior at center and man plowing at left, five point star at bottom. $500 Republic of Texas bond issued under the Act of February 5, 1840.

A very fine copy, signed by Burnet. Criswell 40B.
$250.00

90. BURRUS, Ernest J. Kino and Manje. Explorers of Sonora and Arizona... A Study of Their Expeditions and Plans... Rome & St. Louis: Jesuit Historical Society, 1971. xii, 793 [2] pp., plates, folding map. Thick 8vo, original blue cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Contains a vast amount of unpublished material relating to the towering figure of Kino, father of the Southwest. Not listed in Borderlands Sourcebook.

$75.00

91. BURRUS, Ernest J. Misiones norteñas mexicanas de la Compañía de Jesus, 1751-1757. Mexico: Robredo, 1963. 132 [1] pp. Small 4to, original white printed wrappers. Fine, unopened copy.

First edition, limited edition (500 copies). Previously unpublished report on the activities of the missions in Pimeria Alta and northern Mexico between 1751 and 1757. Not in Borderlands Sourcebook.

$75.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

92. BURTON, Harley True. A History of the JA Ranch... Austin: Von Boeckmann-Jones, 1928. x, 147 pp., frontispiece, 3 illustrations. 8vo, original red cloth. Very fine in slipcase.

First edition. Adams, Herd 382. Dobie, p. 98. Howes B1030. Merrill, Aristocrats of the Cow Country, p. 16. Reese, Six Score 18: "One of the first ranch histories, and one of the rarest and most important. It is not known how many copies of this book were printed, but it was certainly no more than several hundred." Haley, in a review in the Pan-Handle Plains Historical Review for 1929, noted that the work was "already becoming rare."
$375.00

93. BUTLER, Elizabeth Beardsley. Women and the Trades. Pittsburgh, 1907-1908. New York: Russell Sage Foundation, 1909. [6] 440 [4] pp., numerous photographic illustrations by Lewis Hine. 8vo, original green cloth. Head of spine repaired, call numbers on spine, and library stamp on title, otherwise very good condition.

First edition. A major documentary source for the study of American working women in first years of the 20th century. The excellent photographs are by Lewis Hine (1874-1940), the noted American photographer who was also a trained sociologist. Distraught at the plight of the underprivileged caused by the effects of industrialization upon urban life, Hine used his camera to help spur Congress to pass legislation against labor abuses against women and children.
$125.00

94. CABET, Etienne. Almanach Icarien. Astronomique, scientifique, pratique, industriel, statistique, politique et social...Description du Texas. Paris, 1848. 216 pp., 3 folding maps ("Texas," by A. Piquenard and world and U.S. maps prominently showing Texas). 12mo, quarter calf over cloth. Minor age toning, else fine.

First edition. Not in standard bibliographies. Rare Franco-Texana, being the 1848 almanac of the French socialist Icarian movement founded by Cabet on the basis of fraternity, equal rights for women, and the prohibition of slavery and domestic servitude (see Handbook of Texas I:873 & III:131). When the French government refused Cabet's request to set up a utopian community in France, he turned to Texas to create the best of all possible worlds, and obtained a grant of several thousand acres of land from the Peters Colony, in southwest Denton County near present

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Justin. Cabet published this almanac for potential Icarian settlers, and it provides a lengthy description of Texas from several points of view. The almanac cites the reasons for the choice of Texas, quotes at length the available descriptions of the area, and describes in great detail the products, climate, government, population, etc. of the area. Cabet also includes two letters about Texas written to him from a New York correspondent. Like previous French attempts to settle Texas, Cabet's Icarians seemed doomed to failure. About 70 of their members entered Texas in May of 1848, but they were soon thwarted by malaria and problems with their land grants. Some survivors did remain in Texas, however, providing Dallas with some of its earliest residents and first skilled and educated citizens.

$3,000.00

95. CABEZA DE VACA, Alvar Núñez. La relación y comentarios del gouernador Aluar nuñez cabeça de vaca, de lo acaescido en las dos jornadas que hizo a las Indias. [Colophon]: Valladolid: Fernandez de Cordoua, 1555. 144 numbered leaves (the last misnumbered 164), mostly black letter, title printed in red and black with large woodcut arms of Spain with the double-headed eagle, separate title to second part with woodcut arms. Small 4to, full calf antique gilt-panelled in contemporary style, green edges. Expert repair to blank corner of title, one other short marginal tear repaired, trimmed close to woodcut border (as in most other extant copies), occasional browning, and a few leaves with pencilled underscorings or notes. Other than these few faults, a fine and complete copy of a book of legendary rarity that, when it can be found, is usually incomplete. Provenance: From the Rodriguez collection of Hispanic Americana.

First complete edition (second edition of the first part, Relación; first printing of the second part, Comentarios) of the first recorded journey by Europeans across America and Texas. The Relación recounts the author's adventures with the Narvaez expedition to Florida, his capture and escape from Indians on the Mississippi coast, and the overland journey across Texas to California and Mexico. The original edition of the Relación (Zamora, 1542) is known by only three copies (JCB, NYPL, and British Museum). The second part contains an account of the author's journey through South America after he was made governor of Rio de la Plata in 1540, along with Ribera's narrative of his exploration up the River Paraguay. His account is of primary importance since it is the first printed narrative of inland exploration of the South American continent. References: JCB I:188. Church 100: "Great interest will always attach to this thrilling story of adventure. It is the record of the first journey made by Europeans through any part of the country now included within the boundaries of the United States." ClarkI:4. Eberstadt, Texas 162:110: "The most important of all Texas books and the most sought; the personal narrative of the first discoverer in 1527." Field 230: "Earliest relation of Florida [and] earliest historic memoir of the Indian races of that portion of America." Fifty Texas Rarities 1: "North American travel literature starts with Cabeza de Vaca's account of his adventures crossing the continent. His is the first printed book about Texas."

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$45,000.0

0

96. CABEZA DE VACA, Alvar Núñez. "A Relation of Alvaro Nvnez called Capo di Vaca, concerning that which happened to the Fleet in India, whereof Pamphilo Narvaez was Gouvernour, from the yeere 1527. Vntill the yeere 1536..." [London, 1625]. Extract from Purchas' Pilgrimes, Vol. IV, Bk. 8, Chap. 1, pp. 1499-1528. HARRISSE 239. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 24A. Raines, Folio, later boards. Excellent condition. pp. ix-xiv: "The first contribution to Texas history --First translation into English of the first printed [by] the first overland traveler across the continent." book about Texas. Church 401A. Jenkins, Basic Texas Rosenbach 32:75: "The earliest account of an expedition Books 24C. STC 20509. to Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona; the cornerstone of the $750.00 history of the Spanish Southwest." Streeter, Americana Beginnings 8. Vail 2. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 1a.

97 [CABEZA DE VACA, ALVAR NÚÑEZ]. HALLENBECK, Cleve. Alvar Núñez Cabeza de Vaca. The Journey and Route of the First European to Cross the Continent of North America 1534-1536. Glendale: Arthur H. Clark, 1940. 326 pp., maps. 8vo, original navy blue cloth. Fine.

First edition. Scholarly edition presenting a paraphrase of the narrative of Cabeza de Vaca and investigating the possible route. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 24BB.

$150.00

98. CALAMITY JANE]. Original tintype of Calamity Jane and two unidentified men. N.p., ca. 1880. Approximately 3 x 4 inches. Fine condition.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

This unpublished image shows a rather young Calamity Jane, a.k.a. Martha Jane Cannary Burk, in male attire. It is difficult to sort fact from fiction regarding this legendary American frontierswoman and female star of the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, but it is said that she worked as a muleskinner in Wyoming, accompanied Crook's Sioux expedition as a guide, raised stock on the Yellowstone, operated several wayside inns, and worked in the oldest profession known to woman. She lived, gambled, drank, and dressed like a man and claimed to have married Wild Bill Hickok.

$700.00

99 [CALIFORNIA LAND CLAIM]. SOTO, Lorenzo]. Printed document completed in manuscript, signed by Charles E. Carr of the United States District Court, bearing wax seal of the Court, dated at Los Angeles, February 5, 1855. 4 pp., 4to, with only the first page printed. Creased where folded and light soiling to last page, else fine. Contemporary manuscript annotations in ink on

This receipt of transcript of record relates to the case of Lorenzo Soto vs. the U.S. for the property known as Los Vallecitos de San Marcos. Soto, who became rich mining in the early days of the Gold Rush, moved south to lay claim to the property described in this document, and his claim was one of the numerous complex cases following California's admission to statehood.

$75.00

100. CANALIZO, Valentin. El C. Valentin Canalizo, general de division, gobernador y comandante general del departamento de Mexico...que considerando que los medios de fuerza y do conquista no han sido suficientes en mas trescientos años para introducir los usos de la civilización en las tribus bárbaras... Mexico, 1843. Folio bando printed on one side. Crease at center fold, else fine.

First printing. "Since three hundred years of force and conquest had not been sufficient to introduce civilization to the wild Indians of the Mexican frontier areas, Santa Anna authorizes the readmittance of the Jesuits to establish missions in the Californias, New Mexico, Sonora, Sinaloa, Durango, Chihuahua, Coahuila, and Texas to Christianize and subdue them" (Howell, California 50:37A). See Englehardt IV, pp. 282-83.

$125.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

101. CARLOS IV. Real cédula de incorporación de el Banco de Potosí á la real hacienda, y ordenanzas para su regimen y gobierno con arreglo d las Leyes de Indias... Madrid; La Imprenta de don Benito Cano, 1795. [12] 67 [1] [105] pp., numerous folding tables. Small folio, original crimson morocco gilt, a.e.g. An exceptionally fine, crisp copy.

First edition. Medina 5715. Palau 250371. This extremely rare and important royal cedula relating to American mining history incorporates the Bank of Potosí in the Peruvian-Bolivian region, one of the world's richest mining areas. The cedula, which implements the important Reales ordenanzas de la mineria of 1783, contains not only legal details but much mining history
$1,500.00

102. CARRINGTON, Margaret]. Ab-Sa-Ra-Ka, Home of the Crows: Being the Experience of an Officer's Wife on the Plains... Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1868. 284 pp., folding map, woodcut illustrations in text. 8vo, original green cloth, spine gilt-lettered, bevelled edges. Map neatly repaired at folds, else a very fine, bright copy, in felt-lined cloth box.

First edition. Field 244. Graff 596: "An excellent personal account fortified by invaluable additional material from the author's husband, Colonel Henry B. Carrington." Howes C175. Jones 1504. Malone, p. 2. Myres, Following the Drum, p. 6: "An extensive description of the flora, fauna, and native peoples of the northern plains along with an eye-witness account of the events leading up to and following the Fetterman 'massacre' at Fort Phil Kearny, 1866. Carrington expressed sympathy for the Indians involved in the affair." Smith 1536. One of the best army wife accounts
$300.00

103. CARRINGTON, Margaret]. Ocean to Ocean. The Pacific Railroad and Adjoining Territories, with Distances and Fares... Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1869. 32 pp., folding map. 16mo, original brown cloth covered boards. Library ink stamp on verso of map and title-page and fragile spine strengthened, otherwise fine

First edition. Graff 598. Howes C176. The excellent notes to accompany the map include sections on the Indians and the country along the route. Carrington declares that "the Rocky Mountains, no longer dreaded, are inviting," and "the 'American Desert' blooms with $100.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

104. CARRION, Antonio. Historia de la ciudad de Puebla de los Angeles. Puebla: Viuda de Davalos e Hijos, 1896-97. 502 [11] + 751 pp. 8vo, contemporary half calf over marbled boards. Fine.

Third edition, with revisions and additions, of the standard 19th century history of Puebla de los Angeles, from its prehistory to the time of publication. Palau 45637.

$150.00

105. CASTAÑEDA DE NAJERA, Pedro de. ...Relación du voyage de Cibola entrepris en 1540... Paris: Bertrand, 1838. [2] xvi, 392 pp. 8vo, later quarter brown morocco over tan cloth, gilt-lettered spine with raised bands. Very fine, with bookplate of noted Mexican bibliographer N. Leon.

First edition. Clark I:5: "Of monumental importance in the history of the American southwest." Graff 626. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 28. Howes C224a. Palau 47521. Rader 624. Raines, pp. 44-45: "Coronado's expedition, of which this is the best account, passed through the Texas Panhandle." Rittenhouse 653. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 5n. The first printing, in any language, of the principal source for the history of Coronado's expedition (1540-1542) to the Southwest. Although brief notices of the journey had been recorded by Ramusio, Gómara, Herrera, and Venegas, it remained unpublished for almost three centuries.

Castañeda de Nájera's narrative was the first to provide details of the area now included in the states of Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas, as well as the search for the elusive riches of Cibola and Quivira.

$750.00

106. CASTANEDA DE NAJERA, Pedro de. The Coronado Expedition, 1540-1542. Washington: In BAE 14:1, 1896. lxi [1] 637 pp., numerous maps, photographs, and plates. Small folio, original gilt-decorated olive cloth. Light shelf wear and neat repair to front flyleaf, otherwise very fine.

First edition in English, and first edition in the original Spanish, previously known only by the French edition described in the previous entry. This edition contains the original Spanish version along with Winship's English translation and excellent commentary.

$250.00

107. CASTANEDA DE NAJERA, Pedro de. The Journey of Coronado 1540-1542... New York: Allerton, 1922. xxxiv, 251 [3, ads] pp., frontispiece, 2 maps. 12mo, original dark green cloth. Very fine in chipped d.j.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 28D.
$35.00

108. CASTRO, C., et al. México y sus alrededores.
Mexico: Decaen, 1855-56. [2] 37 [1] colored lithograph map of Mexico City, 38 lithographs on tinted grounds.
Large folio, original blue sheep over blue marbled boards.
Interior lightly foxed as usual, but overall a very good copy of a rare and important Mexican plate

Augmented issue of the first edition of 1855, 10 added plates. Mathes, Mexico on Stone, pp. 28-29 & 57: "One of the significant lithographic productions in the history of the art...This is the most important work illustrating Mexico in the 19th century." Toussaint La litografia en México, p. xviii. This issue not listed in Palau. It is almost impossible to sort out the many issues as the publishers kept adding, revising, and omitting plates.
These plates vividly illustrate the fabric of Mexican life at mid-nineteenth century, including city views, costumed groups, social pastimes and events, birdseye views, and city and country views. The work was reissued continuously for over 25 years with lithographs by the best Mexican artists.

$6,000.00

109. CASTRO, C., et al. "Trajes Mexicanos." Mexico, ca.
1855. Lithograph on tinted ground measuring 12 x 17 inches. One of the plates from preceding work. Very fine in mat.

A handsome costume plate showing horses and riders.
This plate is often reproduced in scholarly works on the evolution of the cowboy and equestrian arts. We have several other prints from Castro's plate book; list available upon request.

$300.00

110. CASTRO, C., et al. "Un Fandango." Mexico, ca. 1855.
Lithograph on tinted ground measuring 12 x 17 inches. One of the plates from the 1855-56 edition of Castro; see Item 108 above. Very fine in mat.

A beautiful plate showing Mexican dancers, musicians, woman preparing tortillas. A lively, colorful plate truly capturing the spirit of Mexican social life.

$300.00

111. CASTRO, C., et al. Mexico y sus alrededores...
Mexico, ca. 1875. A collection Of 41 hand-colored lithographs on cream paper. Each plate measures approximately 12 x 17 inches. Pristine condition.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

See Item 108 for notes on this work. This is the only edition of the Castro in full color. Included are many plates not found in the edition listed above.

$9,000.00

112. CATHERWOOD, Frederick. Views of Ancient Monuments in Central America, Chiapas and Yucatan. London: Catherwood, 1844. [2, lithographic title in red, blue and gold with decorative border by Owen Jones] [2, dedication leaf] 24 pp., map, 25 tinted lithographed plates on heavy paper. Folio, quarter black morocco (expertly rebacked retaining original gilt-lettered spine) over original green cloth with title in gilt on upper cover. Plates washed, marginal repairs to 15 of the plates not affecting images, tissue guards replaced. A very good copy, from the Howell auction in February of

First edition, limited edition (300 copies printed). Hill, p. 47. Palau 50290. Tooley 133. Von Hagen, Catherwood, pp. 82-97: "In the whole range of literature on the Maya there has never appeared a more magnificent work than Views of Ancient Monuments." This great volume reproduced 25 of the drawings that Catherwood had prepared to illustrate John Lloyd Stephens' Incidents of Travel in Yucatan (see Item 401). Catherwood accompanied Stephens on the expedition to Mexico and Central America during which they discovered the lost cities of the Maya. These plates, which were executed by six of England's finest lithographers, provide an incredibly accurate and historically valuable record of these monumental Mayan antiquities. Although Mesoamerican archaeology had previously been depicted by Waldeck, Humboldt, and the other early researchers in the field, this was the first attempt to present the remains of Maya civilization in an artistic manner.

$18,500.0

0

113. CATHERWOOD, Frederick. Individual tinted plates from the original edition, as described in preceding entry.. The plates measure 14 x 23 inches. A few of the plates have light marginal wear, but without exception, all of the plate images are fine and fresh.

a. Piramidal Building and Fragments of Sculpture at Copan. $750.00 b. Back of an Idol at Copan. $750.00 c. Broken Idol at Copan. $800.00 d. Idol and Altar at Copan. $750.00 e. General View of Palenque. $850.00 f.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Principal Court of the Palace at Palenque [and] Interior of Casa No. 3 Palenque. $850.00 g. Ornament over the Principal Doorway Casa del Gobernador Uxmal. $800.00 h. Gateway of the Great Teocallis at Uxmal. $800.00 i. Ornament over the Gateway of the Great Teocallis Uxmal. $800.00 j. General View of Uxmal taken from the Archway of Las Monjas Looking South. $850.00 k. Portion of a Building called Las Monjas at Uxmal. $800.00 l. General View of Kabah. $850.00 m. Interior of the Principal Building at Kabah. $800.00 n. Well and Building at Sabachtsche. $850.00 o. Gateway at Labnah. $850.00 p. Well of Bolonchen. $850.00 q. Las Monjas Chichen Itza. $850.00 r. Teocallis at Chichen Itza. $850.00 s. Castle at Tuloom. $850.00 t. Temple at Tuloom. $850.00 u. Colossal Head at Izamal. $850.00 v. Broken Idol at Copan. $850.00

114. CATHERWOOD, Frederick. Views of Ancient Monuments in Central America, Chiapas and Yucatan. Mexico, 1984. New, as issued.

Facsimile edition of the 25 plates in the original edition (see Item 112, above). The facimile from one of the few fully colored copies. Enclosed in publisher's original beige linen portfolio lettered in brown. $375.00

115. CATLIN, George. North American Indians... Edinburgh: Grant, 1926. [12] 298 + [12] 303 [1] pp., 320 colored illustrations of American Indians, folding map of U.S. locating the tribes. Royal 8vo, original maroon gilt pictorial cloth. Fine set.

Handsome English reprint of the original edition published in London in 1841. Field 260. Howes C241. McCrackin 8. Pilling 689. Raines, p. 46. No other artist or writer on the Indians of the U.S. has had as long and broad influence as Catlin. $400.00

116. CAVO, A. Los tres siglos de México durante el gobierno Español...con notas y suplemento...de Bustamante... Mexico: Luis Abadiano y Valdés, 1836. [2] iv [4] 281 + [2] 158 + [2] viii, 419 + [2] viii, 281 pp. 4 vols., 8vo, original Mexican tree calf, spines gilt with black calf labels. Head of vol. 3 spine chipped, otherwise a very fine, complete set; difficult to find complete with all four volumes present.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Barrett 484n. Brunet I:1703. Cowan, p. 88. Griffin 2283: "An annalistic history of New Spain, from the conquest to 1766. The author was an 18th century Jesuit who assembled early material from the Actas de Cabildo and other records and set down contemporary material from his own experience." Palau 50645. Raines, p. 47: "Includes an account of the Presidios and Missions of Texas." "A comprehensive volume about Mexico, containing many facts not found elsewhere, disappeared until the 19th century when Bustamante found the manuscript which had been written in Roma in 1792" (Wilgus, pp. 235f.). Wagner cited this work in his bibliography on the Spanish Southwest because it contains information on colonial Texas, California, and New Mexico.
$1,250.00

117. CAZNEAU, Jane M. [McManus Storms]. Eagle Pass or Life on the Border by Cora Montgomery. New York: Putnam, 1852. 188 [4, ads] pp. 8vo, original stiff printed boards. Waterstain along upper edge of last quarter of text, otherwise a fine copy, preserved in a half morocco slipcase. Rare in the printed boards.

First edition, first issue, wrapper dated September 29, 1852. Graff 2873. Howes C251. Raines, p. 252: "An unpleasant picture of maladministration on the Rio Grande." An interesting record of life along the recently acquired Rio Grande frontier, by one of the first settlers of Eagle Pass. Wallace (Destiny and Glory, Chapter 12) states that the author "was the most adventurous of any American woman on record and deserves far more than the oblivion which has been her fate." See Handbook of Texas, Streeter (1572), and Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 107.
$300.00

118. CAZNEAU, Jane M. [McManus Storms]. Eagle Pass... New York: Putnam, 1852. 188 pp. 8vo, original blue cloth with gilt ovals on covers, red edges. Slight outer wear, text fine except for occasional light foxmarks.

First edition, second issue. See preceding entry.
$175.00

119. CAZNEAU, Jane M. [McManus Storms]. Eagle Pass... New York: Putnam, 1852. 1 88 [4, ads] pp. 8vo, original brown cloth, covers blind-stamped with "Putnam's Popular Library" within oval. Very fine, tight copy.

First edition, third issue. See preceding entry. Ads on endpapers, but different from ads in first issue.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$150.00

120. CHABOT, F. C. and C. E. Castañeda. Early Texas Album. Fifty Illustrations with Notes. Austin, 1929. 141 pp. + 50 mounted photographs relating to Texas history, e.g., original map of Aguayo expedition, Father Margil preaching to the Indians, Texas missions, church and plaza at El Paso in 1854, Labastida's drawing of the Alamo in 1836, Capitol of the Republic at Houston, etc. Oblong folio, original black cloth with string ties. Very fine copy.

First edition, limited edition (Copy #1 of 50 copies), this being dedicatee Albert Steve's copy, with his bookplate. Jenkins offered a copy in 1980 stating that it was "the only copy ever offered for sale" and designating it as the rarest work by either of these important Texas writers.

$1,500.00

121. CHAPMAN, Kate and Dorothy N. Steward]. Adobe Notes or How to Keep the Weather out with just Plain Mud. Set down in Prose & Linoleum by Kate & D. N. S. & Printed by Spud. Taos: The Laughing Horse Press, 1930. 20 leaves, printed on rectos on a variety of colored papers. 8vo, original red printed wrappers. Light marginal wear to fragile wraps, but overall a fine copy.

First edition. Weigle & Fiore, Santa Fe & Taos, the Writer's Era, pp. 200 & 213. A step-by-step guide to making adobe adorned with simple, strong linoleum block prints. Unusual Southwestern printing.

$150.00

122. CLAFLIN, Tennie C. Constitutional Equality. A Right of Woman...With a Review of the Constitution of the United States, Showing that the Right to Vote is Guaranteed to all Citizens. Also a Review of the Rights of Children. New York: Woodhull, Claflin, 1871. [6] 148 pp., frontispiece portrait. 8vo, original green gilt-lettered cloth. Binding moderately worn and first few leaves foxed, overall very good.

First edition. This book, which seemed revolutionary in the Victorian era, was written by the noted American radical feminist, journalist, and financier (Notable American Women, p. 652). Claflin discusses subjects such as suffrage, personal freedom, and divorce, with a passionate argument for constitutional equality. The author and her sister, Victoria Woodhull (see Item 439 in this catalogue), were the first women stockbrokers on Wall

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Street and their feminist muckraking weekly was the first American newspaper to print the Communist
$175.00

123. CLAPPE, Louise Amelia K. S.]. California in 1851... San Francisco: Russell, 1922. [2] lii, 350 pp., frontispiece and 7 colored plates. 8vo, original beige boards, tan linen backstrip, printed spine label. Excellent condition, but lacking d.j.

First edition in book form (published originally in the Pioneer Magazine for 1854-55); limited edition (450 copies, this being the issue on California bond paper and with colored plates). Cowan, p. 93. Howes C427. Wheat, Books of the California Gold Rush 39n. Zamorano Eighty 39n. "'Dame Shirley,' a New Englander who attended the distinguished Amherst Academy where Emily Dickinson was later a pupil, gives a delightful and informative account of life in the California gold rush mining towns, where her husband practiced medicine. Her letters supplement the many excellent narratives written by men as she describes conditions and events generally overlooked by them."
$275.00

124. CLAPPE, Louise Amelia K. S.]. California in 1851... San Francisco: Russell, 1922. [2] lii, 350 pp., frontispiece and 7 plates in black and white. 8vo, original beige buckram over green boards, spine and cover labels. Very fine in slightly worn d.j. Former owner's bookplate.

Limited edition (450 copies). Another issue of preceding entry, being one of 200 copies with black and white plates, printed on Exeter paper.
$225.00

125. CLARK, C. P. and Helen E. Two Diaries, the Diary & Journal of Calvin Perry Clark who journeyed by Wagon Train from Plano, Illinois to Denver and Vicinity over the Santa Fe Trail in the Year 1859 together with the Diary of his Sister Helen E. Clark who made a similar journey by the Northern Route in the year 1860. [Parker, Colorado: The Little Press of Este Es, 1962]. 135 pp., frontispiece, illustrations, marginal decorations. 8vo, original decorated canvas bound dos a dos. Pristine

First edition, limited edition (300 copies).
Rittenhouse 114. Wynar 321.
$75.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

126. CLARKE, John. A Discourse, Delivered at the First Church in Boston, 19th April, A.D. 1795, the Lord's Day after the Interment of Nathaniel W. Appleton, M.D... Boston: Samuel Hall, 1796. 22 [1] pp. 8vo, sewn. Very light spotting to top edge of half-title, else very fine, unopened.

Austin 477 (6 loc.): "Includes a 'character' of Dr. Appleton, published in the Columbian Centinel, April 18, 1795." Evans 30199. Appleton (1755-1795), a Boston physician, was incorporator of the Massachusetts Medical Society."

$50.00

127. CLEMENS, Jeremiah. Bernard Lile: An Historical Romance, Embracing the Periods of the Texas Revolution and the Mexican War. Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1856. 12mo, full contemporary black roan. Light spotting on first two leaves, else fine.

First edition. Agatha, pp. 118-20. Doble, p. 40: "A 'bully' good yarn revealing much of actuality." Tutorow 4177. Wright II:543. The Alabama author served in the Mexican War.

$75.00

128. CLAVIJERO, F. The History of Mexico... London: Robinson, 1787. xxvii [4] 476 + [4] 463 pp., 2 engraved map, 25 plates. 2 vols., 4to, original tree calf expertly rebaked in calf, new endpapers. Binding with a few skillful repairs, otherwise fine.

First English edition. Field 326. Glass 585: "Major, late Enlightenment survey of pre-Hispanic Mexican Indian culture and history. A very influential work, which constituted the most ambitious treatment of its subject since Torquemada. Illustrations include details from such manuscripts as Codex Mendoza...Mention of Codex Cospi is among the earliest published references to that manuscript." Hill, pp. 54-55. Palau 55485. Pilling 818. This classic work on pre-Cortesian Mexico, which served as a source for all later writers on Mexican antiquities, is especially prized for its beautiful engravings.

$750.00

129 [COAHUILA Y TEJAS]. VIDAURRI, F. Reglamento para la milicia civica del estado de Coahuila y Tejas. Monclova: Imprenta del gobierno dirigida por el ciudadano Sisto González, 1834. 21 pp. 16mo, original printed wrappers with ornamental border. Other than a few inconsequential stains, a very fine copy, with original stitching, preserved in a half dark brown calf slipcase.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition of an important document concerning the military history of Texas and its Revolution. Streeter 809 (locating only two copies: San Antonio Court House and Streeter copy, now at Yale). The Reglamento contains regulations for the establishment of the civil militia, in 9 chapters, 86 articles, outlining the chain of command, uniforms, salary, ranks, and armament. The military unit established by these regulations would be involved in the earliest uprisings under Juan Seguin, and, ironically, this Texas militia would eventually participate in the revolution against Santa Anna.

$2,500.00

130. COCKBURN, John. A Journey over Land from the Gulf of Honduras to the Great South-Sea... London: Rivington, 1735. viii, 349 [3, ads] pp., engraved map. 8vo, three-quarter antique calf over drab boards. Very fine, crisp copy.

First edition. Field 336. Griffin 2530: "Valuable as few foreign observers visited Central America in the early 18th century." Hill, p. 57: "An authentic narrative which seemed so extraordinary as to be looked upon as little better than a romance during its own time. Now considered a work of great significance." Parker, Travels in Central America, p. 8-11: "Cockburn was taken prisoner by a Spanish coast-guard vessel and deposited on the north shore of Honduras. He and four companions made their way, encountering privation and danger through nearly all the distance, from this critical point to El Salvador and thence along the Pacific side of Nicaragua and Costa Rica to Panama, where they were finally able to find passage for Jamaica and England in 1732." Very scarce, and one of the basic early books on Central America.

$600.00

131. COLMAN, Samuel (artist). "Monastery and Church, of a village near Puebla, Mexico." Mexico, n.d. (ca. 1876). Original watercolor on board, measuring 8 x 19 inches. Very fine condition, in ornate gilt frame.

This beautiful painting is a panoramic scene of the Mexican countryside near Puebla showing in the foreground an old Spanish monastery and a walled village. Artist Colman (1832-1920) was a U.S. landscape painter born in Portland, Maine. A pupil of Durand in New York City and founder of the American Water Color Society (1860), he later journeyed to the Continent, England, Mexico, and other locations.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$5,000.00

132. CONGRESO INTERNACIONAL DE AMERICANISTAS. Actas de la undécima reunión. Mexico: De Leon, 1897. [4] 576 pp., colored folding map of Mexico City by Garcia Cubas, other plates and illustrations (including Mexican pictorial codices). 8vo, later half mottled calf, spine with raised bands. Other than occasional underlining,

First edition. Contains excellent articles by leading Americanists of the day, including Paso y Troncoso's Los libros de Anáhuac (Glass, p. 670), Peñafiel's Descifración y comparación de jeroglíficos de las antiguas razas de Mexico (Glass, p. 673), Garcia y Cubas' Valle y ciudad de Mexico durante el siglo XVI (Glass, p. 607), H. S. Jacobs' article on the Arizona cliff

$150.00

133 [COOKBOOK]. MARKHAM, Gervaise. The English House-Wife, Containing the Inward and Outward Vertues Which Ought to Be in a Compleat Woman... London: Sawbridge, 1683. [8] 188 pp. Small 4to, plain maize wrappers. The very fine Dorothy Josey copy, with pencil note on inner wrapper giving the key to the Josey cost

Later edition ("Ninth time much augmented, purged, and made most profitable and necessary for all men [!], and the general good of this Nation"). Hull, Chaste, Silent & Obedient, English Books for Women 1475-1640, pp. 185-86. Wing M636. This popular guide contains much on culinary arts along with sections on the virtues and duties of the English housewife, medical advice, home brewing, hemp culture, etc. More than almost any other contemporary book, Markham's English House-Wife reveals the reality of the day-to-day life of English women in 134 [COOKBOOK]. RANDLE, Rosalind. Rose's Aga Recipes. Andoversford: The Whittington Press, 1984. 42 pp., hand-colored linocuts. 12mo, original red plaid cloth, printed paper label on upper cover. Very fine, in publisher's black cloth box.

$400.00

First edition, limited edition (250 copies printed, this being #28 Of 30 copies hand-colored by artist Judith Variety). Fine printing from The Whittington Press.

$45.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

135 [COOKBOOK]. SIMMONS, Amelia. American Cookery... Windham: The Prospect Press, 1937. 69 pp., decorated title. 8vo, original patterned boards, terracotta backstrip. Mint.

Limited edition (#4 of 185 copies). Finely printed edition of the 1796 original issued at Hartford. Lincoln (Bibliography of American Cookery Books) states that the original printing of this cookbook was the first by an American author and that only two copies survive.

$65.00

136. COOPER, L. F. Autograph letter signed, one page, 4to, dated January 30, 1897, at Greenville, Texas, to H. G. Askew in Austin. Very fine condition.

Letter concerning renewal of a lease on property, of interest because of the pictorial stationery of Cooper, who was a manufacturer of saddlery, bridles, and other cowboy gear.

$37.50

137. COOPER, S. A. Concise System of Instructions and Regulations for the Militia and Volunteers of the U.S... Philadelphia: Desilver, 1836. 282pp., plates, illustrations, printed music. 12mo, original light brown cloth, printed paper label. Light shelf wear and occasional foxing, overall very good.

First edition. This popular militia manual, the "Bible" of the U.S. Army until the Civil War, was used by the Army of the Republic of Texas. The papers of William H. Daingerfield, Commissioner of Purchases for the Texas Army, reveal that when he was sent to the U.S. to buy military supplies for the Republic, among the items he listed as having purchased was a copy of this book. Very interesting for Texas military history.

$250.00

138. CORNER, William. San Antonio de Bexar. A Guide and History. San Antonio: Bainridge & Corner, 1890. [8] 166 [27, ads] pp., maps, plates, text illustrations. Tall 8vo, original turquoise cloth. A fine, bright copy, in the most elusive binding.

First edition. Agatha, p. 71: "Today a rare item for the book collector because of the historical sketch by Sidney Lanier." CBC 311. Howes C778. Raines, p. 55: "A mass of authentic information...the best which has yet appeared relative to San Antonio...special merit in the treatment of the Old Missions...the maps and ground plans of old San Antonio, the Alamo, and the four missions were especially made for this work, and constitute the only permanent record of the original lines of this interesting town and its mission establishments."

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$125.00

139. CORTÉS, Hernán and F. A. Lorenzana. Praeclara Ferdinadi Cortes... [with] Segunda carta de relación... Madrid: Novus Orbis, 1984. xii [4] 171 [11] + [8] 98 [1] pp., double-page map of Mexico City and the Gulf of Mexico, portraits, plates. 2 vols., small folio, original brown calf over parchment boards. New, as issued, in publisher's slipcase.

Limited edition (#102 of 975 copies). Cortes' famous letter written in 1520 to the King of Spain concerning his travels in America, and especially his conquest of Mexico, is presented in facsimile after the original printed in Nuremberg in 1524, along with a facsimile of Lorenzana's work on Cortes and New Spain that was printed in Mexico in 1770.

$75.00

140. CORWIN, H. D. Commanche and Kiowa Captives in Oklahoma and Texas. Guthrie: Privately printed, [1959]. 237 [2] pp., photographs. 8vo, original green cloth.

First edition. Chapters on Spanish captives, Cynthia Ann Parker, Mo-Keen, Ta-Han, Willie Lehmann, Millie Durgan, and others.

$75.00

141. CÓS, M. P. and José Tornel. Correspondencia del supremo gobierno sobre los departamentos de Tejas. Matamoros: Imprenta del Mercurio, 1835. 4 pp. folio folder, printed in Spanish and English. Light filing creases and a few old stains at lower blank margin--near fine copy of an extremely rare Texas item of which only four copies are recorded.

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:205: "An extremely important document addressed to the chiefs of the three Texas Departments of Bejar, Los Brasos, and Nacogdoches, transmitting alarming letters from Secretary of War Tornel. These comment on the efforts of 'seditious persons' to foment an uprising in Texas. These agitators, 'to attain their detestable views,' have been circulating reports that a military force is being sent 'to oppress the peaceable colonists.' The real object of the expedition is misinterpreted by the 'disaffected individuals.' Actually its purpose is to protect the colonists against the Indians. This noble pretext is backed up by assurances of

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

'the peaceable, just, and paternal wishes of the Government.' It will, however, 'be energetic and inexorable towards those who may disturb the peace and good order of the land.' One of the letters is translated into English, doubtless as a convenience for the Anglo-American seditious." Streeter 830.

$900.00

142. COSTANSÓ, Miguel. The Costansó Narrative of the Portolá Expedition. First Chronicle of the Spanish Conquest of Alta California... Newhall: Hogarth Press, 1970. 112 pp., maps, portrait, illustrations, complete facsimile of the Diario. Small folio, original beige cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Scholarly edition of the Costansó Diaro and map published in 1770, documenting the beginning of Spanish settlement of California. The Diario is one of the most elusive American books, being the first devoted solely to California. See Cowan (p. 145), Howes (C795), Zamorano Eighty 22, and Libros Californianos. This book also describes the extant manuscript copies of the Costansó map, one of which fetched £46,200 at Sotheby's London last month.

$35.00

143. COXE, William. Account of the Russian Discoveries between Asia and America... London: J. Nichols for T. Cadell, 1780. xxii, 344 [16] pp., 4 folding maps and one folding plate. 8vo, original three-quarter gilt decorated calf over marbled boards, spine with raised bands and red morocco label. Very fine, preserved in a

First edition, first issue. Hill, p. 71: "This work includes the main Russian discoveries and explorations made in northwestern America in their attempts to open communications with Alaska and the Aleutian Islands. Coxe made suggestions which led the Russians to promote expeditions of discovery to the northern parts of Siberia. His list of works on the subject, and his observations on the fur trade between the Russians and the Chinese are very valuable." Howes C834. Lada-Mocarski 29. Wickersham 5882. In addition to first translations into English of several important narratives, Coxe's book contains important original material that he obtained during his research in Russia.

$1,250.00

144. CROONENBERGHS, C. Trois ans dans l'Amerique septentrionale 1885-7. Le Mexique. Paris & Lyon: Briguet, 1893. [6] 424 pp., plates and map. 8vo, original dark blue morocco over blue cloth, spine gilt with raised bands. Light marginal browning to text, otherwise very fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Palau 65056. An account of the author's journey through Mexico. The first chapter, which is on Texas, includes plates of the Alamo and the $75.00

145. CUEVAS, Luis G. Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores...los departamentos fronterizos... Mexico, January 18, 1845. 4 pp. 12mo circular, first page printed. Fine.

First printing. Cuevas hereby circulates the text of the decree issued by Herrera, defining Chiapas, New Mexico, Alta California, and Texas as frontier departments of the Mexican republic. When this decree was issued, Texas had already been an independent nation for almost nine years. This rare circular is not in the standard bibliographies. $150.00

146. CURIE, Marie Sklodowska. Recherches sur les substances radioactives. Paris: Gauthier-Villars, 1904. iv, 155 pp., diagrams in text. 8vo, original maroon cloth, spine gilt-lettered. Very fine, fresh copy.

First edition for general circulation of Curie's epochal dissertation, originally published in only a limited edition for private circulation the previous year; revised and corrected from the first printing. Dibner 164. Duveen 154. Grolier 19. Printing and the Mind of Man 394. One of the most important documents of the 20th century and unparalleled in the history of science, Curie's dissertation presents a critical evaluation of her discovery of radium. The author was the first woman to win a Nobel Prize (and the first person to receive the Prize twice) and the first woman to hold a chair at the Sorbonne. $400.00

147. DAVIDSON, George. Francis Drake on the Northwest Coast of America in the Year 1579... San Francisco: Trans. and Proc. Geog. Soc. Pacific V:2., 1908. iv, 114 pp. 8vo, original printed wrappers. Fragile wrappers slightly worn and chipped, internally very fine. Davidson's own copy with his manuscript corrections and one page of notes laid in.

First printing. Cowan, p. 157. Rocq 4964. Davidson, who headed the survey of the California coast (1850-1857), argues that the northernmost anchorage of the "Golden Hinde" was Chetko Cove, six degrees south of San Francisco Bay.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$60.00

148 [DAVIDSON, GEORGE]. YALE, Charles G.]. Brief Sketch of the Public Services of George Davidson [cover title]. [N.p., 1885]. 14 pp. 16mo, original grey printed wrappers. Fine.

First separate printing (originally appeared in the August 1885 issue of Mining and Scientific Press). Cowan, p. 697. With this work we include another twelve page biographical sketch of Davidson printed in San Francisco in 1890. Davidson was the most prominent Pacific Coast scientist of his day.

$60.00

149. DAVIS, William Heath. Seventy-five Years in California... San Francisco: John Howell, 1967. xi [9] 344 pp., 20 illustrations (4 folding, some in color). Large 8vo, original gold cloth. Mint, unopened copy, without the dust jacket.

Third edition, edited and corrected from Davis' own copy of the 1889 original edition, with added illustrations, maps, and reference tools. Howell, California 50:1261: "The definitive edition of the most readable book on 19th century California."

$50.00

150. DE LEÓN, Alonso. Historia de Nuevo Leon con noticias sobre Coahuila, Tamaulipas, Texas y Nuevo México... Monterrey: Universidad de Nuevo León, 1961. lvi, 283 [2] pp., plates. Small 4to, original printed wrappers. Light wear to fragile wrappers, otherwise Scholarly reprint, with added notes. History of the conquest and settlement of Nuevo León told by its founder, Alonso de León; also includes a narration of his son's (and namesake's) expeditions into Texas in search of La Salle. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 19n & 114n.

$55.00

151. DE MEZIERES, Athanase. Athanase de Mezieres and the Louisiana-Texas Frontier 1768-1780: Documents Published for the First Time, from the Original Spanish and French Manuscripts... New York: Kraus, 1970. 351 [1]; 391 pp., folding map, facsimiles of documents and signatures. 2 vols. in one, 8vo, original red cloth. Mint.

Reprint of the original edition published by Arthur H. Clark in 1914. Howes B584. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 41. Rittenhouse 66. "For the light they throw on Indian affairs in the north and east Texas area for the period between 1768 and 1779 there is no single group of documents so important as the reports of De Mezieres" (Handbook of Texas I:486-87).

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$45.00

152. DE PAUW, Linda G. and Conover Hunt. Remember the Ladies. Women in America 1750-1815. New York: Viking Press, 1976. 168 pp., numerous illustrations. 4to, original beige cloth over beige boards. Very fine in First edition. Includes chapters on Love and Marriage, Motherhood, Domesticity, Women at Work, Creative Women, etc. Many of the illustrations and notes relate to antiquarian books.

$45.00

153. DIAZ DEL CASTILLO, Bernal. Historia verdadera de la conquista de la Nueva-España. Escrita por...uno de sus conquistadores... [Mexico, 1966]. [6] 254 [6] leaves. Folio, original full beige calf. Very fine.

Limited edition (200 copies). Facsimile reprint of the extremely rare original edition printed in Madrid in 1632. Field 425. Hill, p. 83. Palau 72354n: "Obra clásica por excelencia, y una de las mejores sobre la conquista de México." One of the best accounts of the conquest of Mexico, written by one of Cortes' fellow conquistadores.

$150.00

154. DOBIE, J. Frank. Coronado's Children: Tales of Lost Mines & Buried Treasures of the Southwest. Dallas: Printed by Andrew Hoyem at the Arion Press in San Francisco for Neiman-Marcus, 1980. xiv, 270 [1] pp., title and chapter headings in red, folding colored map of Southwest, portrait of Dobie, colored charts, gilt initial letters. Folio, original tan goatskin over handmade Mexican bark paper. Very fine, Limited edition (300 copies printed). Adams, Six-Guns 600. Dobie, p. 40. Gunn 128. Howes D374. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 45K: "Best work ever written on hidden treasure, and one of the most fascinating books on any subject to come out of Texas. About eighty percent of the text relates to Texas." McVicker A2. Rader 1156. One of the most sumptuous Southwestern press books.

$700.00

155. DOBIE, J. Frank. The Mustangs. Boston: Little, Brown, 1952. xvii [1] 376 pp., colored frontispiece, illustrated endpapers and drawings in text. 8vo, original blue and tan cloth, stamped in rust and gold. Near mint with pictorial d.j. Inscribed from the author to Wycliffe G. Knight in 1958.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition (third printing, issued for the Natural History Book Club). Adams, Herd 696. Graff 1100. McVicker A14a(4). Reese, Six Score 33: "Best book on range horses." Dobie's classic book on the wild horses of the Southwest.

$125.00

156. DOUGLAS, C. L. Original holograph manuscript: "Log-'Trinity Queen' Ft. Worth to Anahuac. 550 miles." Laid in are about 40 pages, with autograph letters, telegrams, printed broadside, and other ephemera related to the voyage. Bound in contemporary 8vo red leather ledger. Trinity River, 1938. Fine condition.

In 1938, in support of a movement to canalize the Trinity River from Fort Worth to the Gulf of Mexico, Douglas spent eight gruelling days on the river. The trip--in a 112-foot boat with outboard motor--was the first such journey ever made over the full length of the river, an unlovely trickle of mud, water moccasins, sandbars, and sewage. This is Douglas' original day-by-day diary of that journey. Douglas authored several important Texas books, including Cattle Kings of Texas and Famous Texas Feuds. Included with this lot is Douglas' manuscript entitled "History of the Woods--or Nature Book for Boy" which he penned in 1913 at the age of 12. Douglas was born in Oklahoma but came to Texas in 1926.

$450.00

157 [DRAKE, SIR FRANCIS].. The Plate of Brass: Evidence of the Visit of Francis Drake to California in the Year 1579. [San Francisco]: [Lawton Kennedy for] California Historical Society, 1953. [4] vi, 102 pp., frontispiece, 31 plates, 2 folding maps. 8vo, original rust cloth. Very fine, unopened.

Second edition, augmented. Rocq 4962. Evans 32. Detailed historical discussion of the Plate of Brass supposedly left near San Francisco by Drake. This edition contains a useful bibliography of 100 works relating to Drake.

$40.00

158. DUFLOT DE MOFRAS, E. Travels on the Pacific Coast. Santa Ana: Fine Arts Press, 1937. xxxiv, 273 + [2] 352 [1] pp., 4 plates, 5 maps (1 folding). 2 vols., royal 8vo, original quarter tan morocco, gilt-lettered spines. A very fine set, from the Howell sale.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition in English (translated from the original edition, Paris, 1844). Cowan, p. 186n. Graff 1169n: "One of the great books on the West Coast." Hill, p. 87. Howes D542. Lada-Mocarksi 120. Libros Californianos, p. 25. Zamorano Eighty 30n. The author was sent to Mexico in 1839 as a French ambassador. His special mission was to investigate the commercial possibilities of California and the Oregon Territory to determine if France should become involved in the U.S.-British conflict over the Oregon Territory. He gives a well-rounded account of the western coast of America from Tehuantepec to Bering Strait, including a chapter on Alaska and the Russian colonies in America. While in California, he visited most of the missions, including Monterey, Santa Barbara, San Buenaventura, San Luis Rey, and San Diego.

$475.00

159. DWINELLE, John W. "Notes of Travel" [Binder's title]. [6] 148 pp. 12mo, full contemporary morocco gilt. A few old stains, but overall very fine, preserved in a cloth slipcase. Dwinelle's own complete collection of printed letters written by him and published anonymously in the San Francisco Daily Evening Bulletin during 1869 and 1870, with author's manuscript corrections, ink stamp, holograph table of contents, and autograph letter presenting the book to Wm. Mitchell,

The letters give descriptions of travel in England and on the Continent, along with a description of the "village" of Santa Cruz, California. The author, a pioneer California attorney, came to Los Angeles in 1849, and later moved to Oakland, where he became mayor. He wrote the bill creating the University of California, helped organize the San Francisco Bar Association, and is best known for his book The Colonial History of the City of San Francisco.

$400.00

160. EASTMAN, Mary H. Chicóra and Other Regions of the Conquerors and the Conquered. Philadelphia: Lippincott, Grambo, 1854. 126 pp., 21 engraved plates of Indian life by Seth Eastman. 4to, original blue cloth gilt, a.e.g. A very fine, bright copy.

First edition. Field 477. Howes E18. Plains & Rockies IV:138a:1. Myres, Following the Drum, p. 8. This beautifully illustrated work contains short essays on tribes from the Winnebago to the Transmississippi. The author and her husband, artist Seth Eastman, were stationed at Fort Snelling from 1841 to 1848. During this period she interviewed many Indians and faithfully recorded their way of life. Included in the work are illustrations and text on the Sioux, Dacotah, Navajo, Zuñi, and other tribes.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$750.00

161. ECHEANDÍA, José Maria and Manuel Jimeno Casarin. Original manuscript dated at Monterey, California in 1830, signed by Echeandía (first Mexican governor of Alta California) and Casarin (contador of the Monterey custom-house between 1828 and 1830), text as follows: "Sello 4. de oficio. Habilitado provisionalm.te p.a la Comisaria Subalterna interina del Puerto de Monterey p.a el afio de 1830," followed by signatures with rubrics. One page, folio. Light stain barely affecting heading and signature of Casarin, otherwise a fine example.

The document is a manuscript sealed paper heading, the taxed revenue forms required by the Mexican government for all official documents. These manuscript headings were used by the California officials whenever the supply of printed papers from Mexico was depleted, prior to the introduction of the hand press in 1831.
$150.00

162. EDWARDS, William P., attrib.]. Narrative of the Capture and Providential Escape of Misses Frances and Almira Hall...Likewise is added, the Interesting Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Philip Brigdon, a Kentuckian... [St. Louis?] 1832. 24 pp., folding frontispiece plate. 8vo, disbound, preserved in a half tan morocco slipcase. Other than a few light stains, a fine copy of a very rare Indian captivity.

First edition. Ayer 210: "A true captivity, but written from hearsay and somewhat inaccurate." Howes H61: "The correct names of the Hall sisters were Rachel and Sylvia." The two sisters were captured near Indian Creek, Illinois, in 1832 by Sac and Fox Indians who after a time released them to the Winnebagos for a ransom. The Kentuckian hunter Brigdon who shared their ill fate managed to escape and made his way to Galena.
$850.00

163. EMORY, William H. Notes of a Military Reconnoissance from Fort Leavenworth, in Missouri, to San Diego, in California, including part of the Arkansas, Del Norte, and Gila Rivers. Washington, 1848. 548 pp., 62 lithographed plates, 5 maps, including two large folding maps at rear. 8vo, recent brown cloth. A fine copy; a desirable copy, the plates and maps pristine and bright, having been de-acidified.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

McKelvey (Botanical Exploration of the Trans-Mississippi West) lists a bewildering array of 21 issues and variants; this copy is yet another. The present volume is, however, the preferred one for its plates--with the 24 plates in Abert's report anonymously executed in a superior manner. The lithographed plates, which include views of San Diego, Santa Fe, Indians, flora, and fauna of the Southwest, etc., constitute the earliest plates of the far Southwest (Schwartz & Ehrenberg, The Mapping of America, pp. 276-78). Cowan, p. 295. Field 500. Graff 1249. Howes E145. Plains & Rockies IV:148. Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 544. Zamorano Eighty 33: "A library of Western Americana is incomplete without it." One of the most important government reports on overland travel, with accounts of the march of the Army of the West and the Mexican War in New Mexico and California. Emory's large map is a landmark of American cartography, being the first accurate depiction of the area under scrutiny.

$400.00

164. EMORY, William H. Report on the United States and Mexican Boundary Survey [Parts .1 & 2]... Washington: SED108, 1857. xvi, 258, viii, 174 pp., 5 maps and profiles (4 folding, 1 colored), 12 colored lithographic plates of Indians, scenery, and town views (El Paso and San Antonio), 63 engraved plates (views, natural history, etc.), numerous text illustrations. Large 4to, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Other than usual offsetting from plates, a fine, clean copy in original binding.

First edition, Senate issue, of Parts I and II. The subsequent two volumes are extremely difficult to locate; they were issued in a much smaller edition because Congress was upset about the high cost of this first volume with its many fine lithographs and maps. Alliot, p. 72. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books, p. 41. Edwards, Desert Voices, pp. 54-55. Field 500. Hill, p. 300. Howes E146. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 57: "One of the most significant of all government reports on western and southern Texas...The set is only rarely found complete." Palau 79371. Raines, p. 76. Plains & Rockies IV:2911. Wheat, Mapping the Trans-mississippi West, Chapter 30, vol. 3.

$400.00

165. ESCUELA DE MEDICINA DE MÉXICO. Método preservativo que debe observarse durante la epidemia de Chólera

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Morbus... Mexico: Vicente G. Torres, 1849. 16 pp. 16mo, original plain paper wrappers, sewn.

First edition. Palau (167060) lists only the Toluca edition of the following year. Scarce medical pamphlet giving suggested preventatives for cholera. Following the Mexican War a devastating cholera epidemic swept through Mexico causing 14,000 deaths in Mexico City
$75.00

166. ESPINOSA, I. F. de. El peregrino septentrional atlante. Delineado en la exemplarissima vida del Venerable Padre F. Antonio Margil de Jesus... Mexico: Joseph Bernardo de Hogal, 1737. [38] 456 [4] pp., copperplate engraving of Margil preaching to the Indians, title in red and black. 8vo, original limp vellum. Hinges strengthened, otherwise very fine, original

First edition. Fifty Texas Rarities 5. Graff 1260. Harper XIV:338: "One of the most important books ever issued for the study of Southwestern history." Howes E84. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 59. Jones 444. Leclerc 1129. Medina 3461. Palau 82703. Raines, p. 78. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 102: "Father Antonio is particularly noted in Southwest History for his expedition to Texas in 1716 and the founding of the missions in Northeast Texas." This beautiful Mexican imprint is the most important biography of the father of Texas, the author having accompanied Margil on the Ramon expedition to Texas in 1716. Of equal importance for a collection on Guatemala, where Margil is known as "Apostle of Guatemala."
$3,750.00

167. ESPINOSA, I. F. de. El peregrino septentrional atlante: delineado en la exemplarissima vida del Venerable Padre Fr. Antonio Margil de Jesus... Valencia: Joseph Thomas Lucas, 1742. [10] 411 [5] pp., copperplate engraving of Margil preaching to Indians, title in red and black. 8vo, original limp vellum. Front hinge strengthened and occasional light staining to top edges, else fine, with old ink stamp on title.

First Spanish edition of preceding entry.
$3,000.00

168. ESPINOSA, I. F. de. Nuevas empresas del peregrino americano septentrional atlante...el V. P. F. Antonio Margil de Jesus... Mexico: Doña Maria de Rivera, 1747. [with] LOPEZ AGUADO, Juan. Vozes y que hizieron eco en la religion pyra que en las honras del V. P. Fr. Antonio Margil de Jesus... Mexico: Bernardo de Hogal [1726]. [24]

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

46 pp.; [34] 56 pp., both works with ornamental titles. 2 vols. in one, 8vo, full Mexican antique calf, spine gilt with raised bands and red morocco labels. Very fine.

First editions of both works. Citations to Espinosa: Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 59c: "This supplemental work adds additional material on the life of Margil, including duly authenticated miracles." Wagner, Spanish Southwest 119: "Supplement to the life of Father Antonio published by Espinosa in 1737." Citations to Lopez Aguado: Harper XIV:270: "This work is very rare." Palau 140614 (mentioning only the Leclerc copy). Medina 2868. Both works form a supplement to Espinosa's 1737 biography (see preceding entry). Although Father Margil is primarily remembered as one of the great missionaries to the Indians of Texas, his favorite field of labor was Guatemala. These two works touch on Margil's labors in Texas and cover in considerable detail his career in Guatemala.
$3,000.00

169 [ESTALA, Pedro, translator].. El viagero universal, ó noticia del mundo antiguo y nuevo...por D.P.E.P. Tomo XXIV. Madrid: Villalpando, 1799. 382 pp., 5 hand-colored engraved plates. 12mo, original full Spanish calf, spine with red calf label. Fine. Scarce with the colored plates.

First edition. This is Volume 14 in the large series dealing with travels throughout the entire world, and this volume is devoted to North America. Hill, p. 308. Palau 131464. Medina 5760. Sabin 99403. The plates depict inhabitants of Pennsylvania (Quaker man and woman) and Canada.
$200.00

170. EVANS, W. R. and F. I. Jordan]. Southwest. Boston: Privately printed, 1931. [4] 74 pp., numerous photoplates tipped in, decorated title, endpaper maps. 8vo, original gilt-lettered dark green cloth. Superb condition.

First edition. Not in Bliss. Entertaining account of two gentlemen who traveled by auto from Chicago to the Southwest, covering 7,152 miles, with stops at Canyon de Chelly, the Grand Canyon, Chaco Canyon, Rainbow Bridge, Santa Fe, Isleta, Phoenix, Gila Bend, etc. This delightful work is enhanced by the authors' fine photographs. Rare, privately printed account.
$150.00

171. FARIA, Francisco Xavier de. Vida y heroycas virtudes del Vble. Padre Pedro de Velasco... Mexico: Maria de

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Ribera, 1753. xiv, 64, 57-170 pp. 8vo, original vellum with yap edges and ties. Title with library stamp and closed tear, marginal loss to title and first few leaves (affecting decorative border of title), occasional soiling, but overall a very good copy.

First edition. Carayon 2663. Graff 1287. Howes F33. Jones 474. Medina 4116. Streit III:599. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 127. Faria's work remains one of the most important sources for the early history of the Spanish in Arizona, during a period marked by deep unrest among the Indians. Although Faria wrote of his life with the Indians in 1653, his book was not published until a century later. $1,750.00

172 [FEMINISM].. A collection of approximately 125 books on feminism, most dating from the 1960's and 1970's. These were the books read by American women that forever changed their way of perceiving themselves and their social and familial roles. Condition very fine.

Checklist available.

$700.00

173. FERNANDEZ, Justino. José Clemente Orozco. Forma e idea. Mexico: Porrúa, 1942. 209 pp., 200 plates, some in color. 4to, original brown cloth. Fine.

First edition of this monograph on the great modern Mexican artist who fought in the Mexican Revolution.

$75.00

174. FIGUEROA, José. The Manifesto, which the General of Brigade...makes to the Mexican Republic in regard to his Conduct and that of Snrs. D. Jose Maria de Hijars and D. José Maria Padres, as Directors of [California] Colonization in 1833 and 1834. San Francisco: Herald Office, 1855. 104 [1] pp. 8vo, original gilt-ruled black cloth. Very fine.

First edition in English of this famous manifesto first printed by Zamorano in Monterey in 1835. Cowan, p.210. Graff 1320. Greenwood 562. Howes F122. Zamorano Eighty 37n. Contains Governor Figueroa's refusal to turn mission property over to the colonists who arrived under direction of Hajar and Padres in 1833.

$400.00

175. FILISOLA, V. Representación dirigida al Supremo Gobierno...en defensa de su honor y aclaración de sus operaciones como General en Gefe del Ejército sobre Tejas.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Mexico: Cumplido, 1836. 82 pp. 8vo, modern acid-free boards. Occasional light foxing, overall fine.

First edition. Fifty Texas Rarities 17. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 61: "A fascinating account of the Mexican viewpoint of the Texas campaign." Howes F127. Palau 91610. Raines, p. 82. Streeter 853: "The classic account of the retreat of the Mexicans through Texas after the battle of San Jacinto and a masterly defense of his acts in ordering and conducting the retreat."

$1,500.00

176. FOLSOM, G. F. Mexico in 1842...to which is Added an Account of Texas and Yucatan, and of the Santa Fe Expedition. New York: Wiley & Putnam, et al., 1842. 256 pp., folding colored map showing Texas as a separate country. 16mo, original brown embossed cloth. Head of spine neatly repaired, otherwise a very fine, tight copy.

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:301: "The last hundred pages relate to Texas from 1832 to 1842, and include the correspondence of Bee and Hamilton with Santa Anna in 1841 and 1842." Graff 1372. Plains & Rockies IV:86 and 91. Rader T423. Raines, p. 83. Rittenhouse 694. Streeter 1413. Contains the previously unpublished narrative of the Santa Fe Expedition of Franklin Combs, a 17-year old Kentuckian, one of the small group that included Kendall and Falconer who had gone on the expedition as guests. An important account, all the more valuable for the excellent Republic era map.

$1,500.00

177. FOOTE, Henry S. Texas and the Texans; or Advance of the Anglo-Americans to the Southwest... Philadelphia: Thomas Cowperthwait & Co., 1841. 314; 403 pp. 8vo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Text lightly browned and heads of spines neatly reinforced with matching contemporary cloth. Very good set.

First edition. Eberstadt 162:292b: "Contains many rare documents and is a valuable authority. Foote wrote at the request and with the aid of the most prominent Texas pioneers and officials of the Republic. It discusses Burr's project; the Magee expedition; civil history of the Republic; and recognition by the U.S." Graff 1376. Howes F238. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 63: "One of the most influential books on Texas in its time, this work is still of considerable value and interest." Raines, p. 84. Streeter 1377.

$600.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

178. FORD, W. C. (compiler). The United States and Spain in 1790. Brooklyn: Historical Printing Club, 1890. 109 pp. Small 4to, original grey printed wrappers. Fragile wrappers with marginal browning and chipping, text very fine, unopened.

First edition. Larned 1781: "Introduction describes the first question in diplomacy after the inauguration of the government under the Constitution [followed by] documents, some printed for the first time. Valuable, well-written and interesting."

$65.00

179. FOSSEY, Mathieu de. Viage a Méjico. Mexico: Cumplido, 1844. 363 pp., 5 lovely lithographs of scenes in Mexico by Heredia, including one of decorative friezes at Mitla. 8vo, contemporary Mexican gilt calf over marbled boards. Fine.

First edition. Fernández Ledesma, Historia critica de la tipografia en la ciudad de México, p. 76. Palau 93968. Mathes, Mexico on Stone, pp. 23 & 56. Porrua V:6853: "Muy interesante la que representa una corrida de toros en la plaza de San Pablo." Sabin 25192. Toussaint, La litografia en Mexico, p. xix. An interesting account of Mexico by a French traveler, valuable for its early Mexican lithographs.

$325.00

180. FRANK, Waldo, et al. America & Alfred Stieglitz. A Collective Portrait. New York: Literary Guild [1934]. x, 339 pp., 120 illustrations (many photographic). 8vo, original black cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Twenty-five contributors, including Gertrude Stein, Paul Strand, and William Carlos Williams, give their views on the life and work of Stieglitz, master of American photography and pioneer of modern art.

$40.00

181. FREDERICK I (King of Sweden). Kongl. Maj:ts. Nadige Privilegium pa en Handels och Siö-farts inrättande pa America, För Handelsmännerne Abraham och Jacob Arfwedson & Compagnie...2. Dec. 1745. Stockholm: Kongl. Truckeriet, Pet. Momma, 1745. [8] pp. 8vo, disbound. Very fine.

The royal charter of a Swedish company formed by Abraham and Jacob Arfwedson granting to them commercial privileges in America. Such charters to Swedish companies in the 18th century are quite uncommon.

$150.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

182. FREMONT, Jessie B. and John C. Memoirs of my Life... Chicago: Belford, Clarke, 1887. xx, 655 pp., numerous illustrations and maps. 4to, new blue cloth. Large folding map torn at folds, but overall a very good copy.

First edition. Cowan, p. 224. Howes F367. Eberstadt, Modern Narratives of Plains and Rockies 171. Howes F367: "Embraces his first three exploring expeditions and the part played by him in the conquest of California." Co-authored by "The Pathfinder" and his wife, Jessie, to whom we owe the literary style of the famous exploring expeditions published under her husband's name. Included is a sketch of Jessie's father, Senator Benton, noted champion of westward expansion. Excellent illustrations by Darley, Hamilton and other leading artists.
$225.00

183. FREMONT, JOHN C. California Claims...Memorial of John Charles Fremont... Washington: SRC75, 1848. 83 pp. 8vo, acid-free protective wrappers. Other than occasional foxing, fine.

First edition, first printing. Cowan, p. 95. Howell, California 50:94: "This important document is one of the prime sources for the history of the conquest of California and the Bear Flag Revolt. Besides Fremont's account, it contains many official documents, as well as the inside history of Great Britain's attempt to secure California." Howes F364.
$100.00

184. FREMONT, John C. Defence of Lt. Col. Fremont, before the Court Martial, January, 1848. [Washington: Privately published by the author, 1850]. 78 pp. 8vo, acid-free protective wrappers. Occasional light spotting, else fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 22. Howell, California 50:96: "A document of critical importance in Fremont's career." Howes F365.
$200.00

185. FREMONT, John C. The Expeditions of John Charles Fremont...Travels from 1838 to 1844, edited by Donald Jackson and Mary Lee Spence. Urbana, etc.: University of Illinois Press [1970]. xliv, 854 pp., maps, illustrations + map portfolio containing 11 folding maps. 2 vols., 8vo, original tan cloth. Mint in d.j.

First edition. Collection of Fremont's personal and public papers relating to his early travels, along with a scholarly reprint of the official report of the 1842 expedition to South Pass and the Wind River Mountains and of the 1843-44 expedition to Oregon and California. See Cowan (p. 223), Grolier American Hundred 49, Howes F370, Plains & Rockies IV:115, and Zamorano Eighty 39.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$50.00

186 [FREMONT, JOHN C.]. BENTON, Thomas Hart. Speech of Mr. Benton, of Missouri, on the California Claims... Washington: Congressional Globe Office, 1848. 12 pp. 8vo, acid-free protective wrappers. Fine.
First edition. Cowan, p. 50. Fremont's father-in-law addresses the question of the California claims in order "to rebut an injurious presumption" and to show that Fremont's expenses in the "liberation" of California ought to be paid.
$45.00

187 [FREMONT, JOHN C.]. CLARKE, John Hopkins. Speech of Mr. Clarke, of Rhode Island, on the California Claims. Washington: John T. Towers, 1848. 15 pp. 8vo, acid-free protective wrappers. Very fine.
First edition. Cowan, p. 128. Defends Fremont stating that "the insurrection in California was directed by the 'Government at home,' [and] the events, which transpired there, even to its subjugation, originated with the Executive Department of the Government, and were consequent upon its orders conveyed to Col. Fremont." Clarke further states that though history will say the Mexican war was caused by the annexation of Texas and the controversy over its western boundary, that the true cause was "the spirit of rapine and conquest" of the United States in covertly fomenting the California
$75.00

188. FUENTES, M. A. Lima, esquisses historiques, statistiques, administratives, commerciales et Morales. Paris: Didot, 1866. x, 242 [2] 56 pp., ornate illuminated title in gilt and colors, over 50 extremely fine tinted lithographs (portraits, architecture, cityscapes), numerous text cuts. Royal 8vo, original navy blue morocco over gilt cloth boards, spine gilt with raised bands, a.e.g. Contemporary and slightly later inscriptions on front pastedown. Text moderately foxed,
First edition. Palau 94530. Sabin 26118. Squier 387. This work constitutes the best 19th century account of Lima and environs. The beautiful plates were executed by leading French artists of the day, including
$475.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

189. FULLER, Margaret. Margaret and her Friends or Ten Conversations with Margaret Fuller...Held at the House of the Rev. George Ripley...Beginning March 1, 1841, Reported by Caroline W. Healey [Dall]. Boston: Roberts, 1895. [2] 162 pp. 8vo, original brown decorated cloth. Binding a bit worn, overall fine.

First edition. BAL 6510. Myerson A11. Transcript of Fuller's famous Conversations in Boston discussing art, education, women's rights, etc. These meetings were attended by many Transcendentalist theorists, such as Emerson, and by women reformers like Lydia Maria Child and Sophie Peabody. Scarce.

$125.00

190 [FUR TRADE].. Contemporary manuscript copy in Spanish of tariffs and regulations governing the California fur trade. Promulgated at Mexico, May 14, 1790; copied at Mission Santa Clara, September 10, 1790; and certified as an accurate copy by Fermín Francisco de Lasuén, head of the Alta California missions. 3 folio pages. Very fine.

An early, important document on the California fur trade, setting forth the prices to be paid for otter skins, granting the missionary fathers a monopoly as export agents for all skins bought by the military or the civilians from the Indian trappers, and regulating details of shipment in twelve provisos.

$450.00

191. GÁMEZ, José D. Historia de Nicaragua desde los tiempos prehistóricos hasta 1860, en sus relaciones con España, Mexico, y Centro-América... Managua: "El Pais," 1889. 855 [1] pp. 8vo, contemporary grey cloth, red leather spine label. Binding and blank margins of first and last leaves waterstained, otherwise very good.

First edition. Griffin 1043: "A narrative history principally of political and military content. It covers the years 1821-1860 in 400 pages, and includes some 125 pages on the filibuster period."

$85.00

192. GARCÉS, Francisco. On the Trail of a Spanish Pioneer. The Diary of... New York: Harper, 1900. xxx, 312 + [8] 313-608 pp., maps, plates (mostly photographic). 2 vols., 8vo, original navy blue cloth. Light shelf wear, but overall a fine set.

First edition in English. Howes C801. Rocq 16260. Weber, p. 27. "The journal of the intrepid Franciscan missionary whose explorations in the southwest prompted the Anza expedition and the opening of the Mojave Trail. His Diario is an excellent source of information on both the Indians and the country that he observed" (Howell, California 50:1538).

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$175.00

193. GARCIA CISNEROS, F. Maternity in Pre-Columbian Art. [New York and Spain: Cisneros Gallery, [1970]. 247 pp., profusely illustrated with photographs of pre-Columbian art. Small 4to, original white cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. This well-documented study is the first on the subject of the maternity theme in pre-Columbian America. Bilingual edition in Spanish and English.

$40.00

194. GARCILASO DE LA VEGA, EL INCA. La Florida del Inca. Historia del Adelantado Hernando de Soto... Madrid: N. Rodriguez Franco, 1723. [32] 268 [12] pp., title printed in red and black, woodcut initials and ornamentation. Folio, original limp vellum. Fine.

Second and best edition, with scholarly notes and corrections by González Barcia. The original edition was issued at Lisbon in 1605. Field 588. Hill, pp. 122-23. Howes B130: "The principal authority on Florida during its two centuries of undisputed Spanish supremacy, 1567-1763." Medina 2452. Palau 354793. Raines, p. 88: "The most readable of the original narratives of the De Soto expedition, and written from statements of survivors and documents extant." Wagner, Spanish Southwest 121n. An important book for Texas history, containing the most authoritative account of the De Soto expedition that marched to the high plains of Texas, back to the Mississippi, and thence along the Texas coast. The author, of noble Spanish lineage on his father's side and of royal Inca blood on his mother's, was the first native American historian.

$750.00

195. GARCILASO DE LA VEGA, EL INCA. The Florida of the Inca... Austin: University of Texas Press, 1951. xlviii, 655 pp., frontispiece, endpaper maps. Thick 8vo, original beige decorated cloth. Very fine in d.j. A review copy, with printed slip laid in.

First complete edition in English of preceding entry. This was the first publication of The University of Texas Press. Lowman (Printing Arts in Texas, p. 31) calls it "an impressive debut."

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$40.00

196. GARIBAY KINTANA, Angel M. Códice de Metepec... Mexico, 1949. 33 pp., plates. 8vo, original maize printed wrappers. Two ink stamps of a Mexican collector, else fine.

First edition. Glass, p. 610: "Nahuatl text, Spanish translation, and reproduction of four figured pages of nontraditional style and non-Techialoyan manuscript, not included in the census."

$35.00

197. GATSCHET, Albert S., Alice Oliver, et al. The Karankawa Indians, the Coast People of Texas. Cambridge: Peabody Papers I(2), 1891. 103 pp., map showing the ancient domain of the Karankawa Indians. 8vo, unbound sheets. Title a trifle dusty, else fine.

First edition. Rader 1552. Raines, p. 89. Excellent study of the nomadic Indians who inhabited the Texas coast and were first described by Cabeza de Vaca. The Karankawa vocabulary and history recorded here were obtained by Alice Oliver, whose family settled at Matagorda Bay in 1838 when Alice was ten. As a teenager she formed a friendship with the Indians, learning and recording their language.

$100.00

198. GIFFORD, Edward Winslow. "Tübatulabal and Kawaiisu Kinship Terms." Berkeley: Univ. Calif. Pubs. in Amer. Arch. and Ethn. 12:6, 1917. Pp. 219-248. 4to, original grey printed wrappers. Very fine, unopened.

First separate printing. Not in Rocq. Interesting study of the Indians of the Kern River area near present-day Bakersfield.

$40.00

199. GILPIN, Laura. The Pikes Peak Region. Colorado Springs: Gilpin Publishing Co., 1926. 18 pp., half-tone photographic illustrations. 4to, original blue pictorial wrappers. Mint.

First edition. Very rare guide photographed and published by Gilpin, the remarkable pioneer woman photographer.

$225.00

200. GILPIN, Laura. Temples in Yucatan. A Camera Chronicle of Chichén Itzá. New York: Hastings House [1948]. 124 pp., 227 high-quality photographs of Maya temples and artifacts; plans and charts. 8vo, original gilt-decorated blue-green cloth. Very fine in d.j.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Bernal 6996. Brilliant photoessay on one of the most remarkable American archaeological sites. $100.00

201. GLASS, John B. Lienzo Totomixtlahuaca 1570 (Códice Condumex). Reproducción facsimilar... Mexico: Centro de Estudios de Historia de México, 1974. 124, prelims. and text, 36 (colored photofacsimile), 41 pp., text illustrations, map. 4to, original white printed wrappers. Very fine in publisher's tan cloth portfolio.

First edition, limited edition (#147 Of 250 copies, this being a presentation copy to Warren R. Howell). Glass 362. Cartographic-historical lienzo regarding a land dispute in 16th century Guerrero, with about 75 hieroglyphic place names glossed in Nahuatl. $100.00

202. GÓMEZ DE CERVANTES, Gonzalo. La vida económica y social de Nueva España al finalizar el siglo XVI. Mexico: Robredo, 1944. 218 [2] pp. 4to, original wrappers bound in full Mexican tree sheep, spine with raised bands and red and blue calf labels. Inconsequential ink markings on front flyleaves, else

First edition. Griffin 2366: "Written in 1599. Deals with the agricultural, mineral, and other products of Mexico and the forced labor systems through which they were obtained. Tables of precious metal exports and illustrations of cochineal harvest. An important source for economic practices and abuses." $75.00

203. GONZALEZ HOLGUÍN, Diego. Vocabulario de la lengua general de todo el Peru...Quichua, a del Inca. Ciudad de los Reyes del Peru [Lima]: F. del Canto, 1608. [4] 375; 332 pp. 4to, modern dark green morocco gilt. Slipcase. Repairs to outer margins of first two leaves (not affecting text), some shaving of headlines, and last two leaves (privileges of press) not present in this copy. These two leaves were evidently an afterthought, since the colophon on the last leaf declares the work finished, August 8, 1608.

First American edition (a much shorter work combined with a grammar was published by the author in Seville in 1603; it is known by only one copy, which is defective). Harper XIV:11: "Of great rarity." Medina, Lima 42. Vargas Ugarte 53. First comprehensive dictionary of the Inca language, and an important American imprint, being the largest work printed in South America up to that $5,000.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

204. GONZALEZ Y MONTOYA, Josef. Rasgos sueltos para la constitución de America... Cadiz: La Junta Superior, 1811. 16 pp. 8vo, half calf antique. Very fine.

First edition. Sabin 27806. Palau 105563. Prophetic essay urging Spanish reform in the American colonies. Urges election of local representatives to the government, abolition of European appointments, and recommends American-born residents assume government positions as they know best the needs of their regions. $150.00

205. GOROSTIZA, M. E. Gorostiza Pamphlet...A Copy and Translation... Washington: HED190, 1838. 120 pp., map showing the boundary between Texas and Louisiana. 8vo, new acid-free boards. Very fine.

First edition in English. Howes G6 (noting only the Spanish and French editions). Streeter 1220C. This edition in Spanish with accompanying English translation contains the correspondence relative to General Gaines' military occupation of northeast Texas from the Sabine to the Nacogdoches for the official purpose of checking Indian depredations. Gorostiza, acting as special Mexican envoy to Washington, attacks the good faith of the United States in sending Gaines across the Sabine to occupy Nacogdoches to circumvent the anticipated "invasion." This affair led to the breaking off of diplomatic relations between Mexico and the United States. The map, which appeared in the Spanish edition printed at Philadelphia in 1836, is said by Howes to be the earliest of the Republic of Texas. $450.00

206. GRANADOS Y GALVEZ, J. J. Tardes americanas... Mexico: Zúniga y Ontiveros, 1778. [72] 540 pp., 3 copperplate engravings (Tottecs and Chichimecas; Spirit of the Wheel; coronation of Nopal); woodcut diagram. 8vo, Spanish calf gilt. From the library of noted ethnologist, Frederic Starr, with his bookplate. Slight wear to hinges and title-page, else very good.

First edition. Field 620. Glass, p. 617: "Describes now unknown Testerman manuscript and unknown Tarascan manuscript." JCB III:2467. Leclerc I 147: "un livre fort rare." Medina 7000. Palau 108426: "Obra estimada y rara." Pilling 1598. Sabin 28256. An interesting history of Mexico written in the form of a dialogue between an Indian and a Spaniard, of scholarly interest because of the inclusion of manuscripts on Mexican prehistory that are now lost along with much on the ancient history of the nomadic tribes that inhabited Sonora and the Southwestern borderlands.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$2,000.00

207. GRANT, Anne McV.]. Memoirs of an American Lady: With Sketches of Manners and Scenery in America, as they Existed Previous to the Revolution. London: Longman et al., 1808. xii, 312 [2, ads] + [8] 344 pp. 2 vols., 12mo, late 19th century three-quarter morocco over marbled boards. Fine set.

First edition. Howes G303. Larned 1101: "The daughter of a British army officer, [the author] spent her early years in America...There is much in [the book] of Albany customs, the country place of a well-to-do colonist, negro slavery, and the Indians."

$125.00

208. GRANT, Emma. Remembrances of a Pioneer Woman. San Francisco: Privately Printed, 1926. [2] 16 pp., frontispiece portrait. 16mo, original grey boards with printed paper label on upper cover. Very fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 850. Not in Hill. A woman pioneer's recollections in the South Seas, Hawaii, and California, taken from her personal papers by her daughter who comments that these memoirs "suggest the vicissitudes of pioneer life and the fortitude necessary to overcome them." A gem.

$75.00

209. GRAVES, John, Larry McMurtry, R. G. Vliet, and Lon Tinkle. The American Southwest: Cradle of Literary Art. San Marcos: Southwest Texas State University [1978]. [8] 80 pp., portrait of each author. 8vo, original dark blue cloth. Mint.

First edition. Issued in only a small printing; records lectures given at a symposium on regional literature of the Southwest.

$37.50

210. GREEN, Ben K. A Thousand Miles of Mustangin'.. [6] 145 pp., illustrated by Joe Beeler. 4to, original brown gilt pictorial cloth. Mint in d.j.

First edition. Wilson 17: "Many Green aficionados, including myself, regard Mustangin' as his most entertaining book, and in some respects his most self-revealing. Green recounts his adventures as a solo hunter of wild mustangs in what was at that time (the 1930's) the wilderness country of the Texas Big Bend and the mountains of northern Mexico."

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$60.00

211. GREGG, Josiah. Wanderungen durch die Prairien und das nördliche Mexiko... Stuttgart: Verlag der Franckh'schen Buchhandlung, 1847. xii, 259 [1]; [4] 281 [1] [2, ads] pp. 2 vols. in one, 16mo, contemporary tan cloth over marbled boards, new red calf label. Other than occasional inconsequential browning, a fine copy.

Second German edition. Howes G401. Plains & Rockies IV:108:8. Streeter 1502 (not locating this edition): "This classic of the Santa Fe trade...is of direct Texas interest because of Gregg's account of crossing the Texas panhandle above Amarillo in the spring of 1839 and early months of 1840...His references to the Texan Santa Fe expedition make this an important Texas book as well as one of the great books on the West."

$225.00

212. GUNN, Lewis C. and Elizabeth. Records of a California Family: Journals and Letters...edited by Anna Lee Marston. San Diego: Privately printed, 1928. [10] 279 [5] pp., colored frontispiece, 13 plates. 8vo, original blue paper boards, navy blue cloth backstrip. Very fine.

First edition, limited edition (300 numbered copies). Lacking, as usual, the plate facing page 276, which Howes (M324) states is often missing. Adams, Books and Authors of San Diego 1040. Cowan, p., 254. Graff 1688. San Diego Bibliography, p. 95. Wheat, Books of the California Gold Rush 85. "An account of the overland trip of Lewis Gunn to the gold region of California in 1849, and the voyage round the Horn of his wife Elizabeth in 1851. The Gunns spent a decade in Sonora, then moved to San Francisco, and finally settled in San Diego, where they became prominent pioneer citizens of that developing 213. GUTITRREZ, Electra y Tonatiúh. Los Mexicanos vistos por los Europeos. Mexico, 1984. 16 pp. (text) + 311 separate plates (mostly colored). Folio, original red portfolio. New, as issued.

$250.00

First edition. Presents prints of Mexicans as viewed through European eyes, from the 17th to the 19th century.

$75.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

214. GUZMAN, J. M. Breve noticia que da al Supremo Gobierno, del actual estado del territorio de la Alta California... Mexico: Aguila, 1833. [1] 8 pp., folding table. 8vo, plain wrappers. Fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 154. Graff 1696. Libros Californianos, p. 15. Palau 111800. "Official report on the missions of California at the time of secularization, with table of statistical information dating back to 1828. Guzmán, the head of the Franciscan College of San Fernando in Mexico City, was extremely knowledgeable about the activities of the Missions in Alta California. He suggests that the Pious Fund be used for enterprises outside the Missions" (Howell, California 50:108). Wagner cited this work as one of the twenty rarest and most important books on California.

$850.00

215. GUZMAN, Nuño Beltran de. Testamento...Reproducción facsimilar y transcripción paleográfica... Mexico: Condumex, 1973. 94 [5] pp., including facsimiles of Guzmán's illustrated family tree, will, and one other related document. Small folio, original printed pictorial wrappers. Very fine, in

First edition, limited edition (#147 of 200 numbered copies, this copy presented to Warren R. Howell). These previously unpublished documents add to our knowledge of the life of Guzmán, who was distinguished even among the conquistadores for his greed and cruelty.

$75.00

216. HAKLUYT, Richard. The Principal Navigations, Voyages, Traffiques and Discoveries of the English Nation... London: Bishop, Newberie, and Barker, 1600, 1599, 1600. [24] 620; [16] 204 + [16] 868 pp., printed mostly in black letter, woodcut initials. 3 vols. in 2, small folio, half dark brown antique calf over marbled boards, spines extra gilt with raised bands. Slightly trimmed, as usual, and last leaf of third vol. repaired, but overall a fine set.

Second edition of Hakluyt's famous collection of voyages. The title-page to vol. I is, again, a cancel; the 7 leaves of the "Voyage vnto Cadiz," suppressed by Queen Elizabeth, are supplied in the eighteenth century facsimile. The first edition, in one volume only, was published in 1589. Alden 600/52. Borba de Moraes I:391: "Well-known and sought after." JCB (3):I:372-74. Church 322. Hill, pp. 131: "This enormous work--it contains one million seven hundred thousand words--is the most complete collection of voyages and discoveries, by land as well as by sea, and of the nautical achievements of the Elizabethans." Howes H26 (listing only the 1809-12 reprint). Sabin 29598: "A fine set of this grand series of Voyages is one of the desiderata in any Americana collection." STC 12626. Wagner, Spanish Southwest, pp. 89, 103-05, 116, 155, 158-59, 161, 163-65, 208, & 226 (noting the early Southwestern explorations, such as Coronado, Niza, Drake, et al.). One of the all-time classics of travel literature. "Greatest historical source for England's interests abroad in the 16th century...the second edition of his Principal Navigations was in fact an entirely new work, rather than a re-editing of the old" (Parker). As usual, the Molyneux map is not found in this copy. Stevens (Rare Americana 1721) comments that "the map is of superlative rarity." The last copy on the market to include the map brought $30,000.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$6,000.00

217. HARLAN, [James]. Land Claims Between Perdido and Mississippi. Washington: HR818, 1838. 125; 4 pp. 8vo, disbound. New Jersey Historical Society Stamp on first page.

First edition. An important government document relating to conflicting early land claims on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. The report maintains that the contested lands were part of the Louisiana Purchase and that Spain had no legal basis for distributing them.
$75.00

218. HARRIS, Sarah Hollister. An Unwritten Chapter of Salt Lake 1851-1901. New York: Privately printed, 1901. 89 pp. 12mo, original green gilt-lettered cloth. Very fine copy of a scarce book.

First edition. Eberstadt 138:260: "Printed in a few copies for the family. The author was the wife of the first secretary and treasurer of the territory, B. D. Harris. Her volume affords: (Part I) a detailed record of the trip across the plains to the post of duty at Salt Lake in 1851; (Part II) experiences and observations in Utah, July to September, 1851; and (Part III) return journey with $40,000 in gold and silver, September to October of the same year." Flake 3867. Graff 2795. Howes 2311.
$325.00

219. HARTE, Bret. The Heritage of Dedlow Marsh and Other Tales. Boston & New York: Houghton, Mifflin, 1889. 259 pp. 12mo, original red cloth stamped in black and gilt. A fine copy, with author's presentation inscription to Madame van de Velde. Bookplates of Paul Hyde Bonner and Alain de Suzannet.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. BAL 7348. Baird-Greenwood 1099.
Kozlay 243. Wright III:2540. Contains four stories set in California.
$250.00

220. HASKINS, C. W. The Argonauts of California, being the Reminiscences of Scenes and Incidents that Occurred in California in Early Mining Days... New York: Fords, Howard & Hulbert, 1890. [2] 501 pp., frontispiece, numerous text illustrations. 4to, original goldenrod gilt pictorial cloth. Upper cover strengthened, otherwise a very good copy with only occasional light wear. A difficult book to find in collector's condition.

First edition. Cowan, p. 269. Graff 1812. Howell, California 50:1547: "An interesting volume of Gold Rush memoirs, particularly valuable for the list of 35,000 pioneers who arrived in California before 1850." Howes H183. Wheat, Books of the California Gold Rush 93.
$125.00

221. HENNEPIN, Louis. A New Discovery of a Vast Country in America... Giving an Account of the Sieur de La Salle... Chicago: McClurg, 1903. lxiv, 353 + 354-711 pp., maps, plates. 2 vols., 8vo, original tan linen, brown cloth backstrips. Very fine set with former owner's book plates.

Scholarly reprint of the first English edition (London, 1698), with introduction and notes by Reuben Gold Thwaites. Ayer 128. Clark I:98. Field 685. Graff 1862. Howes H417. Raines, p. 111: "Account of the Ft. St. Louis settlement in Texas." Vail 278. One of the most important of the early accounts of exploration and discovery in North America, including the ill-fated French colony at Matagorda Bay, Texas.
$125.00

222. HERRERA, Antonio de. "The Description of the Ilandes and firme land of the Ocean Sea, which are called the West Indies. By Antonio of Herrera Cheife Chronicler of Castill". At end: "Translated by Christopher Tooke, gent." N.p., ca. 1620. 117 unnumbered manuscript leaves, written on one side only, uncut, watermark on many leaves showing a jar with handle and what looks like half of a crescent wrench extending from the top. Folio, old rough calf.

To the best of our knowledge this is an unpublished contemporary English translation of Herrera's great work on

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

America. The translator, Christopher Tooke, is very possibly Christopher Tucke, who attended Corpus Christi College in 1579, earning a B.A. in 1582-83, an M.A. in 1585, and according to Venn, Alumni Cantabrigienses, a Fellow of the College from 1586 to 1588. In Purchas his Pilgrimes by Samuel Purchas, published in 1624-25, Purchas included an English translation of Herrera's work in his third part, pages 855-917, and remarks about the translation, "I can scarcely call it English, it had so much of the Spanish garbe," comparing it with the Spanish original and with the Latin translation "correcting and illustrating the phrase and sence; being before very rude, obscure and in very many places utterly sencelesse." Our translation being very close to the printed version and the fact that notations are made in the text as to where to place the maps would lead one to assume this manuscript was copy made ready for the printer. Our copy is written throughout in one hand, the writer using the Secretary script for the text; the chapter and marginal heading, proper names, being Italian script.

$12,000.0

0

223. HILL, Emma Shepard. A Dangerous Crossing and What Happened on the Other Side... Denver: Privately printed by the author, 1914. viii, 117 [2] pp., portraits of the author and her father at the time of the crossing, plate of their log cabin, text illustrations. 12mo, original gilt-lettered turquoise blue cloth. Back hinge cracked, otherwise a fine copy of a very scarce overland.

First edition. Graff 1887. Howes H481. Wilcox, p. 59. The author was thirteen years of age when she crossed the plains from Ohio to Colorado during the Indian uprising of 1864. The first forty pages are devoted to the overland narrative, and the latter part of the book describes pioneer life in Colorado. An 224. HODGE, F. W. and T. H. Lewis. Spanish Explorers in the Southern United States, 1528-1543. Austin: Texas State Historical Assn., 1985. [22] 411 [2] pp., frontispiece. 8vo, original half leather over tan cloth. Mint in publisher's slipcase.

$250.00

Limited edition (#40 of 200 copies). Facsimile reprint of the 1907 classic containing the narratives of the first Southwestern explorers, Cabeza de Vaca, De Soto, and Coronado. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 240 & 28C.

$60.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

225. HOLDING, Nannie Emory. A Decade of Mission Life in Mexican Mission Homes. Nashville: Methodist Episcopal Church, 1895. 275 pp., numerous photographic portraits. 8vo, original olive green cloth. Light shelf wear, but generally very good.

First edition. Not in Raines, Palau, Winegarten, etc. An interesting account of Methodist borderlands missions from the founding of the Laredo Seminary in 1879, with excellent documentary photos and biographies of women missionaries on both sides of the border.

$75.00

226. HOLMAN, David and Billie Persons. Buckskin and Homespun: Frontier Texas Clothing, 1820-1870. Austin: Wind River Press, 1979. 130 pp., illustrations, 13 swatches of actual 19th century pioneer Texas homespun tipped in. Folio, original dark brown cloth over woven beige and white cloth. Mint condition.

First edition, limited edition (only 50 copies issued with the textile swatches and in the special binding). This handsomely printed book is the only major study on the evolution of frontier dress in Texas. An outstanding Southwestern press book, exhibiting taste and originality in design and with a genuine scholarly

$1,000.00

227. HOLMES, Julia Archibald. A Bloomer Girl on Pike's Peak 1858...First White Woman to Climb Pike's Peak. Denver: Denver Public Library, 1949. xii, 66 pp., portraits. 8vo, original pink boards, turquoise backstrip, printed paper label on upper cover. Very

First edition, limited edition. Dressed in bloomers and carrying a 17-pound pack, suffragist Holmes reached the 14,110 foot summit on August 5 after 36 days. Not in Neate or Alpine Club Catalogue.

$40.00

228. HOLOHAN, Misses E. & M. Manuscript account book of a millinery business. San Francisco, 424 Kearny, 1863-66, 1869. 133 pp. Oblong 8vo, original brown suede, brown morocco corners, gilt-lettered black morocco spine label. Shelf wear, a few light stains, otherwise fine, with many canceled revenue stamps.

Contains manuscript records of several hundred transactions documenting the millinery business of two sisters in early San Francisco. Millinery was one of the few socially acceptable female career options in the West and, in many respects, was more appealing than other available employment alternatives.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$375.00

229. HOUSTON, Sam. First Texian Loan Scrip. Dated at Houston 20 June, 1838. Folio, engraved broadside, completed in manuscript. Signed by Henry Smith, as Secretary of the Treasury, and Sam Houston, as President, with a very fine example of his flourishing "I am Houston" signature, with rubric below. Exceptionally fine condition.

The rarest form of Texian Loan Scrip, unrecorded by Streeter, Criswell, etc. This scrip, good for 640 acres of Texas land, to be selected by the holder "at any time after the first Thursday in August next," was issued to Thomas D. Carneal of Cincinnati to cover his loan to the financially strapped Texas Republic. See Gouge, The Fiscal History of Texas, Chapter XI.

$3,500.00

230. HOUSTON, Sam. Original autograph letter, signed. To C. H. Randolph, State Treasurer, dated from Executive Office, Austin, November 3, 1860. One page, 4to, sepia ink on ruled paper. Very fine condition.

An exceptional letter in which Houston, as governor of Texas, recommends appropriating the proceeds from university land sales for frontier defense, avoiding the issuance of treasury warrants on which interest would have to be paid. With this letter we include a treasury warrant dated shortly afterward, indicating that Houston's advice apparently was not followed.

$3,000.00

231. HOUSTOUN, Matilda C. Texas and the Gulf of Mexico; or Yachting in the New World... London: Murray, 1844. viii, 314 + viii, 360 pp., 10 lithographed and wood-engraved plates, including city views of Havana, Galveston, and Houston, portrait of Sam Houston, etc. 2 vols., 8vo, publisher's original plain mauve wrappers with dark green cloth backstrips. A very fine copy of this work; the only known copy in the original wrappers.

First edition. Clark III:182. Howes H693. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 97. Raines, p. 230. Streeter 1506: "Mrs. Houstoun, accompanied by her husband, Captain Houstoun of the 10th Hussars, sailed from England...on their yacht the Dolphin in September, 1843, and after stops at the Azores, Barbados, Jamaica and New Orleans, entered Galveston Harbor...This is a pleasant and quite readable account of life at Galveston, with an excursion to the 'up country' of a wealthy English couple in the winter of 1843-1844." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 221. The Texas lithographs will be included in the book on Texas lithographs now in preparation by Tyler and Holman. The "Alpine" Houston view, while apocryphal, may well be the first published view of the city, and served as the prototype for several later views showing the city in the midst of mountains.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$950.00

232. HOUSTOUN, Matilda. Hesperos: or, Travels in the West. London: Parker, 1850. viii, 193 [1]; iii-viii, 279 [1] pp., 2 engraved frontispieces (Indian approaching a family in a covered wagon and Indians embarking in canoe). 12mo, original blue gilt pictorial cloth, spine gilt, a.e.g. An unusually fine, bright copy.

First edition, second issue: sheets of the first edition with new title-pages, plates added, and bound in one volume rather than two. This issue is not noted by the bibliographers--Eberstadt (Texas 162:417) and Howes (H692) record a later edition "circa 1855" without a date on the title. See Streeter (1506) for biographical notes on the author. This work forms an important adjunct to the author's earlier Texas and the Gulf of Mexico (see preceding entry), with three chapters on Texas containing social commentary on the state shortly after annexation and descriptions of Galveston, New $450.00

233. HUMBOLDT, Alexander von. Researches, Concerning the Institutions & Monuments of the Ancient Inhabitants of America... London: Longman, et al., 1814. iv, 411 + [2] 322 pp., engraved titles with views of Cotapaxi and Cholulu, 19 plates, mostly of Mexican and Inca antiquities, including five hand-colored plates from Mexican codices. 2 vols., 8vo, contemporary three-quarter rose morocco over marbled boards, t.e.g. Other than occasional foxing, a fine, handsomely bound

First English edition. Bernal 1787. Glass 672: "Pioneer work with first partial publications of various Mesoamerican pictorial manuscripts." Field 740. Hill, pp. 149-50. Jones, South America Rediscovered, p. 16. Pilling 1872. A classic of American archaeology by the first European to study Mexican antiquities scientifically. Humboldt's researches were the source of inspiration to the first generation of Mesoamericanists, from Kingsborough to Stephens and Catherwood.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$750.00

234. HUNT, Wilson Price. The Overland Diary... Ashland: Oregon Book Society, 1973. xviii, 67 pp., portrait, illustrations, endpaper maps. Royal 8vo, original gilt decorated white cloth, dark green calf spine label. Pristine in white d.j.

First edition in English (the diary was originally published in a French periodical around 1820); limited edition (#502 of 600 copies). Plains & Rockies IV:19n. Hunt, a St. Louis businessman and partner with Astor in the Pacific Fur Company, led the overland expedition to Fort Astoria in 1812. One of the most important of the early overland travel diaries.

$75.00

235. HUTCHINSON, W. H. The Life & Personal Writings of Eugene Manlove Rhodes. A Bar Cross Man. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 1956. xxii, 432 [1] pp. 8vo, original light green cloth. Very fine in d.j. with Koerner drawing.

First edition. Adams, Six-Guns 1095; Herd 1112. Dykes, 44 & 44 58. Contains the life and personal writings of Rhodes along with a checklist of his writings. "Rhodes began as a 'locoed cowboy' poet and ended as the prose laureate of the cattle kingdom" (Powell, Southwest Classics, p. 161).

$40.00

236. ITURBIDE, J. Convocatoria para la provisión de judicaturas de circuito y distrito. Mexico, May 31, 1826. 4 pp. folio folder printed on two pages. Very fine copy with contemporary manuscript notations.

Establishes circuit and district courts throughout the Mexican Republic, including California, New Mexico, and Coahuila y Tejas. The district court for Coahuila y Tejas is designated at "Rio-grande" (San Juan Bautista), a Coahuilatecan location seldom referenced in the Mexican period. Qualified attorneys and others are encouraged to submit credentials. It was probably this decree that attracted the very first attorneys to Texas, such as Thomas Jefferson Chambers.

$175.00

237. JACKSON, Helen Hunt. Ah-wah-ne Days. A Visit to the Yosemite Valley in 1872 by "H.H."... San Francisco: Book Club of California, 1971. 84 pp., 8 color woodcuts by

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Mallett Dean. 8vo, original olive patterned boards, olive cloth backstrip with paper label. Very fine in Limited edition (450 copies). BCC 137. Fine press book containing an account of author's travels with Sarah Woolsey in and around Yosemite in 1872. Originally published in the weekly New York Independent.

$75.00

238. JACKSON, Helen Hunt. Bits of Travel a Home by H. H.... Boston: Roberts Bros, 1878. vi, 413 [1] [4, ads] pp., frontispiece plate of Colorado Springs. 16mo, original brown cloth. Front hinge starting and staining on two pages where a botanical specimen was laid in, withal a very good copy.

First edition, first issue; first edition in book form of author's Ah-wah-ne Days (see preceding entry). BAL 10434. Flake 4300. Not in Howes or Cowan. Contains accounts of author's travels in California, Salt Lake City, Colorado, and New England.

$75.00

239. JACKSON, Helen Hunt]. A Century of Dishonor: A Sketch of the United States Government's Dealings with some of the Indian Tribes... London: Chatto & Windus, 1881. x, 457 [1] 32 (ads) pp. 8vo, original green cloth. Very fine.

First English edition. BAL 10444n. Cowan, p. 857 (citing only the American edition). Rader 2035. Inspired by what Harriet Beecher had done to improve the condition of blacks in the United States, Jackson penned this angry arraignment of the federal government for its conduct of Indian affairs. As a result of this book, the author was asked by the U.S. government to prepare a report on the Mission Indians of Southern California. See Notable American Women II:259-61.

$100.00

240 [JACKSON, HELEN HUNT]. HUFFORD, D. A.]. The Real Ramona of Helen Hunt Jackson's Famous Novel. Los Angeles: Hufford [1900 on verso of title]. [4] 49 pp., numerous plates. 16mo, original charcoal printed wrappers within publisher's original pictorial stiff fibre boards and suede tie. Fragile boards missing small strip at lower left, occasional light staining, overall a very good copy of an uncommon item.

No edition stated; BAL notes that "the earliest copy examined has the statement Third Edition on the copyright page." Presumably, then, this is the first edition. Ramona is identified as Lugardo Sandoval, a California Indian who was raised by the wife of Col. Cave Johnson Coutts.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$100.00

241. JANVIER, Thomas, A. The Aztec Treasure House, a Romance of Contemporaneous Antiquity. New York: Harper, 1890. 446 [2, ads] pp., 19 plates by Frederick Remington. 8vo, original green gilt pictorial cloth. Contemporary ownership inscriptions in ink. Fine.

First edition. BAL 10841. McCracken, p. 124. Peter Parley to Penrod, p. 145. Fantasy novel about archaeologists who discover a lost Aztec city.

$150.00

242. JEFFERSON, Thomas]. An Account of Louisiana being an Abstract of Documents in the Offices of the Departments of State, and of the Treasury. [Philadelphia]: Duane, printer [1803]. 50 pp. 8vo, modern acid-free boards. Fine.

The first official description of the newly acquired Louisiana Territory--the greatest bargain in U.S history, which increased the national territory by 140%. Howes L493. Plains & Rockies IV:2b:9: "The circumstances of the preparation and circulation of this important, first official description of the newly acquired territory are obscure. It is ironic that the acquisition of this vast region that was to have so great effect upon the course of empire should have been heralded by this tattered, badly printed, credulous synthesis of hazy fact and ill-founded rumor." Shaw & Shoemaker 5197. Even though "hazy" in detail and quaintly printed, this report is based on the best available information of the time and gave Americans their first glimpse of the new West. Lewis and Clark began their expedition one year later.

$600.00

243. JOCHELSON, W. History Ethnology and Anthropology of the Aleut. Washington: Carnegie Institute, 1933. [8] 91 pp., photographic illustrations. Small folio, original beige printed wrappers. Very fine.

First edition. Contains translations from the father of Alaska's Zapiski ob ostrovakh (1840), accompanied by scholarly discussion of Ventaminov's observations on the islands of Unalashka. See Lada-Mocarski 111.

$75.00

244. JOHNSON, Laura Winthrop. Eight Hundred Miles in an Ambulance. Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1889. 131 pp.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

12mo, original dark green gilt-lettered cloth. Front hinge strengthened, generally very fine.

First edition. Graff 2220: "An important first-hand account by a perceptive writer. The excursionists started from Cheyenne to visit forts and Indian agencies in Wyoming Territory in 1874." Howes J141. Myres, Following the Drum, p. 9: "Account of a camping trip in the vicinity of Forts Laramie and Fetterman in the summer of 1874. Johnson was not an army wife, but the book includes numerous descriptions of army life and accounts of their cavalry escort."

$150.00

245. JOHNSTON, J. E., et al. Reports of the Secretary of War, with Reconnaissances of Routes from San Antonio to El Paso... Washington: SED64, 1850. 250 pp., 2 large folding maps, 72 lithographed plates (many colored or tinted, some folding). 8vo, three-quarter contemporary dark red hard-grain morocco over marbled boards. Covers neatly reattached and occasional light browning and foxing. Chicago Historical Society duplicate with small ink stamp on title. Very good copy.

First edition. Alliot, p. 119. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books 378. Bradford 2724. Field 1413. Howes J170. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 111: "This is a valuable compendium of reports of government explorations that led to the opening of West Texas to travel and settlement." Meisel III:113. Plains & Rockies IV:184. Rader 2924. Raines, p. 128. Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 64.

$750.00

246. JOUTEL, Henri. Journal historique du dernier voyage que feu M. de la Sale fit dans le Golfe de Mexique... Paris: Robinot, 1713. xxiv, 386 pp., folding engraved map. 12mo, full contemporary calf, neatly rebacked with original gilt spine laid down, corners renewed. Occasional light age-toning and short tear along map fold repaired. Very good condition.

First edition. Bell J127. Church IV:855. Clark I:14. Field 808n. Graff 2251. Harrisse 750. Howes J266. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 114. Jones 149. Lande 477. Raines, p. 230. Streeter 1125n. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 79. Joutel acted as La Salle's second-in-command on the ill-fated expedition of 1684-1687 to establish a French colony at the mouth of the Mississippi River. Of the three first-hand narratives of the expedition, Parkman considered this to be the most trustworthy. In 1682 La Salle descended the Mississippi to its delta, formally claiming the territory for France and naming it Louisiana. Two years later he set sail from France to found a colony there, but missed his mark and landed farther west, at Matagorda Bay, on the Texas coast. From the outset the expedition was plagued by misfortune, and eventually La Salle was murdered by his own men. Joutel and a few survivors subsequently made their way across Texas to the Red and Arkansas Rivers, up the Mississippi to Fort St. Louis on the Illinois River, and from there to Quebec via the Great Lakes. The book constitutes an important, early work on the east Texas region; the French incursion there, though short-lived, was the first European settlement attempted in the area. The handsome map which accompanies the work incorporates the results of La Salle's expeditions and presents a relatively accurate delineation of the Mississippi River and eastern Texas.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$3,750.00

247. JOUTEL, Henri. Joutel's Journal of La Salle's Last Voyage 1684-7... Albany: McDonough, 1906. [8] 158 pp., large folding map, frontispiece of La Salle. Small 4to, original beige cloth over blue boards, printed paper label on upper cover and spine. A unusually fine, uncut Limited edition (#69 Of 500 copies). This is the most scholarly modern edition of the preceding entry, and the first to contain the valuable "Bibliography of the Discovery and Explorations in the Mississippi Valley."

$125.00

248. JUAN Y SANTACILIA, Jorge. Observaciones astronómicas y físicas hechas de orden de S. Mag. en los Reynos del Perti... Madrid: Juan de Zúñiga, 1748. [16] xxviii, 396 [14] pp., title printed in red and black, numerous engraved, folding plates. 4to, original limp vellum. A few old wormholes and occasional light marginal staining (neither of which affects text), otherwise a fine, crisp copy.

First edition. In addition to this separate printing for the scientific community, the book also appeared as the final volume of Juan and Ulloa's four-volume Relación Historic del viage a la América Meridional of the same year. The present book is the most desirable issue of the work, having been more elegantly printed by the great Spanish printer Zúñiga and with more plates than the other issue. Hill, p. 297. Palau 125472. Sabin 36808. A valuable scientific report containing observations of one of the young Spanish naval lieutenants who accompanied the French (La Condamine) expedition to South America in the years 1735-1744 to ascertain the true shape of earth. See Von Hagen (South America Called Them, chapters 1-9), who maintains that it was this expedition that opened South America for investigations by non-Hispanic Europeans.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$750.00

249. KENDALL, George W. Narrative of the Texan Santa Fé Expedition, Comprising a Description of a Tour Through Texas... New York: Harper, 1844. [2] 405 + [2] 406 pp., folding map, 5 plates. 12mo, recent black cloth. Other than occasional foxing, very good condition.

First edition. Field 818. Fifty Texas Rarities 26. Graff 2304. Howes K75. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 116. Plains & Rockies IV:110:1. Rader 2157. Raines p. 131: "No Texas library complete without it." Rittenhouse 347. Streeter 1515. Best account of the Republic of Texas 1841 expedition to divert to Texas part of the Santa Fe Trail and establish Texas jurisdiction over Santa Fe. Without the firing of a single shot, the Texans were captured and force-marched to Mexico.
$275.00

250. KIMBALL, J. P. (translator). Laws and Decrees of the State of Coahuila and Texas, in Spanish and English, to which is added the Constitution of said State, also the Colonization Law... Houston: By Order of the Secretary of State, Telegraph Power Press, 1839. 359 [1] 6 [1] 4 [3] pp., English and Spanish on opposing pages. 8vo, original full calf, expertly rebaked, original spine and red leather label preserved. A few old repairs and the usual browning, but overall a fine copy.

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:461: "An indispensable collection." Library of Congress Exhibition 73. Streeter 310. This very scarce compilation contains the first complete translation into English of the Mexican laws relating to Texas. Very valuable for historical research, the Laws and Decrees contains over 400 individual decrees, many of which are of the greatest rarity in their first printings in Spanish, and a number of which are absolutely unobtainable except in Kimball. This book was indispensable for the practice of law in the Republic of $850.00

251. KIPPIS, Andrew. The Life and Voyages of Captain James Cook. Edinburgh: Thomas Nelson, 1840. viii, 437 pp., engraved title, 6 plates. 32mo, original blue blind-stamped cloth, spine gilt. Small tear on one plate expertly repaired.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Handsome little reprint of the first English biography of Captain Cook, first published in London in 1788. This edition has details on the three voyages that did not appear in the original work. See Hill, pp. 163-64, Howes K179, and Lada-Mocarski 40.

$300.00

252. KROEBER, A. L. Arapaho Dialects. Berkeley: Univ. Calif. Pubs. in Amer. Arch. and Ethn. 12:3, 1916. Pp. 71-138. 4to, original grey printed wrappers. Small tear to wrapper, a little light staining; otherwise fine,

First separate printing. Linguistic study of Plains Indians.

$40.00

253. LANGWORTHY, Asahel]. The Constitution of the Republic of Mexico, and of the State of Coahuila & Texas. Containing also the Laws...Relating to Colonization, with Sundry Other Laws and Documents not before Published, Particularly Relating to...Texas, and the Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company. New York: Ludwig and Tolefree, 1832. 113 pp. 8vo, full antique calf Occasional light foxing and title repaired, but generally

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:478: "An extremely early and important work on Texas, including documents relating to the Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company, the grants to Wilson, Exter, and Dominguez, and a description of the grants made in 1831 to the Arkansas and Texas Land Company. Colonel Langworthy's extensive observations on the resources and commercial advantages of Texas were derived from personal travels there in 1831." Howes C504. Streeter 1130.

$1,250.00

254. LEA, Tom. The Land of the Mustang. [Austin: The Graduate journal VII:2, ca. 1960]. 23 pp., 8 color plates of Lea's paintings tipped in. 8vo, original tan cloth. Mint.

First edition. The eight paintings depict classic subjects of Southwestern history--"Unloading the First Cattle in North America," "Rio Grande," "Texas Longhorns," etc.

$50.00

255. LENZ, H. El papel indigena mexicano... Mexico: Editorial Cultura, 1948. [2] 281 [2] pp., numerous photos and illustrations (many in color) + 11 actual samples of hand-made Mexican papers. Folio, half crimson calf over brightly colored pictorial cloth, raised bands. Very fine in d.j and publisher's case.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Glass, p. 638: "Detailed and copiously illustrated historical and technical study of ancient and modern Mexican Indian papermaking. Identification and microphotographs of the paper fiber of most pictorial manuscripts in MNA codex collection." Griffin 1418: Major work on the native paper of Mesoamerica." This edition contains more samples than in the German or English language editions.

$550.00

256. LE PLONGEON, Augustus. Queen M6o and the Egyptian Sphinx... New York: Published by the Author, 1896. [6] lxx [1] 277 pp., tipped-in photographic frontispiece of the pyramid at Cholula, numerous plates, maps, and text illustrations. Royal 8vo, original dark green gilt pictorial cloth. Other than very light shelf wear, a fine, bright copy.

Second edition. Bernal 10916. Neither the first edition (apparently printed in New York in 1896) nor the present one is listed in Palau. The author presents analogies between the Maya and the ancient civilized nations of Asia, Africa, and Europe.

$150.00

257. LERDO DE TEJADA, S. Memorias ineditas... San Diego, Texas: La Libertad, 1905. [2] 89 [1]; 118 pp., frontispiece portrait. 8vo, contemporary three-quarter tan suede over dark green suede, red morocco spine label. Text browned, else fine, in an unusual binding.

Early edition, originally published in Brownsville, Texas, in 1893. This edition with its Rio Grande Valley imprint is recorded only in NUC, which locates one copy--at Tulane. Griffin 4241 (citing the 1959 edition): "A significant antiporfirista diatribe consisting of the apocryphal memoirs of a former president supposedly written in 1889 while he was in exile in New York. In addition to its role as a political document of its day, the book also serves to represent a biographical study of Lerdo by a contemporary and has helped to fix Lerdo's character in Mexican history."

$150.00

258. LESLIE, Mrs. Frank (Miriam F. Folline). California: A Pleasure Trip from Gotham to the Golden Gate (April, May,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

June, 1877). New York: Carleton, 1877. 8vo, original green cloth stamped in black and gilt. Very fine, bright copy.

First edition. Cowan, p. 389. Cowan-Dunlap, p. 42. Hansen, p. 83. Notable American Women II:393: "In 1877 she was one of the writers and artists on the sumptuous and well-publicized 'Leslie Transcontinental Excursion,' reporting her impression in [this] book still valuable for its picture of Western America in the 1870's." The author, who was the first American publishing mogul of the female sex, includes many interesting observations on women in the West.

$150.00

259. LEWIS, Meriwether and William Clark. History of the Expedition. Pacific Ocean. Philadelphia: Bradford and Inskeep, 1814. xxviii, 470 + x, 522 pp., 6 maps, one of which is the famous large folding map showing the route of the expedition (Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 316: "A great map, a milestone"). 2 vols., 8vo, original full calf, rebacked, original spines and red calf labels preserved. A very good copy with the usual foxing and staining.

First edition. Church 1309. Field 928. Graff 2477. Grolier American Hundred 30: "Most important of all overland narratives." Hill, pp. 376-77: "One of the classics among American travel books." Howes L317: "First authorized and complete account of the most important western exploration." Jones 71. Paltsits, p. lxxvii. Printing and the Mind of Man 272. Smith 5894. Streeter, Americana Beginnings 52. Plains & Rockies IV:13. The most complete edition of this valuable book, which has never been superseded in importance and influence."

$6,500.00

260. LONG, George, et al. America and the West Indies, Geographically Described. London: Knight, 1845. xii, 648 pp., 3 folding engraved maps outlined in color. 8vo, original green embossed cloth. Back hinge strengthened, otherwise fine.

Second and best edition, text revised and with the maps that did not appear in the first edition of 1841. Palau 139759. Sabin 41875. Contains a detailed geographic description of every location in America based on leading authorities of the day, including a chapter on the Republic of Texas. The map of North America shows Texas with the Panhandle extending up to Santa Fe.

$175.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

261. LONG, Haniel. Malinche (Doña Marina). Santa Fe: Rydal Press, 1939. [4] 56 pp. 16mo, original tan cloth, original printed paper labels on spine and upper cover. Fine, with prospectus laid in and author's signed presentation inscription. No d.j.

First edition. Powell, The Book Lover's Southwest, p. 230; Southwest Classics, pp. 117-18. Literary narrative of the Yucatecan slave girl whose services as interpreter made it possible for Cortés to conquer Mexico. Scarce Rydal Press book.

$60.00

262. McDANIELD, H. F. and N. A. Taylor. The Coming Empire; or, Two Thousand Miles in Texas on Horseback. New York, Chicago & New Orleans: Barnes [1877]. 389 [1] [2, ads] pp. 12mo, original brown cloth with gilt-lettered spine and lone star emblem blind-stamped on

First edition. Clark I:140. Howes M81. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 202. Raines, p. 143. "In addition to being the most delightful of all Texas books of travel, [this] book contains the most information on the social conditions of pioneer Texas" (Dobie). Although McDaniel is listed as co-author on the title-page, he was only the financial underwriter.

$200.00

263. McMURTRY, Larry. Terms of Endearment. New York: Simon & Schuster, 1975. 410 pp. 8vo, original beige boards, brown cloth backstrip. Very fine in d.j.

First edition.

$30.00

264. M., C. De la tolerancia, o sea, del culto público en sus relaciones con el gobierno. Morelia: Ignacio Arango, 1847. 124 pp. 16mo, original full blind- and gilt-stamped red calf, spine gilt with green calf label. Very fine.

First edition. Sutro, p. 833. Anonymous treatise on religious tolerance and government, in which the author advises the Mexican people to guard against the introduction of false religions under the guise of religious tolerance and claims that it is the government's responsibility to protect the already existing "true religion." This work was prompted in part by the attempt of the American and Foreign Christian Union to introduce Protestantism into Mexico. See Item

$100.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

265. MADERO, Francisco I. La sucesión presidencial en 1910... San Pedro, Coahuila, 1908. [2] 357 pp. 12mo, original red cloth over green marbled boards. A fine copy of an extremely scarce book.

First edition. Ramos 952. A key Mexican book, thought by many scholars to have sparked the Mexican Revolution.

$250.00

266. MAGOFFIN, Susan S. Down the Santa Fé Trail and into Mexico...1846-1847. New Haven: Yale University Press, 1926. xxvi, 294 pp., frontispiece portrait, plates. 8vo, original navy blue cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Dobie, p. 77: "Delectable diary." Graff 2656: "One of the great Santa Fé Trail diaries." Howes M211. Hubach, p. 1104. Matthews, p. 304. Powell, p. 93: "The author's husband took her along on his mysterious diplomatic mission to persuade Armijo, governor of New Mexico, to yield to the Army of the West without a battle. A most delightful book on the old Santa Fé Trail, and the only good one by a bride." Rader 2331.

Rittenhouse 392.

$125.00

267. MANJE, Juan M. Unknown Arizona and Sonora 1693-1721...Luz de Tierra Incógnita... Tucson: Arizona Silhouettes, 1954. [2] xxx, 303 pp., maps and illustrations. 8vo, original full cowhide. Very fine.

First edition in English, limited edition (1,500 copies printed, this being #34 of 50 special copies in deluxe binding). The manuscript written in 1716 was first published in Spanish at Mexico City in 1926. Travel diary of the pioneer journeys of Southwestern exploration made from 1694 to 1701 by Kino and his right-hand man, Manje. See Wagner, Spanish Southwest 128n.

$125.00

268 [MAP]. BYRNE, A. T. Mapa de la República de Honduras... New York: G. W. & C. B. Colton, 1886. Engraved map with borders outlined in bright colors, other color highlights added. 21 x 32 inches, folded into original 12mo black gilt-lettered cloth folder. A remarkably fine copy.

First edition. Phillips, p. 320. The most detailed map of Honduras up to that time. Of geological interest are colored markings indicating developed and undeveloped mineral resources.

$350.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

269 [MAP]. CAREY, M. Mexico or New Spain. [Philadelphia, 1814]. Engraved map with boundaries in colors. 17-1/2 x 15-1/4 inches. A very fine copy.

Day, Maps of Texas, p. 11: "Shows towns, provinces, intendencies, rivers, mountains, location of Indian tribes. Texas as a province of the Intendency of San Luis Potosi." Phillips 722. Contains one of the smallest configurations of Texas, with the boundary running from the mouth of the Nueces to the headwaters of the Guadalupe, thence northeast and east approximately at the 32nd parallel to the Sabine. Also contains a detailed inset of Central America and the Isthmus of 270 [MAP]. COLTON, J. H. Texas. New York: Colton, 1857. Engraved pocket map with boundary and counties in colors, ornate border. 14-1/4 x 16-1/2 inches. Folded into original 32mo brown cloth folder. Moderately worn with tears at folds neatly mended.
$400.00

This is the De Cordova map as issued by Colton after he purchased the copyright (see Martin & Martin 39). Shows counties, towns, roads, railroads, rivers, mountains, German settlements, etc. With insets of Sabine Lake and Galveston Bay. There are few pocket maps showing only the state of Texas.
$650.00

271 [MAP]. DEFER, Nicolas. Les costes aux environs de la rivière de Misisipi... Paris, 1701. Engraved map with pictorial cartouche depicting the death of La Salle in Texas in 1687. Measures 8-1/2 x 13 inches. Very fine, matted.

First edition, first issue. Day, 1458. Lowery 251. Martin & Martin, Maps of Texas and the Southwest, Color Plate 11, Plate 13 & p. 91: "The primary purpose [of de Fer's map] was clearly to show the progress the French were making in exploring their vast claim in North America, particularly in the explorations of La Salle and those of Pierre le Moyne, Sieur d'Iberville who, along with his brother Jean Baptiste, explored the coastlines of present-day Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, and Florida." Phillips, Atlases 532.
$600.00

272 [MAP]. RANNEY, Adolphus (publisher). Map of the United States. New York: 1854. Wood-engraved pocket map in colors with ornate border, woodcuts of train, ships,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

American eagle and flag. Measures 22-1/2 x 30 inches. Folded into original 16mo brown cloth folder. Spine of cloth folder neatly repaired; the map itself very fine condition, with Streeter's and Eberstadt's notes.

Unrecorded by Phillips, Modelski, etc. A fine, large map showing railroads, Santa Fe Trail, Indian tribes, routes to California, etc. This map shows the boundaries of Oregon and Washington Territories after the organization of Washington Territory in 1853, and before Oregon became a state in 1859, when the eastern portion of the territory was transferred to Washington Territory. The Territory of Utah is shown with the original boundaries to the Rocky Mountains, including a large part of what is now Colorado. $500.00

273 [MAP]. TYLER, John. Message from the President... Proceedings of the Commissioner Appointed to run the Boundary Line between the U.S. and the Republic of Texas. Washington: SD199, 1843. 74 [5] pp., 6 folding maps. 8vo, recent half dark brown morocco. Very fine.

First edition. Streeter (1432) calls the maps in this report "the most important in Texas history, in that they show the final boundary between the Texas and the U.S. from the Gulf of Mexico to the Red River" and says that the book is one of the most important for a Texas collection. The text contains the correspondence and negotiations between the Republic of Texas and the American commissioners. Included is a three-foot long map of the Sabine River. $650.00

274. MARCY, R. B. Exploration of the Red River of Louisiana in the Year 1852... Washington: SED, 1854. xvi, 310 pp., 65 lithographed plates (a few with tinted grounds), 2 folding maps. 2 vols., 8vo, original blind-stamped cloth. The large folding maps are browned as usual, with tape repairs at folds; other than this, a fine set.

Second edition, Senate issue (first printing was Senate Document 54 in 1853). Clark III:354. Howes M276. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 135A. Meisel III, p. 144. Pilling 2471n. Plains & Rockies IV:226:2. Rader 2346n. One of the best 19th century accounts of exploration of Texas, containing Marcy's official report of his expedition to the headwaters of the Red and Canadian Rivers in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. Marcy's report gives the first accurate description of the region, and is important for its observations of the Indian tribes he encountered. Several of the plates will be included in the forthcoming book by Holman and Tyler.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$250.00

275. MARGIL DE JESÚS, Fr. Antonio]. Fuentes para sus apuntes biográficos... Querétaro, 1932. 62 pp., frontispiece portrait. 16mo, original yellow printed wrappers. Fragile wrappers mended.

First edition. Contains: first, an excerpt from Arricivita concerning the history of the Colegio de la Santa Cruz de Querétaro; second, Vilaplana's biography of Fray Margil; third, a Spanish translation of the nomination for sainthood of Margil.

$75.00

276. MARISCHAL, F. E. Estudio arquitectónico de las ruinas Mayas, Yucatán y Campeche... Mexico: Talleres Gráficos de la Nación, 1928. [2] 109 [2] pp., numerous photographs and plans. Oblong folio, original beige printed wrappers. Light shelf wear, interior very fine.

First edition. Palau 152254. An excellent study of the ruins of Yucatan and Campeche, which raised consciousness of the importance of preserving the remains of the Maya civilization. Very scarce.

$125.00

277. MARKOV, A. I. Russkie na Vostochnom Okeanie. Vostochnaia Sibirj. Rossiiskii vladieniia v Amerikie. Ryt dikarei. Kaliforniia. Proekt krugosvietnoi torgovoi ekspeditsii. [The Russians on the Pacific Ocean. Eastern Siberia. Russian Possessions in America. Condition of the Natives. California. Plan for a Trading Expedition round the World]. Moscow: University Press, 1849. ii, 148 pp. 8vo, original printed wrappers bound in contemporary Russian calf gilt. One inch of upper blank corner of front wrapper supplied in sympathetic paper. A very fine copy of an exceedingly

First edition. Bancroft, California IV, p. 567. Cowan, p. 416 (citing only the second edition of 1856). Lada-Mocarski 133: "Markov's description of the voyage and stay in California...occupies the larger part of the book." Libros Californianos, p. 29 (on the Dawson-Howell list of the 20 rarest books on California). Smith 6529. Wickersham 5801. Not in Hill, but should be. The Russian author, who sailed on the Russian-American Company vessel "Naslednik" to San Francisco in 1845, gives a good description of the colorful life in California in the last year of Mexican occupation. Of more than passing interest are Markov's observations on the cattle industry in California, vaqueros capturing grizzly bears, agricultural practices, Indian life, fur trade, social life of pastoral California, and much more.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$2,500.00

278. MARKOVA, I. The Russians on the Pacific Ocean...The Ivan Petroff Translation... Los Angeles: Dawson, 1955. xvii, 65 [2] pp. 12mo, original rose decorated boards, black cloth backstrip. Very fine.

First edition in English of preceding entry; limited edition (300 copies).

$75.00

279. MARSH, Roswell. Hemp-Cannibis(sic)-Sativa. N.p., ca. 1875. One page 4to broadside. Center crease where folded, otherwise fine.

First printing. Urges cultivation of Cannabis sativa in the U.S. in order to strengthen the Navy and merchant marine by eliminating the need to import hemp.

$40.00

280 [MARTÍNEZ, MARÍA]. BENKERT, Wm. R. (artist). Original oil painting of María Martínez in rich earth tones, measuring 29-1/2 x 40 inches. [Santa Fe, 1970's]. Very fine condition.

One of the few extant oil paintings of the celebrated native American potter who works in the northern Rio Grande valley of New Mexico. Her pots are avidly collected by museums and private individuals.

$2,500.00

281 [MARTÍNEZ, MARÍA]. HYDE, Hazel. María Making Pottery. Santa Fe: The Sunstone Press, 1973. 27 pp., photographs showing María making her pottery. Oblong 8vo, original black and yellow pictorial wrappers. Very

First edition.

$20.00

282 [MARTÍNEZ, MARÍA]. MARRIOTT, Alice. María: the Potter of San Ildefonso. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 1948. xxi, 294 [2] pp., illustrated. 8vo, original dark blue blind-stamped cloth. Very fine in dj.

First edition. The life story of the legendary Kiowa potter.

$40.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

283 [MARTÍNEZ, MARÍA]. PETERSON, Susan. María Martínez Five Generations of Potters. Washington: Smithsonian Institution Press, 1978. 48 pp., frontispiece portrait, numerous photographs. Small folio, original black pictorial wrappers lettered in orange. Very fine.

First edition. Annotated catalogue of an exhibit held at the Smithsonian.

$40.00

284. MARX, Karl and Friederich Engels. Manifesto of the Communist Party. New York: Rydal Press for Arrow Editions, 1933. [4] 62 [2] pp. 8vo, original red cloth over paper boards. Insignificant outer wear, overall very fine.

Limited edition (500 copies). Finely printed edition of Engels' 1888 translation into English. Adams, Radical Literature in America, p. 50: "The most famous single document in the history of revolutionary socialism." Downs, Books that Changed our Minds, p. 16. Printing and the Mind of Man 326. Commissioned in New York, but printed in New Mexico by Rydal Press shortly after their move to Santa Fe.

$45.00

285. MASON, J. Alden. The Mutsun Dialect of Costanoan Based on the Vocabulary of De la Cuesta. Berkeley: Univ. Cal. Pubs. Amer. Arch. & Ethn. II:7, 1916. Pp. 399-472. 8vo, original grey-green printed wrappers. Very fine, uncut copy.

First separate printing. Vocabulary and grammar of the Mutsun Indians who resided in the vicinity of San Juan Bautista Mission, Monterey, California.

$40.00

286. MAUDSLAY, A. P. and Anne. Biologia Centrali-Americana; or, Contributions to the Knowledge of the Fauna and Flora of Mexico and Central America. Archaeology... [and] A Glimpse at Guatemala, and Some Notes on the Ancient Monuments of Central America... London, 1889-1902. Text of first work: [4] viii, 69 [1]; [4] 47 [1]; [4] 50; [4] 38; [2] ix [3] 149 [114] pp., photogravures and text illustrations. 4 vols. in one, folio, original printed wrappers bound in near contemporary three-quarter black cloth over marbled boards. Atlas of first work: [4] pp., 119 plates; [4] pp., 95 plates; [4] pp., 82 plates; [4] pp., plates (some plates and maps colored or folding, mostly sepia tone photogravures). 4 vols., oblong folio, original printed wrappers bound in near contemporary three-quarter black cloth over marbled boards. Atlas and text with perforated stamps of the Hill Library on titles, white call numbers on spines, and a few small ink stamps (none on plates), otherwise very fine condition, uncut, the plates very fine. Second work: [2] xx, 289 pp., maps, plates (some colored or folding, mostly sepia tone photogravures). Large 4to, original white buckram over beige decorated boards. Fragile binding expertly restored, interior excellent.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First editions. Griffin 1188 (first work): "Remains a monument in Mesoamerican archaeology, and most of its photographs are unsurpassed to this day;" 1189 (second work): "Charming narrative of the Maudslays' early travels in the Guatemala highlands and the Maya lowlands." Larned 4011 (second work): "An elaborate and beautiful book...The complete results of his seven expeditions are published in the costly Biologia Centrali-Americana. In the present volume, Mrs. Maudslay...describes the country and the people, and explains what has been accomplished by the scientific investigations... This volume is easily worth all the other books which have appeared or are likely to be published for many years, as a guide to the things which make Central America of general world interest. " Palau 158502 & 158504. The Maudslays' 1881-1894 explorations of the Maya sites accomplished more than any of the earlier expeditions and paved the way for a program of systematic investigation. Both works contain a profusion of unsurpassed photogravures of Central America and its archaeological remains. It is exceedingly difficult to obtain a complete set of this monumental work.

287. MAURELLE, F. A. Journal of a Voyage in 1775. To Explore the Coast of America, Northward of California... [London: J. Nichols, 1781]. [74] pp. (numbered 469-534), map. Small folio, recent blue boards, brown cloth backstrip, gilt-lettered label on spine. Very First edition. Extracted from Barrington, Miscellanies (1781). Cowan, p. 420. Howes B177. Hill, pp. 13-14. Lada-Mocarski 34. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 164. This account of Maurelle's voyage is the only contemporary source in English, except for a rare separate publication which may be only an offprint of the present work. Maurelle was the second pilot on the Bodega-Heceta voyage that was sent by Viceroy Bucareli to explore the coast north of California. His account describes the discoveries made as far north as the 58th parallel, and includes a map showing the coast from San Blas to Cape St. Elias in Alaska.

$250.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

288. MAXIMILIAN (Emperor of Mexico)]. Three original 19th century manuscripts: "Los ultimos dias del imperio megicano" (56 pp.) [with] "Correspondencia de Trieste, en que se dan noticias del infortunado emperador de Méjico Maximiliano" (14 pp.) [and] "Noticias copiadas de los periódicos acerca del fusilamiento en Querétaro del emperador de Méjico Maximiliano el dia 19 del año 1867" (29 pp.).. 3 vols., 8vo, half dark brown antique morocco, blind-stamped spine with red calf labels and raised bands. Excellent condition, written in an attractive, legible hand.

The manuscripts contain a narrative of the very last days and hours of Maximilian and contemporary accounts of his execution as reported in Trieste and Mexico.

$1,500.00

$5,500.00289. MAYER, William. Early Travellers in Mexico, 1534 to 1816. Mexico, 1961. [8] x, 176 [1] pp., folding maps and illustrations. 8vo, original beige cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Experiences of foreigners in Mexico, from Coronado to Humboldt.

$45.00

290. MEDINA, J. T. La Literatura femenina en Chile (Notas Bibliográficas y en Parte Criticas). Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Universitaria, 1923. xv, 334 [3] pp. 8vo, contemporary three-quarter Chilean mottled sheep, spine with raised bands and dark brown leather labels. Fine. Scarce.

First edition. Scholarly history and bibliography of feminine literature in Chile--divided into sections on poetry, religion, translations, pedagogy, novels, voyages, medicine, science, pharmacy, etc.

$125.00

291. MENKEN, Adah Isaacs. Infelicia. Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1902. [4] [ii]-xiv, [7]-126 pp., frontispiece portrait, plate. 12mo, original blue gilt decorated cloth. Very fine.

Finely printed edition of Menken's poetry, containing a biography that did not appear in the exceedingly rare first edition printed in 1868. Menken dedicates the book to Charles Dickens. In the 1860's she was active in the circle of Dickens, Swinbourne, Dumas, etc. Very scarce.

$75.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

292 [MENKEN, ADAH ISAACS]. JAMES, Edward. Biography of Adah Isaacs Menken... New York: "Private Distribution," 1869. 24 pp., plates. 16mo, fine binding of three-quarter rose morocco over rose boards, spine extra gilt with raised bands, t.e.g. A very fine copy, extra illustrated, with several engraved portraits and 7 vintage photographs (the suppressed ones of Menken and Dumas plus glamour shots of Menken scantily clad).

First edition. Rare biography of the legendary actress and poet, whose daring stage act made her a sensation of the Victorian age. Her background is obscure, but it is said that she was born in Nacogdoches and spent several years in Texas. "Later generations find Adah Isaacs Menken a symbol for something in the human psyche straining for liberation against Victorian repression" (Notable American Women II:526-29); see also Abernethy Legendary Ladies of Texas (pp. 84-93) and Handbook of Texas (II: 174).

$750.00

293 [MESOAMERICA].. The Edwin Shook library; a comprehensive Mesoamerican anthropological and Latin American research library containing about 28,000

The most thoroughly covered area is the Maya and Mesoamerican, in the following order of strength: 1. Anthropology (archaeology, hieroglyphic writing, codices, ethnology, linguistics, etc.); 2. History (Spanish conquest, colonial, and modern); 3. Art and architecture (Pre-Columbian, Spanish colonial, and modern); 4. Ecology, natural history, exploration, travel, etc.; 5. Agriculture, economics, statistics, politics, literature, etc. The collection includes mostly out-of-print material along with many rare items. Approximately 50% is in Spanish and 40% is in English. This library was built by a leading Mesoamerican scholar and archaeologist.

$400,000.

00

294 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. HENRY, W. S. Apuntes de campaña en la guerra con México. Mexico: La Voz de Religion, 1848. 128 pp. (lacking last page of text), 2 lithographic plates (views of Corpus Christi and Fuerte Brown, i.e., Brownsville). 8vo, original blue marbled wrappers. Wrapper and first few leaves torn (not affecting text), otherwise very fine, crisp condition; the two rare Texas plates are in excellent condition.

First Mexican edition. Unrecorded in NUC and the standard bibliographies. Haferkorn (p. 113), Howes (H429), and Palau (113108) note only the U.S. editions. An excellent journal of Taylor's operations from July, 1845, to June, 1847, with a great deal on South Texas. The lithographs of Corpus Christi and Brownsville, which are among the very earliest views of these cities, will be included in Holman and Tyler's forthcoming book on Texas lithographs.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$750.00

295 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. IRIARTE, Francisco S. Defensa pronunciada ante el Gran jurado...por Francisco Suárez Iriarte, acusado de los crímenes de sedición contra el Gobierno de Querétaro é infidencia contra la patria... Mexico: Rafael, 1850. vi, 147 pp., folding map of Mexico after Smith and Hardcastle. 8vo, original beige printed wrappers, sewn. Marginal dust-soiling to wrappers, otherwise fine.

First edition. Sabin 35066. Not in Palau or Mexican War bibliographies. Iriarte defends himself against charges of sedition against Mexico during the American invasion. Rare.

$450.00

296 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. RIVES, George L. The United States and Mexico 1821-1848. New York: Scribner's, 1913. viii [2] 720 + vi [2] 726 pp., maps. 2 vols., 8vo, original navy blue cloth. A very fine,

First edition. Haferkorn, p. 7: "A judicious and comprehensive narration of the relations of the U.S. and Mexico, commencing with the Florida Treaty of 1819 and ending with the peace of 1848...Shows a full appreciation of the Mexican point of view." Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 177: "One of the fundamental studies of the Texas question and its effect on Mexican-American relations."

$250.00

297 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. ROA BARCENA, J. M. Recuerdos de la invasión norteamericana 1846-1848... Mexico: V. Agüeros, 1901-02. [2] 656 + [2] 636 pp. 2 vols., 16mo, original Mexican sheep, spines with raised bands and red morocco spine labels. Very light shelf wear, else a fine set, handsomely bound.

Second edition (original edition, Mexico, 1883). Griffin 4145: "The most impartial, detailed, complete, and well-written account on the North American invasion. Roa Barcena's thesis is that defending Mexican forces did not give such a bad account of themselves." Haferkorn, p. 17.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Howes R333. Palau 270660. Tutorow 3672: "The standard history of the Mexican War from the Mexican perspective."
$125.00

298 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. SANTA ANNA, Antonio López de. Apelación al buen criterio de los nacionales y extranjeros... Mexico: Cumplido, 1849. [8] 184 pp. 8vo, original Mexican calf, spine gilt with black calf label. Binding worn, front hinge strengthened, title and first few leaves waterstained. Fair copy only, with ex-library ink stamps of the Alzate Library.

First edition. Tutorow 3288: "Santa Anna's defense of his conduct of the war in answer to charges made against him by Ramon Gamboa. Contains many documents not available elsewhere." Very scarce and important.
$150.00

299 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. SANTA ANNA, Antonio López de. The President of the Mexican Republic to the Troops Engaged in the Army of the United States of America. [Mexico, 1847]. Broadside (9-1/2 x 6-1/2 inches). Light stain on lower blank corner and small piece of upper corner lacking, otherwise a fine copy.

First edition. Patterson, p. 115. Not in Graff, Howes, Palau and other standard references. A very ephemeral propaganda leaflet appealing to U.S. troops to desert to the Mexican cause, offering as inducements, "rich fields and large tracts of land" and stating that "the Mexican Nation only look upon you as some deceived foreigners and hereby stretch out to you a friendly hand [and] offer to you the felicity and fertility of their territory." The U.S. soldiers are invited to apply directly to Santa Anna, who issued the order at his General Quarters in the Peñon, August 15, 1847.
$1,000.00

300 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR].. A Sketch of the Life and Character of Gen. Taylor...together with a Concise History of the Mexican War... Remarkable Bravery and Humanity of an American Woman connected with the Army...By the One-Legged Sergeant... Boston: J. B. Hall, 1847. 34 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original maize pictorial wrappers. Lacks back wrapper, else fine.

First edition. Howes T80. Tutorow 3729. Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 105. Much of Texas interest, including material on the Texas Rangers and "the Heroine of Fort Brown." The latter reference is to Sarah Borginnis, the 6' 2" Amazon who became known as

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

"The Great Western" for her outstanding feats of bravery performed in several battles of the war. See Handbook of Texas III:96-97. The present work is one of the few contemporary sources on this remarkable $225.00

301 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. TAYLOR, Z. Official Dispatches from General Taylor. Washington: HRED207, May 27, 1846. 7 pp. 8vo, modern wrappers. Slightly
First edition. One of the earliest reports from the front, containing the first accounts of the initial battles of the Mexican War, including the battles of Resaca de la Palma and Palo Alto and dispatches from Point Isabel, Texas and Camp on the Rio Bravo (Rio Grande), near Matamoros.
$75.00

302 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. TYLER, Ron C. The Mexican War. A Lithographic Record. Austin: Texas State Historical Association, 1973. [14] 90 pp., numerous illustrations (many colored) + portfolio of additional colored plates. 8vo, original green pictorial boards, black cloth backstrip, printed paper spine label. Very fine, in publisher's slipcase, signed by author, editor, and designer.
First edition, limited edition (210 copies printed). Scholarly study, handsomely designed by William R.
$100.00

303 [MEXICAN-AMERICAN WAR]. VIGIL Y ROBLES, Guillermo. La Invasión de México por los Estados Unidos en los años 1846, 1847 y 1848. Mexico, 1923. 111 pp. 8vo, original tan printed wrappers. Very good.
First edition. Tutorow 3292. Military history of the Mexican War from the Mexican viewpoint.
$35.00

304 [MEXICAN LAWS]. ARRILLAGA, Basilio de (compiler). Recopilación de leyes, decretos, bandos, reglamentos, circulares y providencias de los supremos poderes y otras autoridades de la república Mexicana [Title varies]. Mexico, 1829-39. 115 vols., each volume complete, 8vo, full original matching Mexican tree sheep, spines gilt with red and black morocco labels. Remarkably fine, original condition.

A long run of the compiled laws of Mexico from the first session as a newly independent country through 1837. Besides its obvious intrinsic importance to the study of the early history of independent Mexico, this set is of the highest importance for the study of the Southwest U.S., as it contains the decrees and laws of Texas, New Mexico, and California before they became part of the United States. Among the outstanding laws included are the Reglamento para el gobierno de la provincia de Californias first published in Mexico in 1784 (see Cowan, p. 526, Wagner, Spanish Southwest 166, and Zamorano Eighty 62); secularization of the California missions; the colonization law of Coahuila y Tejas that opened Texas to Anglo settlement; and hundreds of decrees that relate to Texas and the Southwest which are not found elsewhere. This compilation was one of Streeter's primary sources for the preparation of his bibliography on Texas. Occasionally individual volumes come on the market, but they are usually rebound or in poor condition. It would take years to build a set like the present one, which is probably the finest in existence.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$7,500.00

305 [MEXICAN LAWS].. Bound volume containing over 250 separately issued bandos, decrees, and broadsides from the government of the Federal District dating from 5 January 1829 to 7 June 1831. Many are signed with autograph rubrics of Mexican officials, such as Tornel, the political genius behind Santa Anna. Small folio, original Mexican leather. Binding moderately worn and text stained, but overall a remarkable assemblage of decrees.

First printings. Includes, for example, several important decrees relating to Texas, California, and New Mexico; the decree nullifying the votes cast for General Gomez Pedraza for the presidency and announcing the election of Vicente Guerrero as president and Anastasio Bustamante as vice president; a hand-written decree issued March 31, 1830, extending for seven years the law of July 19, 1823, which exempts the territory of New Mexico from paying taxes on the sale and manufacture of native products; and several circulars issued by the minister of the treasury, Lorenzo de Zavala, the great Mexican republican who later became the first vice-president of the Republic of Texas (this is the first time we have seen any of Zavala's separately printed decrees).
$2,500.00

306 [MEXICO].. Album de la Casa de Mier en Tacubaya. [Mexico, 1884]. 21 tinted lithographs + plan. Oblong folio, original half Mexican calf over gilt-lettered green boards. Other than marginal foxing not affecting images, a very fine copy.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Not listed by Palau, Mathes, Toussaint, etc. This unrecorded Mexican plate book contains beautiful views of an elegant estate in Tacubaya. It was probably done in only a very small edition for the $1,000.00

307. MILL, John Stuart. The Subjection of Women. Philadelphia: Lippincott, 1869. 174 [6] pp. 8vo, original plum cloth. Text a little browned, but generally fine.

First edition. The classical theoretical statement of the case for women's suffrage. See Printing and the Mind of Man 345 & 398.

$175.00

308. MILLER, T. L. Bounty and Donation Land Grants of Texas 1835-1888. Austin & London: University of Texas Press [1967]. xiv, 894 pp. 4to, original charcoal cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 144: "This work is the most important published guide to early military service records in Texas."

$65.00

309. MOLLHAUSEN, B. Diary of a Journey from the Mississippi to the Coasts of the Pacific... London: Longmans & Roberts, 1858. xxxii, 352 + xii, 398 pp., folding map, 11 chromolithographed plates. 2 vols., 8vo, original cloth. Some outer wear, interior fine.

First edition in English. Graff 2849. Howes M713. Plains & Rockies IV:305. Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 956. The best account of Whipple's expedition to survey a railroad route to the Pacific, by the party's naturalist and artist. The text contains excellent descriptions of Indian life. Goetzmann (Army Exploration, p. 310) calls this book "one of the best travel books of the age" and notes that the author earned the well-deserved title of "the German Fenimore Cooper." One of the classic accounts of the American West, with an introduction by Alexander von Humboldt.

$1,250.00

310. MOORE, Madeline. The Lady Lieutenant. A Wonderful Startling and Thrilling Narrative of the Adventures of Miss Madeline Moore, who, in order to be near her lover, joined the Army, was elected Lieutenant, and fought in Western Virginia... Philadelphia: Barclay, 1862. 40 pp., 3 engraved plates. 8vo, protective

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Howes (M776) dismisses this account as "sheer romance." The author claims to have served under General McClellan and fought at the Battle of Bull Run.
$175.00

311. MORALES, Juan Bautista]. El gallo pitagórico. Mexico: Cumplido, 1845. 280 [1] [6, list of lithographs available from Cumplido's establishment] pp., frontispiece portrait of author, 18 satirical lithographs, text cuts. 8vo, full contemporary crimson Mexican calf gilt. Light wear to handsome binding and moderate staining to text, still a very good copy of a

First edition. Mathes, Mexico on Stone, p. 23: "The great work of Cumplido in 1845 was El Gallo Pitagórico. Combining Cumplido's typography, Juan Bautista Morales's political satire and the excellent lithographs of Heredia, Iriarte and newcomer Plácido Blanco, this was the first major work to be illustrated with political caricatures. Such caricatures would later become the principal subject for lithographers." Palau 180849. Toussaint, La litografía en México, p. xx & plates 25 & 26. A milestone in the evolution of Mexican art and 312. MORFI, Juan Augustin. La nobleza, y piedad de los montañeses, demostrada por el smo. Cristo de Burgos. Sermon...México el día de 3. de Mayo de 1775... Mexico: Joseph de Jauregui [1775]. [40] 37 pp., title in red and black, with an engraving of the Christ of Burgos on the first page. Folio, protective wrappers. A few small worm holes affecting only a few letters on the first few leaves, else fine.
$575.00

First edition. Medina 5830 (1775). Palau 182924 (1776). This sermon by the future first historian of Texas was delivered two years before he accompanied the Croix inspection of the Provincias Internas, which went through Texas. The sermon prophetically encourages missionary enterprises to the frontier to minister to the Indians. A very handsome Mexican imprint.
$500.00

313. MURRAY, Mrs. Lois L. Incidents of Frontier Life... Goshen: United Mennonite Publishing House, 1880. 274 pp., . frontispiece portrait, one plate. 8vo, original red cloth. Spine and corners lightly rubbed.

First edition. Banta, Indiana Authors, p. 233. Eberstadt 106:240: "An out-of-the-way and faithful narrative of 18 years' life and adventure on the Kansas plans in the early days. Contains much on the Indians." Graff 2940. Howes M918: "Scarce but uninspiring." The account includes Indian depredations, storms, droughts, Texans and Mexicans on the Santa Fe trail, etc. Considerably more interesting than the Howes disclaimer would lead one to believe, and a scarce Mennonite $150.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

314. MYRICK, Herbert. Cache la Poudre. The Romance of a Tenderfoot in the Days of Custer. New York and London, 1905. 202 pp., numerous plates and illustrations by Schreyvogel, Deming, and Fangel, along with many interesting documentary photographs. 4to, original Indian-tanned, fringed buckskin. Light offsetting to title, else fine.

First edition, limited edition (500 copies). Adams, Herd 1596 ("rare"). Dustin 476. Dykes, High Spots of Western Illustrating: "Now scarce and expensive." Merrill, Aristocrats of the Cow Country, p. 22. A unique production, consisting of well-illustrated fiction with documentary photographs of real characters of the old West and cowboy life, in a most unusual binding. $500.00

315. NEWCOMB, W. W., Jr. The Rock Art of Texas Indians. Austin and London: University of Texas Press, 1967. xiv, 239 pp., numerous illustrations and text figures (32 in color). Folio, original grey decorated cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition of the premier study on the prehistoric art of Texas, with examples of diverse styles, locales, and periods. Very scarce. $100.00

316. NEWMAN, John B. Texas and Mexico, in 1846... New York: Wellman, 1846. 32 pp., folding map with original coloring consisting of American flag across Texas, which is outlined in yellow. 8vo, original brown printed wrappers. Light marginal chipping to fragile wrappers, upper blank corner of map repaired, otherwise a fine copy of a very rare book.

First edition. Eberstadt, Texas 162:567: "Contains a violently anti-war editorial denouncing the idea that 'Texas rightfully extends to the Rio Grande.' The map is more patriotic, however, having a large American flag planted directly on Point Isabel." Howes N122. Rader 2480. $1,250.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

317 [NICARAGUA CANAL]. MENOCAL, A. G. Discussion upon Inter-Oceanic Canal Projects, also Additional Information Obtained by Recent Surveys in Nicaragua. N.p., 1880. With this are bound about 20 other 19th century pamphlets on the Nicaragua Canal, many with maps and illustrations. 8vo, three-quarter red morocco. U.S. Department of State duplicate, with their bookplates and occasional stamps. Some maps and leaves chipped due to the poor paper on which they were printed, but overall a very good copy of a unique collection.

Includes several unrecorded imprints. Detailed listing upon request.
$500.00

318. O'KEEFE, Georgia. Georgia O'Keefe. New York: Viking [1976]. [214] pp., portrait, 108 color plates of O'Keefe's paintings. Tall folio, original white linen. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Monograph on the great American artist whose images of the Southwest remain unsurpassed.
$350.00

319. OLMSTED, Frederick, L. A Journey through Texas; or, a Saddle-trip on the Southwestern Frontier... New York: Dix, Edwards & Co., 1857. xxxiv, 516 pp., with folding map by Colton. 12mo, original brown cloth. Binding worn and front hinge cracked--a scruffy but respectable copy of a book difficult to find in collector's condition.

First edition. Dobie, p. 52. Graff 3097. Greene, The Fifty Best Books on Texas, p. 45. Howes 079. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 157: "The most civilized of all 19th century books on Texas, this is also the most interesting and the most dependable." Raines, p. 159: "No better book yet written on travels in Texas." A perceptive and intelligent report in which Olmsted comments, "Austin [is the] pleasantest place we have seen in Texas."
$200.00

320 [OREGON].. Memorial of Citizens of the United States, Residing in the Territory of Oregon, Praying for the Establishment of a Distinct Territorial Government... Washington: HD3, 1845. 5 pp., uncut. Very fine.

First edition.
$40.00

321 [OROVILLE, CALIFORNIA].. Manuscript account book of a mining venture. Oroville, 1854. 28 pp. in original 32mo leather bound book with ruled paper. Legibly written in ink and pencil. Very fine condition.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

The account book records the agreement of seven miners "to test whether deeper strata of pay dirt can be found on the Bluff" and their subsequent transactions. Contains interesting details that bring the mining era to $75.00

322. ORPEN, Adelia, E. Memories of the Old Emigrant Days in Kansas, 1862-1865... Edinburgh and London: Blackwood, 1926. ix [3] 324 pp., 3 portraits of author. 8vo, original blue cloth. An unusually fine copy.

First edition. Not in Howes, Adams, etc. The author emigrated to Mound City, Kansas in 1862, and gives an account of pioneer farm and ranch life on the prairie. Includes a first-hand report of the jayhawkers. $75.00 323. ORTEGA, José]. Apostólicos afanes de la Compañía de Jesus... Barcelona: Pablo Nadal, 1754. [12] 452 [10, table and errata] pp. Small 4to, contemporary vellum (a little soiled and lacking one tie). Some marginal worming throughout, including about 30 neatly repaired leaves with holes occasionally touching or repair obscuring page numerals or marginal letter, but overall a very good copy of a "rare and important book" (Hill, p.

First edition. Barrett 1918. Cowan, p. 27. Graff 3132. Howes O127. Medina 3651. Palau 204880: "Obra importante." Wagner, Spanish Southwest 128. A primary source of Jesuit activities in the Southwest, particularly the missionary work of Kino in Arizona, Consag's 1751 journey to California searching for a site to found Mission Santa Gertrudis, and other early missionaries in the Southwest. The work includes Kino's journey to California crossing the Gila, during which he concluded that California was not an island. Consag's work is particularly valuable for his early exposition on the hostile Apache. $2,000.00

324. ORTEGA, José. Historia del Nayarit, Sonora, Sinaloa y ambas Californias... Mexico: Abadiano, 1887. x, 564 [4] pp. 8vo, full antique calf, spine with raised bands and red morocco label. Occasional very light foxmarks, but overall very fine.

Second edition, with scholarly introduction and index, of preceding entry. Hill, pp. 521-22: "This edition of this book established the fact that Padre José Ortega, the Jesuit missionary, was its author.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$225.00

325. PALAFOX Y MENDOZA, Juan. Manual para la...administración de los Santos Sacramentos... Puebla de los Angeles: Oficina del Real y Pontificio Seminario Palafoxiano, 1789. [20] 328 pp. Small 4to, original limp vellum. Armorial bookplate of J. L. Motley. Occasional light stains, otherwise fine.

This rare Puebla de los Angeles imprint contains the offices of the Sacraments administered to the Indians, in Latin, Spanish, and the native Mexican language. The author was the celebrated Bishop of Puebla de los Angeles who carried forward the work of Las Casas in protecting the rights of the Indians and promoting royal and ecclesiastical reform. Pilling 2881. Sabin 58297 (citing only an earlier Madrid edition). Ugarte 283: "No encuentro mencionada esta edición en ninguna de las bibliografías que tengo a la vista." Ugarte states that the work was probably first issued in Mexico in 1642.

$375.00

326 [PALAFOX Y MENDOZA, JUAN]. GARCÍA, Genaro (editor). Don Juan de Palafox y Mendoza su virreinato en la Nueva España... Mexico: Documentos ineditos ó muy raros para la historia de México, Tomo VIII, 1906. viii, 295 pp. 12mo, original three-quarter terracotta cloth over marbled boards, calf spine label. Fine

First printing of previously unpublished manuscripts by and about Palafox y Mendoza and his activities in New Spain.

$85.00

327. PALMER, Sarah L. Six Months among the Secessionists. A Reliable and Thrilling Narrative... Philadelphia: Barclay, 1862. [2] 13-40 pp., frontispiece, 2 plates. 8vo, protective wrappers. Fine.

First edition. Howes P52. Nevins II:198. Sabin 58376. The harrowing story of a young Pennsylvania woman who was teaching school at Knoxville at the outbreak of the Civil War. Her adventures carried her through Georgia and South Carolina before she was able to make her way back to the North.

$150.00

328. PALÓU, Francisco. The Expedition into California of the Venerable Padre Fray Junipero Serra and his Companions

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

in the Year 1769... San Francisco: Nueva California Press, 1934. [4] iii [1] 124 [1] pp., frontispiece portrait, 4 facsimiles, 1 folding map. 4to, original goldenrod boards, vellum backstrip. Very fine in lightly worn d.j.

Limited edition (#34 Of 400 copies, signed by the editor; this issue with the facsimiles). Howes P56. Hill, pp. 221-22. Rocq 17070. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 168n. Zamorano Eighty 59n. Contains excerpts from Palou's Vida and Noticias; also presents previously unpublished letters pertaining to the expedition of 1769 and the founding of the missions at San Diego and 329. PAREDES, Trinidad. El problema del petróleo en México. Mexico, 1933. 148 [6] pp., frontispiece. 8vo, three-quarter Mexican sheep, spine with raised bands and morocco label. Neat repair to title, otherwise fine.
$150.00

First edition. Not in Griffin, Palau or Swanson. A prophetic report on the ills of the Mexican petroleum industry, written five years before expropriation.
$100.00

330. PASO Y TRONCOSO, F. del. Códice Kingsborough. Memorial de los indios de Tepetlaoztoc al monarca Español...Primera parte [all published]. Madrid: Hauser y Metier, 1912. 2 title leaves, frontispiece leaf with portrait of Lord Kingsborough, 114 full-page photofacsimiles from Codex Kingsborough. Tall folio, original printed wrappers bound in full Mexican tree sheep, spine with raised bands and red and black labels. Very fine.

First edition, limited edition (420 copies printed). Glass, p.671: "Perhaps only 20 of the 420 copies of the edition are complete; most lack 16 leaves [like the present copy] or more of the reproduction. Part 2 was not published. Distribution was very limited until the 1920's." Palau 162410. The codex is related to a lawsuit between the Indians of Tepetlaoztoc and the encomendero. It contains two maps of the region and interesting material on the pre-Cortesian era, such as tributes, social organization of Indians, etc. Very scarce.
$400.00

331. PASO Y TRONCOSO, F. del. Descripción, historia y exposición del Códice Borbónico (edición facsimilar). Mexico: Siglo Veintiuno, 1979. [10] xlvi, 429 [1] pp. (text) + full color facsimile of the codex on 38-leaf continuous screenfold within portfolio. 2 vols., 8vo, and folio, original calf over pictorial cloth. Very fine, in publisher's slipcase.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Facsimile reprint of the 1898 original. Glass, p. 670: "Detailed and major commentary on Codex Borbonicus, with comparative observations on other pictorial manuscripts...Also contains historical and interpretive notices for Codices Cospi, Fájéváy-Mayer, and Laud of the Borgia Group, Codices Telleriano-Remensis and Rios of the Huitzilopochtli Group, the Bohan Calendar Wheel, and Codex Magliabechiano."

$100.00

332. PAZ SOLDAN, Mariano F. Atlas geográfico del Peru. Paris: Didot, 1865. [2] 81 [1] pp., 73 lithographed plates and maps, several folding, some outlined in color or tinted. Large folio, later half red calf over cloth. Marginal fraying to first few leaves, some stains, and moderate to occasionally heavy foxing--only a few plate images are affected, and in those instances the foxing is very light. A good, complete copy of a very rare Peruvian plate book.

First edition. Palau 215886. This magnificent atlas by Peru's most eminent 19th century historian contains numerous maps, city plans, views, groups, scenery, etc. The author obviously drew inspiration from Humboldt's grand works on America. Many of the plates were made after daguerreotypes.

$2,500.00

333. PENDLETON, Charles B. Rescue of the Steamer San Francisco Passengers, in 1854. [Washington, 1860]. 4 pp. Folio folder printed on first two pages. Fine, with contemporary manuscript note at end listing those who support Pendleton's statement and giving details on filing a copy with the Senate.

First printing. Howell, California 50:691: "Pendleton describes his rescue of and assistance to the passengers of the steamship 'San Francisco' including, among others, William Gates, U.S. Army, and the famous Lieutenant Fremont."

$150.00

334. PÉREZ HERNANDEZ, J. M. Estadística de la República Mejicana... Mexico, 1984. [14] 196 pp., 22 toned and colored plates from 19th century works. Folio, original brown cloth. New, in d.j.

Limited edition. Facsimile of the original edition printed in Guadalajara in 1862. Palau 221090n: "Es de

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

todos los aspectos, desde la cultura y antigüedades hasta la Agricultura, Política, Gobierno, Industria y $40.00

335. PÉTIN, H. Les Etats-Unis et la doctrine de Monroe. Paris: Rousseau, 1900. [4] 452 pp. 8vo, original black French morocco over marbled boards, spine with raised bands. Fine, with ink ownership stamp of a Mexican collector on title.

First edition. Not in Palau, Griffin, etc. The French author criticizes U.S. policy in the Americas, claiming that the Monroe Doctrine has been used to prevent foreign invention in Latin America while allowing the U.S. to meddle in the affairs of its neighbors. Contains chapters on Texas, the Panama Congress, Yucatan, interoceanic canal projects, Mexico, Venezuela, Cuba, Samoa, Hawaii, and the Philippines. $75.00

336. PFEIFFER, Ida. A Lady's Second Journey Round the World from London to the Cape of Good Hope...California, Panama, Peru, Ecuador, and the United States. London: Longman, Brown, et al., 1855. xii, 451 [3]; viii, 423 [1] pp. 2 vols. in one, 12mo, full contemporary green morocco extra gilt, spine with raised bands, a.e.g. Exceptionally fine.

First edition. Hill, p. 232: "In California she visited Sacramento, Marysville, Crescent City, and San Jose. She met General Sutter and visited the gold washings on the Yuba river. She then took the steamer "Golden Gate" to Panama and transferred to an English steamer "Bolivia" for a trip to Peru. Interesting accounts are given of Acapulco, Panama City, Callao, Lima, Quito, Aspinwall, and New Orleans, where she visited the French market place and viewed a public slave $250.00

337. PFEIFFER, Ida. A Lady's Visit to California 1853. Oakland: Black Vine Press, 1950. [12] 75 [1] pp., plates (printed on pale blue paper). 8vo, original beige decorated cloth. Pristine.

Limited edition (500 copies printed). Hill 535. Rocq 16005. Fine press edition, containing text of the California portion of the author's account of her second journey around the world (see preceding entry). Pfeiffer was a fearless explorer and the most widely traveled woman of her day. $50.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

338. PFEIFFER, Ida. A Lady's Voyage Round the World: A Selected Translation from the German. London: Longman, Brown et al., 1851. viii, 272 pp. 12mo, full contemporary calf, gilt arms on upper cover, spine with raised bands and red morocco label, marbled edges. Very fine.

First English edition (an abridgment of the original edition published in Vienna in 1850). Hill, pp. 231-32. Account of the author's journey round the world, said to be the first by a woman travelling alone. Between 1842 and 1848 Pfeiffer covered about 200,000 miles, making botanical, mineralogical and entomological collections for the British Museum and others. A friend of Alexander von Humboldt, she was made an honorary member of the Geographical Society of Berlin and received a gold medal from the King of Prussia.

$200.00

339. PFEIFFER, Ida. A Woman's Journey Round the World from Vienna to Brazil, Chili, Tahiti, China, Hindostan, Persia, and Asia Minor. London: National Illustrated Library [1852]. [2] xii [2] 338 pp., 13 lithotint plates, including one of Rio de Janeiro. 8vo, original blind-stamped green cloth. New endpapers, else very

First complete edition in English and first illustrated edition of preceding entry. Berger, Rio, p. 233. Borba de Moraes, p. 665n.

$175.00

340. PHILLIPS, John. Mexico Illustrated, with Descriptive Letter-Press. London: Atchley, 1848. Title-page, 26 beautiful full color aquatint plates, letter-press text accompanying each plate. Very tall folio, original red morocco gilt over red silk moiré boards, upper cover gilt-lettered and gilt-stamped with Mexican eagle. Light outer wear and corners expertly restored, plates very fine and fresh with only occasional light spotting in blank margins.

First edition. Abbey 3007. Palau 224780. Sabin 62498. One of the most beautiful and rare 19th century Mexican plate books, including finely executed scenes of Campeche, Jalapa, Orizaba, Perote, Puebla, Popocatepetl, Valley of Mexico, Cathedral of Mexico, Veracruz, Zacatecas, San Luis Potosi, Mexican War scene at Chapultepec, and several views of architecture that have since been destroyed. Of Texas interest is a view of Matamoros on the Rio Grande, showing a sparsely settled Brownsville on the north side of the river. Like the great Catherwood portfolio, this book issued in three formats--black and white plates, tinted two shades, and full color. The present copy is in full color, making it the rarest and most desirable issue.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$25,000.0

0

341. PICKRELL, Annie D. Pioneer Women in Texas. Austin: Steck [1929]. 474pp. 8vo, original dark green cloth with gilt flag of Texas. Small stain at lower front cover, else very fine.

First edition. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 161: "The best book on women in early Texas, this is a useful and fascinating compilation of biographies of 77 notable Texas women, compiled from recollections and memories of women who came to Texas prior to statehood. Including both prominent ladies and pioneer settlers, the volume is one of the best sources of authentic grass roots history of social life in frontier Texas, containing valuable material relating to the Texas Revolution, Republic of Texas, Civil War, Reconstruction, and the cattle industry." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 115.

$150.00

342. PIM, Bedford. The Gate of the Pacific. London: Lovell Reeve & Co. 1863. xiv, 432 pp., 7 maps and charts (2 folding), 9 plates of Central American scenery (all but one colored). 8vo, original blue gilt pictorial cloth. Moderately worn with upper hinge strengthened, generally a very good copy, with the delicately colored plates in excellent condition.

First edition. Hill, p. 539: "[Pim] commanded the 'Gorgon' off Central America. While on station off Grey Town, he originated and surveyed the Nicaraguan Canal route across the Isthmus, through the Mosquito Coast and Nicaragua. While there he purchased a bay on the Atlantic coast, now known as Gorgon's or Pim's Bay." Palau 225979. The author, an English explorer, subsequently obtained concessions for a canal plan and formed the Nicaraguan Railway Company, Ltd. An important account, all the more valuable for the fine colored plates, since few 19th century plates of Central America

$300.00

343. PINO, Pedro Baptista. Exposición sucinta y sencilla de la provincia del Nuevo México... Cadiz: Imprenta del Estado-Mayor-General, 1812. 48 [3] pp. 12mo, contemporary plain wrappers. Very fine, with contemporary manuscript notes.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Howes P383. Jones 207. Plains & Rockies IV:10a (new entry in the revised edition): "Pino had been elected to represent New Mexico in the Spanish Córtes in 1810, where he presented his Exposición describing his native province and stating his plea for reform. The pamphlet became one of the chief authorities for writing the history of New Mexico." Sabin 62979. This very rare book is our chief source on New Mexico's last years as a Spanish province and of her beginnings as a Mexican State. Besides describing the country, its geography, resources, natural productions, curiosities and settlements, the author devotes considerable space to an account of the various tribes, with description of the Comanche, Navajo, Apache, Moqui, and others.
$2,500.00

344. PINO, Pedro Bautista, Antonio Barreiro, and Jose Agustin de Escudero. Noticias históricas y estadísticas de la antigua provincia del Nuevo-México... Mexico, 1849. 120 pp., folding map. 8vo, recent full crimson morocco. Fine.

Collectively these three reports present the most accurate picture of the province of New Mexico in the 19th century, up to the U.S. takeover in 1846-47. See preceding entry for notes on the first edition of the Pino, which appears in the present work in its second printing. The Barreiro is an enlarged edition of the original printed in 1832. The Escudero appears here in its first printing. Graff 3297. Howes B169. Plains & Rockies IV:10a & 45a (new entry). Rittenhouse 21. Sabin 62980. For a translation and discussion of the work, see Vol. XI of the Quivira Society publications, where these works appear under the title Three New Mexico Chronicles.
$1,600.00

345. PISSIS, [Pedro J.] A. Geografía física de la República de Chile. [Paris]: Instituto Geográfico de Paris, 1875. xii, 536 pp. (text), 8vo, publisher's original dark green morocco over gilt-decorated cloth, spine gilt with raised bands. [With] Atlas... [4] pp., 114 lithographic plates (3 colored), 7 profiles, map, table (atlas), oblong folio, publisher's original red morocco over gilt-decorated cloth. Front cover of atlas a little discolored and first three leaves of atlas reinforced, but overall a very good set.

First edition. Palau 217450. Documents an important 19th century geographical survey of Chile carried out by the Paris Institute of Geography. The twenty-three plates which comprise the atlas are superb examples of French lithography. Eleven are views, three of which are very beautifully colored. The plate of the interior of the volcano of Antuco is spectacular.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$600.00

346. PLUMMER, Rachel. Rachel Plummer's Narrative of Twenty-One Months Servitude as a Prisoner among the Commanchee Indians...with a Preface by Archibald Hanna... Austin, 1977. [8] [2] 18 [1] pp. 8vo, original half tan cloth over mustard boards. Mint.

Limited edition (400 signed copies) of the original edition printed in Houston in 1838, known only by the Yale copy. Howes P427. Plains & Rockies IV:71. Streeter 242: "With her infant son James and her cousin Cynthia Ann Parker [Plummer] was captured by the Comanches at the destruction of Parker's Fort on the Navasota River, May 19, 1836."

$45.00

347. POINSETT, J. R. Report from the Secretary of War...in Relation to the Protection of the Western Frontier of the United States. Washington: SD65, 1838. 19 pp., 2 large lithographed folding maps, one outlined in color (Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 426 & 427). 8vo, new maroon cloth. Two expert repairs to folding maps, else fine.

First edition. Plains & Rockies IV:72a. Streeter 1338. Recommends establishment of military forts on the Western frontier and includes interesting material on Texas and its Indian tribes. Statisical tables give names and numbers of tribes east of the Mississippi, numbers of Indians who have "emigrated" to the west of the Mississippi, and indigenous tribes within striking distance of the frontier. The maps locate tribes and give some idea of the topography of East Texas. The author was the noted U.S. diplomat who tried to buy Texas from Mexico before the Texas Revolution.

$200.00

348. PORTER, Lavinia Honeyman. By Ox Team to California. A Narrative of Crossing the Plains in 1860. Oakland: Oakland Enquirer Pub. Co., 1910. xi [1] 139 pp. (this copy does not contain the photograph of the author sometimes found tipped in as a frontispiece). 8vo, original olive green cloth. Fine copy.

First edition, limited edition (#25 Of 50 copies printed). Cowan 496. Eberstadt, Modern Narratives of the

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Plains and the Rockies 387. Graff 3325. Howell California 50:1592: "A highly personal and thoroughly delightful account of a six-month crossing of the plains from Kansas to California in 1860. Mrs. Porter was a typical pre-war Southern belle who learned the hardships of the emigrant first-hand, often with amusing consequences. Although it was written a half-century later, her narrative combines truth with a remarkable memory to produce a vivid and fascinating overland description of the westward crossing." Howes P48.
$600.00

349. PORTER, Millie Jones. Memory Cups of Panhandle Pioneers... Clarendon: Clarendon Press, 1945. xvi, 648 pp. 8vo, original terracotta cloth. Very fine, with previous owner's bookplate.

First edition. Adams, Herd 1817; Six-Guns 1748: "Scarce." Jenkins, CBC 1033 and 7 additional entries. King, Women on the Cattle Trail and in the Roundup, p. 18: "Accounts by pioneers of the Panhandle area of Texas including much on the social life of the residents." One of the best regional histories of Texas, with accounts by the old pioneers that provide a genuine picture of ranching and Indian troubles in the early days. An essential work for the study of women in Texas ranching, with a wealth of material from the distaff side.
$225.00

350. POSADA, José Guadalupe]. Galeria del teatro infantil... Mexico, 1918. 25 separately issued pamphlets, each about 8 pages, a few printed on colored papers. 16mo, original printed and pictorial self wrappers. Very fine condition.

First edition. See Gamboa, Posada pp. 16-17 & No. 361 et seq. These pamphlets, which relate to children's plays presented in Mexico, were printed at the publishing house of Vanegas Arroyo where Posada worked as illustrator. About a dozen of the cover illustrations are signed in print by Posada.
$100.00

351. POTTER, Eliza]. A Hairdresser's Experience in High Life. Cincinnati: Published for the Author, 1859. iv, 11-294 pp. 8vo, original blue cloth, spine giltstamped. Light shelf wear, internally fine, with contemporary pencil annotations identifying many of the people discussed in the book whom the authoress did not identify in print.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Clark III:384: "Inclusive dates: Probably about 1844-1859. About fifteen years of service as a hairdresser, maid, and companion among the 'smart set' at Northern resorts in the summer and Southern cities such as Memphis, Natchez, and New Orleans during the winter provide the background for this chatty, intimate account. In 'true confessions' fashion, the author exposes the joys and miseries unguardedly revealed in the private boudoir. Many incidents are related in support of the writer's abolitionist sentiments." Howes
$150.00

352. PRESCOTT, W. H. Historia de la conquista de México... Mexico: Cumplido, 1844. viii, 563 [4] + 489 [3] xx, 124 [4] + iv, 563 [4] pp., 3 chromolithographic titles, 70 lithographed plates (some folding), double-page map of the Valley of Mexico. 3 vols., 8vo, original Mexican tree calf. Other than light rubbing to spines, an unusually fine set, preserved in half navy blue morocco slipcases. Author's signed presentation

Second and best Mexican edition, with the scholarly notes of José F. Ramirez and the many exquisite plates by Cumplido. Field 1239n. Glass, p. 677. Grolier, American Hundred 51: "Set a new standard for the narrative type of history." Hill, p. 240. Mathes, Mexico on Stone, pp. 23 & 56. Palau 236493: "Es la edición mas apreciada." Prescott's work remains a cornerstone work for any collection of American literature or Mexicana. There is no more beautiful edition of this classic than the present one, which constitutes a landmark in the history of Mexican lithography. The plates include pre-Cortesian pictorial manuscripts, scenes from the conquest, archaeological subjects, portraits, etc.
$1,500.00

353. PRINGLE, Elizabeth Allston]. A Woman Rice-Planter [by] Patience Pennington [pseud.]. New York: Macmillan, 1913. xiv, 450 [6, ads] pp., illustrations by Alice R. H. Smith. 8vo, original gilt-lettered green pictorial cloth. Very fine copy of a beautifully designed book.

First edition. A classic of Southern history, containing the record of a four-year attempt by an intelligent, sensitive woman in post-bellum South Carolina to make rice-growing pay.
$100.00

354. RAHT, C. G. The Romance of Davis Mountains and Big Bend Country. El Paso: Rahtbooks, 1919. [6] 381 pp.,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

frontispiece portrait, double-page map, plates. 8vo, original blue pictorial cloth. Very fine, bright

First edition. Adams, Six-Guns 1783: "The first edition is now scarce. Has some information on lawlessness and the Texas Rangers of that region." Graff 3416: "A history of the region between the Pecos and the Rio Grande." Howes R16. Rader 2752. Best history of the region, including material on Indians, ranching, women pioneers, etc.

$150.00

355. RAMOS, Mariano E. Hidalguida. Poema épico en doce cantos. Puebla de Zaragoza [Coahuila?] A. González, 1882. [4] 106 [2] pp., lithograph by P. Alarcón of Hidalgo leading a band of Revolutionaries by torchlight. 8vo, original Mexican sheep over marbled boards. Light outer wear, otherwise fine with author's signed presentation inscription and his albumen portrait tipped in.

First edition. Not in Palau or Mathes, Mexico on Stone. Epic poem on Hidalgo, father of the Mexican Revolution, with a beautiful, unrecorded Mexican lithograph. Very rare.

$250.00

356. RAMOS ARIZPE, [José] Miguel. Memoria...sobre el Estado Natural, Politico, y Civil de su dicha Provincia [Coahuila], y las de el Nuevo Reyno de León, Nuevo Santander, y los Texas... Guadalajara: J. Fruto Romero, 1813. 58 [1] pp. 8vo, full Mexican sheep with red morocco label on upper cover. A very fine copy.

First Mexican edition. Howes R26. Streeter 1050A (locating four copies): "Excellent account of the four Internal Provinces of the East as observed by Ramos Arizpe...addressed to the King [describing] the government [with] brief notes on their important towns." Palau (247779), Raines (p. 170) and Sabin (67670) cite only the edition printed in Spain the prior year. This very rare report constitutes one of the few extant reports on Texas at the end of the Spanish era and includes sections on "Character of the People," "Public Education," "Commerce," "Defects of the System of Government," "Free Trade" (recommending opening the ports of San Bernardo, Brazos de Santiago, etc.), and "Breeding of Cattle" (the only such report of the period), along with discussion of Indian tribes, missions, and presidios. Ramos Arizpe, who resided at Saltillo and served as delegate from Coahuila to the Spanish Cortes, was one of the few colonials who had the audacity to advise the Spanish government to liberalize and promote reforms within its American empire. For his efforts, he was committed to a Spanish prison for several years.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$1,750.00

357. RANKIN, Melinda. Texas in 1850. Boston: Damrell & Moore, 1850. 199 pp. 12mo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Expertly rebacked, original spine preserved. A fine copy.

First edition. Howes R64. Raines, p. 171: "Texas viewed through the missionary eyes of a New England lady." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 227. Rankin, who came to Texas in 1848, gives a well-rounded description of Texas for prospective emigrants, including social and economic conditions, natural resources, towns and cities of note, navigation of Texas rivers, relations with Texas Indians, and a brief sketch of the state's history. Rankin appeals to religious workers in the older states to come to Texas to spread Protestantism and to educate and convert Texans of Mexican heritage. Very scarce.

$550.00

358. RANKIN, Melinda. Twenty Years among the Mexicans, a Narrative of Missionary Labor. Cincinnati: Chase & Hall, 1875. 199 pp. 12mo, original green cloth. Binding a bit worn, otherwise fine.

First edition. Howes (H64) errs in stating that this work was published in 1852 and that it is the same as the author's earlier work, Texas in 1850 (see preceding entry), reissued with a new title. Raines, p. 171: "Presbyterian missionary life on the border, mostly in Texas." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 60: "Rankin opened a school for Mexicans in 1852. In 1854, she opened the Rio Grande Female Seminary. A Union sympathizer, she was forced to relinquish her seminary in 1862." Contains much interesting material on the Rio Grande Valley and Brownsville, where Rankin operated her schools. From the late 1840's through the 1850's she surreptitiously distributed Bibles in Mexico and in 1866 opened the first Protestant mission in Mexico.

$125.00

359. RANKIN, Melinda. Twenty Years among the Mexicans... Cincinnati: Chase & Hall, 1875. 214 pp. 12mo, original brown cloth. A very fine, bright copy.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition, second issue, with the appendix (pp. 202-214) containing details of recent anti-Protestantism in Mexico. See preceding entry.
$125.00

360. REVILLON FRÈRES. Igloo Life, a Brief Account of a Primitive Arctic Tribe Living near one of the Most Northern Trading Posts of Revillon Frères. New York: Privately printed, 1923. 63 pp., 4 blue-tone photoplates, numerous attractive woodcuts in text. 8vo, original blue pictorial boards. Binding has a few stains and upper cover is neatly rehinged, interior fine.

First edition. Scarce ethnological account, from which the motion picture "Nanook of the North" was made.
$100.00

361. REYLES, Carlos. El gaucho florido. La novela de la estancia cimarrona y del gaucho crudo. Montevideo: Impresora Uruguaya [1932]. 307 pp. 12mo, original full embossed pictorial leather showing a gaucho. An exceptionally fine copy in an unusual binding.

First edition. Nichols 742. Palau 265769. A classic novel of Uruguayan cowboy life.
$75.00

362 [RIVERA, DIEGO]. REYERO, Manuel. Diego Rivera. [Mexico]: Fundación Cultural Televisa A.C. [1983]. 283 [4] pp., numerous illustrations in color, some folding. Large 4to, original grey pictorial cloth. Very fine in d.j.

First edition. Best monograph to date.
$100.00

363. RIVET, Paul. Mexique précolombien. Neuchatel and Paris: Éditions Ides et Calendes, 1954. [9] 80 [6] pp., with 80 photographic plates of Precolumbian architecture and artifacts by Gisèle Freund. Large 4to, original printed wrappers over boards. Very fine copy.

First edition. Beautiful photoessay.
$40.00

364. ROBERTS, Orlando W. Narrative of Voyages and Excursions on the East Coast and in the Interior of Central America... Edinburgh: Constable, 1827. Engraved title showing author before a firing squad, 302 pp., folding engraved map of Nicaragua. 12mo, 19th century half calf over marbled boards. leather spine labels. An excellent copy.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Griffin 3563: "Roberts was a British trader operating in Central America just prior to independence. His description covers the east coast from Darien to Cape Gracias a Dios and also a trip up the San Juan River to Granada and León in Nicaragua. Observations of landscape, flora and fauna, commercial matters, and social customs." Palau 280798. Parker, Travels in Central America 1821-1840, p. 117: "The account of his detention as an alleged spy contains real drama and offers the only outsider's view...of the Central American Isthmus in transition to political 365. ROJAS, A. R. Lore of the California Vaquero. Fresno: Academy Library Guild, 1958. 162 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original tan cloth. Very fine in d.j.

$300.00

First edition. Adams, Herd 1936. The author, a California cowhand for many years, collected the lore, anecdotes, and legends of the Spanish vaqueros of the Central Valley of California.

$40.00

366. ROJAS, A. R. Last of the Vaqueros. Fresno: Academy Library Guild, 1960. [8] 165 pp., illustrated. 8vo, original grey cloth. Very fine in d.j. A review copy, signed by author.

First edition. Another work preserving the lore of pastoral California by preceding author.

$45.00

367. ROMERO FLORES, Jesús. Historia de los Estados de la República Mexicana. Mexico: Botas, 1964. 496 [3] pp. 8vo, original dark green flexible cloth. Fine.

First edition. A handy reference for historical research containing a short history of each Mexican state. Includes information on the border states of the U.S.

$45.00

368. RUIZ NAUFAL, V. M. El territorio mexicano [with] Planos y mapas... Mexico: Instituto Mexicano del Seguro Social, 1982. Text: xxxviii, 447 [4] + xvi, 787 [3] pp., hundreds of illustrations and maps, many in color. Map portfolio: 36 colored maps, each with descriptive text. 3 vols., large folio, original brown cloth, beige cloth backstrips. Very fine.

First edition, limited edition. One of the most lavish cartographical works ever produced, presenting an exposition of the mapping of Mexico from pre-Cortesian maps to the present. The first volume is devoted to maps of the Mexican nation, and the second volume covers each Mexican state individually, including U.S. states that formerly were part of Mexico. Reproduces many important previously unpublished manuscript maps that relate to America in general, the Southwestern U.S., and the Mexican-American War. Now out of print and extremely difficult to locate because the book was produced as a gift book to be given away by the Mexican government.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$300.00

369. RYE, Edgar. The Quirt and the Spur: Vanishing Shadows of the Texas Frontier. Chicago: Conkey, 1909. 363 pp., frontispiece, plates. Original beige pictorial cloth decorated in red and blue. Very fine, tight copy.

First edition. Adams, Six-Guns 1923: "A history of Fort Griffin, Texas, in its wild days, containing material on the early life of John Selman and John Larn; Herd 1982. Dobie, p. 161. Howes R559. Reese, Six Score 95: "This book has become rare because a prominent ranching family felt themselves slandered by some remarks in it and destroyed all the copies they could purchase. Plenty on early cattlemen."

$300.00

370. SAHAGÚN, Luis. Historia general de las cosas de Nueva España. Mexico: Robredo, 1938. lxxxiv, 396 [2] + 418 [2] + 390 [2] + 446 [2] + 339 pp., hand-colored plates. 5 vols., 4to, full contemporary Mexican leather. A very fine set.

Limited edition (100 copies printed). Best and most complete edition of the most authentic account of pre-Cortesian Mexico. Field 1348. Glass, p 681: "Spanish text of the Historia general by Sahagún based on books 1-11 of the Panes MS of the Manuscrito de Tolosa, the Paso y Troncosco copy of books 1-6 of the Florentine Codex, and on prior editions. Important bibliographical introduction by Jiménez Moreno. Additional material includes variants in the revised book 12 from Bustamante, a Spanish translation of Seler's German translation of the Nahuatl text of book 12, the relation by Ixtlilxochitl concerning the Spanish conquest, and a Spanish translation of Seler's German translation of Cantares a los dioses." Palau 285000. Pilling 3453n. Sahagún, one of the first missionaries in America, arrived in Mexico in 1529, where he mastered the Aztec language and collected hieroglyphic records. His monumental history of the Indians of New Spain, which was gathered directly from local Indian chiefs and elders who survived the Conquest, was suppressed by the Catholic Church and did not appear in print until Bustamante's partial publication in 1829 and 1830.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$1,800.00

371. SAHAGÚN, Luis. Original signed pencil sketch of mother and child, measuring 6-1/2 x 8 inches.. Very fine condition.

A beautiful work by Mexican artist Sahagún (1900-1978). Several other of the artist's works available. List and illustrations upon request.

$250.00

372. SALDIVAR, G. El primer diputado Tamaulipeco al Congreso General, Don José Antonio Gutiérrez de Lara. Mexico, 1943. [2] 53 pp. 8vo, original white printed wrappers. Fine.

First edition. Biography of the first deputy to the Mexican Congress, who helped write and introduce the colonization law which led to the Anglo settlement of Texas. Reprints the Proyecto de ley general sobre colonización (Streeter 688).

$75.00

373 [SAN LUIS POTOSI].. Recopilación general de todas las órdenes, instrucciones, reglamentos y decretos...desde enero de 1827... San Luis Potosi: Imprenta del estado ne (sic) Palacio, 1835. Bound volume with specially printed title and subtitles, containing all of the separately issued decrees (125 one- and two-page folio broadsides, a few smaller format pamphlets running to several pages) and 39 circulars (mostly one-page 8vo format, but a few pamphlets). Folio, original full Mexican limp leather. Excellent condition, a few of the broadsides with official autograph rubrics.

First printings of each decree or circular. This fine long run of decrees and circulars from January 1827 to November 1828 provides a well-rounded picture of the state of San Luis Potosi during that state's first legislative sessions. Includes matters such as regulations establishing the justice department, treasury taxes, fees for notary publics, establishment of an active militia, establishment of city councils, etc.

$1,000.00

374 [SANTIAGO DE CHILE].. Synodo Diocesana, que celebré...Manuel de Alday y Aspee, obispo de Santiago de Chile... [with] Synodo Diocesana, con Carta pastoral...celebróla...Bernardo Carrasco y Saavedra, Obispo de Santiago de Chile... Lima: Oficina de la Calle de la Encarnación, 1764. [8] 170 [25]; [14] 168 pp. Two works in one vol., original vellum. Fine.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition of first work; second edition of second work. Palau 325995. One of the most beautiful examples of colonial American printing. The two sections have separate title-pages, the first in red and black, the second in red, green, and black, as is the half-title (which has a small stamp at the bottom). The text is ruled in a double black rule, with wide and graceful margins. A truly elegant book, and a very unusual example of colonial American printing.

$1,500.00

375. SAUNDERS, Col. James E. and Elizabeth Saunders B. Stubbs. Early Settlers of Alabama...with Notes and Genealogies. Vol. I [all published]. New Orleans: Graham, 1899. 530 [2] xxiv pp., portraits, map. 4to, original maroon cloth. Front hinge cracked and some staining.

First edition. Howes S119. A very scarce book.
$250.00

376. SEAVER, James E. A Narrative of the Life of Mary Jemison, who was taken by the Indians, in the Year 1755 when only about Twelve Years of Age, and has Continued to Reside amongst them to the Present Time... Canandaigua: Bemis, 1824. 1 [2] 2-189 pp. 16mo, full brown morocco by Sangorski & Sutcliffe. Very fine.

First edition, with the separate leaf of copyright. Ayer 248. Church 1334. Field 1380 (not locating the first edition): "The best resume we have of incidents in the history and common life of the Seneca Indians. Seaver received almost the whole mass of incidents narrated in his book directly from the lips of the aged captive herself." Howes S263: "One of the most authentic and interesting of captivity narratives, told by one who spent a long life among the Senecas and was the first white woman to descend the Ohio." Pilling 3541 (not citing first edition). Captured by Indians as a child in Pennsylvania during the French and Indian War, Jemison became so attached to her Seneca family that she chose to maintain her Indian ways rather than return to white culture. Her first husband was a Delaware chief and her second was a Seneca warrior. She ultimately came to own the largest herd of cattle and 30,000 acres in upstate New York (much to the chagrin of the developers). Of linguistic interest are Indian names of about 400 localities in New York with their English meanings.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$750.00

377. SEDGWICK, Theodore. Thoughts on the Proposed Annexation of Texas to the United States. New York: Benedict, 1844. 56 pp. 8vo, original printed salmon wrappers, stitched. Creased where folded, else fine.

Second edition, second issue. Streeter 1533B: "A lengthy and learned argument against annexation." Author feels Texas has been overrated.

$35.00

378. SELER, Eduard. Auf alten Wegen in Mexiko und Guatemala. Reiseerrinnungen und Eindrücke aus den Jahren 1895-1897. Berlin, 1900. xxiii [2] 362 pp., map, 65 plates, 260 text illustrations. 8vo, original cloth. Somewhat loose, otherwise very fine.

First edition. Palau 306777. Very scarce account of this important author's travels in Mexico and Central America.

$225.00

379. SELER, Eduard. Codex Borgia. Eine altmexikanische Bilderschrift... Berlin, 1904-09. [2] iv, 310 + [6] 353 + [6] 155 pp., complete facsimile of the codex, numerous text illustrations. 3 vols., folio, original grey printed wrappers. Royal Society of Edinburgh duplicate, with their small ink stamp on wrappers of vols. 1 and 2. Wrappers soiled and worn, two signatures of vol. 2 dust-soiled, otherwise fine.

First edition. Glass, p. 700: "Major commentary on Codex Borgia, including commentaries on relevant parts of other manuscripts of comparable content or iconography, particularly those of the Borgia and Huitzilopochtli Groups and Codices Borbonicus, Magliabecchiano, Nuttall, and Porfirio Díaz, etc. Annotated line drawings are given for all pages of Codex Borgia." Palau 55953.

$475.00

380. SELER, Eduard. Codex Fájérváy-Mayer. An Old Mexican Picture Manuscript... Berlin & London: The Duke of Loubat, 1901-02. vi, 228 pp., 22 plates, numerous text figures. Folio, original grey printed wrappers. Royal Society of Edinburgh duplicate with their small ink stamp on upper wrapper. Wrappers worn and dust-soiled, text fine.

First edition in English (original printing: Berlin, 1901). Glass, p. 697: "Major commentary on Codex Fájérváy-Mayer, with reproduction of annotated line drawings of each page of the manuscript."

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$225.00

381. SELER, Eduard. Gesammelte Abhandlungen zur amerikanischen Sprach- und Alterthumskunde... Berlin: Asher, 1902. xxviii, 863 + xxxvi, 1107 + xxx, 729 + [4] 370 + xxxviii, 585, 79 pp., hundreds of plates and illustrations. 8vo, original printed wrappers. Fourteen pages of vol. 2 in facsimile. Fine condition except for light wear to fragile wraps, stain on upper wrap of vol. 5, and one back wrapper absent. Very scarce.

First edition. Glass, p. 699. Griffin 1420: "Seler was the greatest Maya-Mexicanist scholar at the turn of the century. This collection represents part of the enormous corpus of specialized publications resulting from his studies of art, architecture, mythology, religion, and other aspects of ancient Mesoamerican culture. He is best known for his masterful, if highly speculative, commentaries on the native codices, especially their iconographic and 382. SERRANO, Fray Pedro. Original manuscript document signed by Serrano with his rubric and Fray Joseph Aldrete, secretary, Mexico, July 20, 1762. 1-14 pp., folio, written in sepia ink, with paper seal of the Provincia del Santo Evangelio at end. Tear in left margin affecting a few letters, otherwise a fine example.

$500.00

An appeal by Father Serrano for four missionaries to serve in New Mexico to replace priests who had died. See Bancroft (Arizona & New Mexico, pp. 269-78) for details on Serrano and his scathing report on the deplorable state of the New Mexico missions at the time of this 383. SEVERIN, Timothy. Explorers of the Mississippi. New York: Knopf, 1968. xii, 294, xi [3] pp., 21 illustrations. 8vo, original pictorial cloth. Very fine in slightly worn d.j.

$350.00

First American edition. Interesting study on the exploration of the Mississippi River from DeSoto to Glazier, including Texas explorers LaSalle, Tonti, and Pike. Reproduces the plate "Landing at Matagorda Bay" from the 1698 Hennepin, which is probably the earliest print that depicts a specific Texas subject.

$35.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

384. SHUCK, Oscar T. Representative and Leading Men of the Pacific... San Francisco: Bacon, 1870. 701 pp., 22 engraved portraits and plate of San Francisco in 1849. Thick 8vo, original green cloth, bevelled edges. Upper hinge slightly weak, else fine.

First edition. Cowan, p. 586: "Of permanent value as a work of reference." Rocq 17144. "A series of biographical sketches of prominent figures in the history of the West coast, including California from Serra to Leland Stanford" (Howell, California 50:1631).
$150.00

385. SIERRA, Justo. Le Mexique, son evolution sociale... Mexico: J. Ballezá, 1900. 434, iv + [4] 435-795 [1] + 444 pp., frontispiece in gold and colors, numerous plates (some colored), maps, text illustrations. Folio, original ornate green gilt cloth, green sheep backstrips, spine gilt. A fine set.

First edition in French. Issued simultaneously with editions in Spanish and English. Griffin 4190n: "One of Sierra's finest works, this 'civic biography' of the Mexican people is as important for its revelation of the writer's enthusiasm, sympathies, and intuitive perception of Mexican development as for the enthusiasm and approbation that it continues to generate among Mexicans." Palau 312616. Its numerous photographs make this an extremely valuable documentary source for Mexico at the turn of the century.
$400.00

386. SIMPSON, George. Narrative of a Voyage to California Ports in 1841-42... San Francisco: Thomas C. Russell, 1930. xxxii, 232 pp., frontispiece portrait, 4 plates, folding map, title in red and black. 8vo, original blue boards, red linen backstrip, printed paper spine label. Mint copy in d.j.

Limited edition (150 copies printed). Barr, Presses of Northern California, p. 138. Cowan, p. 589. Hill, p. 572. Howes, S497. Lada-Mocarski 129. Plains & Rockies IV:140. Simpson, who was governor of the Hudson's Bay Company's American territories, visited Alaska, Hawaii, San Francisco, Monterey, Santa Barbara, etc. He gives an excellent account of California in the last decade of Mexican rule.
$250.00

387. SIMPSON, James H. Route from Fort Smith to Santa Fe. Washington: HRED45, 1850. 89 pp., map, 2 plates. 8vo,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

recent maroon cloth. One tear repair on map, otherwise very fine.

First edition, the House issue, more scarce than the Senate issue. It includes the Capt. R. B. Marcy report, as well as a different map and two lithographs, none of which were included in the Senate issue. One of the lithographs is a beautiful view of Santa Fe from the east. Howes S500. Meisel III, p. 113. Plains & Rockies IV:192. Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 681, "Marcy's was the first comprehensive map of this area, and on it the Red River is shown for the first time in its true size." An important report for Texas and the opening of the West, describing a expedition from Fort Smith to Santa Fe. Simpson took the northerly route traversing the Panhandle and Marcy took the southerly route from the Red River, across the Llano Estacado and through El Paso. "The over-all results of the Marcy-Simpson reconnaissances were an important contribution to overland transportation and to an understanding of the geography of the Oklahoma-Texas border country" (Goetzmann, Army Exploration, p. 218).
$375.00

388. SIMPSON, James H. Journal of a Military Reconnaissance, from Santa Fe, New Mexico, to the Navajo Country... Philadelphia, 1852. 140 [28, ads] pp., 72 fine lithographed plates (mostly tinted and colored), folding map (Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 641: "An arresting production bringing out many new details of the region directly west of New Mexico"). 8vo, original blind- and gilt-stamped brown cloth. The Frederick W. Skiff copy, with his bookplate. Other than occasional light browning, a fine, bright copy.

First separate edition. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books 378. Field 1413: "One of the most accurate and complete of all the narratives of exploration of the country of the Zuñi and Pueblo Indians." Howes S498 (remarking that in its present form it is amplified from its prior appearance). Palau 314388. Pilling 3608. Rader 2924. Plains & Rockies IV:218. Simpson was the first white man to describe Chaco Canyon, Canyon de Chelly, Pueblo Bonito, Inscription Rock, and to provide full illustrations of the Zuñi and Pueblo Indians. Goetzmann calls the work a "major Southwestern archaeological endeavor" and states that "no serious student of these sites can afford to neglect Simpson's pioneer report even in the present day." This basic Southwestern colorplate book is most difficult to locate in this format.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$550.00

389 [SLAVERY IN TEXAS].. Manifest of Slaves. New Orleans, ca. 1850. Oblong folio document printed on recto and verso, completed in manuscript. Lightly creased where folded and a few old stains, but overall fine, signed by Captain Bachner and the collector at New Orleans Custom House.

Captain Bachner of the Steamship "Portland" bound from New Orleans for Galveston declares that the slaves he is delivering to the Texas port "were not imported into the United States, since the first day of January, 1808." Nine slaves are listed by first name only, including two females and seven males, ranging in age from two months to 32 years. Their respective heights are included, and all are listed as "Black" except one "Mulatto." Few slave documents of this nature relating to Texas have 390. SLOCUM, G. H. Where Tex Meets Mex. A Report of Recent Ramblings on both Sides of the Rio Grande. N.p.: Rural Publishing Co., 1927. 99 [4] pp., map on title-page, photographic plates. 12mo, original green gilt pictorial cloth. Very fine.

$400.00

First edition. Railroad tour from Michigan to the Rio Grande Valley and into the heart of Mexico, with much on agriculture and interesting sidelights on the oil industry in Mexico.

$40.00

391. SMYTHE, Sarah Maria Bland. Ten Months in the Fiji Islands... Oxford & London: Henry & Parker, 1864. xii, xx, 282 pp., 4 maps by Arrowsmith (2 folding), 4 delicately colored lithographs, 6 toned lithographs, woodcuts in text. 8vo, original green gilt pictorial cloth. Slight wear, overall fine.

First edition. Hill, p. 576: "Mrs. Smythe's husband, Colonel William James Smythe of the Royal Artillery was editor of this book. He was sent by the British government as special commissioner to the Fiji Islands in 1860 and 1861. His mission was to study the area and then report to the government which was considering the establishment of a protectorate. Mrs. Smythe accompanied him there and left an important account of that archipelago and also of Australia, New Zealand, and Tonga. They returned via San Francisco and Panama."

$325.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

392 [SPURS].. Matched pair of dress spurs, iron with silver-plated heel bands and shanks with hand-moulded decoration; width 3-3/8 inches, weight 6-1/2 oz. Alta California, ca. 1830. Excellent condition.

Matched pairs of spurs from the Spanish and Mexican periods are very difficult to locate.

$200.00

393 [SPURS].. Matched pair of delicately wrought spurs for a lady, or perhaps a child, entirely of iron with delicate hand-wrought design on heel bands, heel chains typical of the Spanish colonial spur; width, 3-3/4 inches, weight, 3-1/2 oz. Alta California, ca. 1830. Lacking one rowel point on left spur, else fine, with protective coating to prevent rust.

$125.00

394. SQUIER, E. G. Collection of Rare and Original Documents and Relations, concerning the Discovery and Conquest of America. Chiefly from the Spanish Archives. New York: Norton, 1860. [2] 129 [2] pp., title in red and black, double-page map, Spanish and English on opposite pages. Small 4to, three-quarter navy blue morocco, spine with raised bands. Marginal browning, otherwise fine in a handsome binding by Striker.

First edition in Spanish; first complete edition in English. A scholarly edition and translation of Diego Garcia de Palacio's Carta dirigida al Rey de España. Portions of the original manuscript written in 1576 were extracted by Herrera, but not the excellent description of Copan, which is the first by a European. Quite scarce, having been printed in only a very small edition. Field 1488. Palau 99541 & 321814.

$150.00

395. SQUIER, E. G. Nicaragua: Its People, Scenery, Monuments, and the Proposed Interoceanic Canal... New York: Appleton, 1852. xxii [2] 424 + iv, 452 pp., 4 maps, 21 tinted and colored lithographs, 3 engraved plates, text illustrations. 2 vols., 8vo, original green blind-stamped cloth. Moderate foxing, overall a fine, tight set.

First edition. Abbey 673. Bennett, American 19th Century Color Plate Books, p. 100. Field 1484: "A fitting sequel to...Stephens" (see Item 401 in this catalogue). Hill, pp. 580-81: "The author was an American journalist, archaeologist, and diplomat...Squier was first assigned to Central America in 1849 as chargé d'affaires...He became an authority on Central America and on the archaeological ruins...Nicaragua is considered his best book." Palau 32178. Parker, Travels in Central America 1821-1840, p. 323. Pilling 3719. Contains very beautiful archaeological plates.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$450.00

396. SQUIER, E. G. Notes on Central America... London: Sampson, Low; New York: Harper, 1856. [2] xvi, 397 pp., 6 maps (5 folding), 11 views (8 of which are toned lithographed plates). 8vo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Author's presentation copy, with inscription to a noted English legislator. Spinal extremities worn, otherwise a very fine copy, with an extra folding map tipped in.

First English edition. Griffin 4411: "The most complete work on Central America, by the U.S. diplomatic agent and promoter who supplemented observation with research." Palau 321801. Pilling 3724. One of the basic 19th century works on Central America, with excellent maps that are the best for the region up to that time. The fine views include Tigre, Comayagua, 397. SQUIER, E. G. Tropical Fibres: Their Production and Economic Extraction. London & New York, 1863. 64 pp., 16 lithographed botanical plates, one engraved plate. 8vo, original browned blind-stamped and gilt-lettered cloth. A fine, fresh copy.

$450.00

First edition. Not in Palau and other standard references. Excellent monograph on the production of fibers using tropical plants of America and the East Indies.

$225.00

398. STANFORD, Leland]. Catalogue of Thoroughbred Horses at Palo Alto... San Francisco: H. S. Crocker, 1882. 50 [1] pp. 8vo, original tan printed wrappers. Light wear to fragile wrappers, otherwise fine.

First edition. Rocq 13992. Not in Cowan. An ephemeral item relating to one of the great early Californians.. The stable of horses described in this pamphlet later became the grounds of Stanford University. The horses listed in this catalogue were the ones used by pioneer photographer Eadweard Muybridge in his famous illustrations of The Horse in Motion (1882), which led to the invention of the modern moving picture.

$150.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

399. STARBUCK, Edith. Crossing the Plains. Nashville: Southern Publishing Company [1927]. [2] 224 pp., double-page map, plates. 8vo, original slate grey cloth. Other than a few small spots on spine, a very fine

First edition. Not in Howes, Graff, etc. Account of an 1852 overland to Oregon.

$75.00

400. STARR, Frederick. Catalogue of a Collection of Objects Illustrating the Folklore of Mexico. London: The Folk-Lore Society, 1899. xvi, 132 pp., numerous plates and illustrations. 8vo, original rust cloth. Very fine.

First edition. Palau 322065. Catalogue of a fine collection assembled by the pioneer Mexican ethnologist and donated to the Folk-Lore Society in London. Describes over 600 items.

$200.00

401. STEPHENS, John L. (author) and Frederick Catherwood (illustrator). Incidents of Travel in Central America, Chiapas, and Yucatan... New York: Harper, 1841 [with] Incidents of Travel in Yucatan. London: John Murray, 1843. [2] 424; [2] 474 + [2] 459; [8] 478 pp., with over 200 illustrations of Maya antiquities, maps, plans. 4 vols., 8vo, original brown pictorial cloth gilt-stamped with Maya motifs. Other than occasional light foxing, fine copies of these lovely books that are usually found in deplorable condition and marred by heavy

First editions. Field 1496-97. Glass, p. 707. Griffin 1212-13: "Probably the most widely read books on American archaeology. There are modern editions, but they do not do justice to the fine Catherwood illustrations." Hill, p. 282: "Stephens, an American traveler, was given an appointment to a mission to Central America, which gave him an opportunity start explorations of Maya ruins, with his friend Frederick Catherwood. This famous journey was nearly 3,000 miles in length, and visits were made to forty-four ruined cities or places in which remains of ancient populations were found, few of which had been explored before. Stephens also includes accounts of customs, ceremonies, etc. The plates are by Catherwood, from daguerreotype views and portraits taken at the ruins." Palau 322310-14. Pilling 3749-51. See also Item 112 in this catalogue.

$1,500.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

402. STEPHENS, John L. Incidents of Travel in Central America, Chiapas, and Yucatan...Revised from the Latest American Edition, with additions, by Frederick Catherwood. London: Arthur Hall, Virtue & Co., 1854. xvi, 548 pp., frontispiece portrait, 82 illustrations, map. 8vo, original gilt pictorial cloth. Fine.

This revised edition of Stephens' and Catherwood's Incidents is important for containing a new introduction by Catherwood and several illustrations that did not appear in the set described in the preceding entry.

$350.00

403. STOWE, Harriet Beecher and Catherine C. Beecher. The American Woman's Home: Or, Principles of Domestic Science... New York: Ford, 1869. [4] 500 [12, ads] pp., engraved title, frontispiece, numerous text illustrations. Svo, original gilt-decorated green cloth. A fine, bright copy.

First edition. Hildreth, p. 220. Though Harriet Beecher Stowe is best remembered for her influential Uncle Tom's Cabin, this work, co-authored with her sister, had a tremendous influence on American life, revolutionizing American home construction and marking the beginning of domestic science in the U.S. Dr. Hart (Oxford Companion to American History, p. 71) comments: "A work well in advance of its time in matters of domestic planning and arrangement."

$200.00

404. STOWE, Harriet Beecher. Onkel Toms Hytte. Copenhagen: Erslev [1884]. [2] 173 [1] [2, ads] pp., colored lithographic frontispiece. 8vo, original red cloth over beige boards with colored lithograph. Minor stains to boards and hinges neatly reinforced, overall a very good copy of a scarce and fragile book.

First Danish juvenile edition of this great American classic. Not in Hildreth.

$125.00

405. STRATTON, R. B. Captivity of the Oatman Girls: Being an Interesting Narrative of Life among the Apache and Mohave Indians... Chicago: Scott, 1857. 231 pp., map, portrait of Olive with the chin tattoo applied by the Mohaves to mark captives, text illustrations. 8vo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Binding worn, text very good.

Third edition, published in the same year as the exceedingly rare first printing done in San Francisco in

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

February; a second revised edition (also San Francisco) with considerably more material on the customs of the Indians and character of the country came out shortly after the first printing. The present edition follows the text of the second edition. Ayer 283. Chicago Ante-Fire Imprints 286. Cowan 123n. Field 515. Graff 4006. Howes S1068. Plains & Rockies IV:294:3. Rittenhouse 542. "In 1851 while en route to California the Oatman family was attacked by Apache Indians. The parents were killed, Olive and Mary captured, and Lorenzo left for dead. The girls were soon sold to the Mohaves. Not until 1856 was Olive rescued, Mary Ann having earlier died of starvation. Olive's sufferings were many, and she gives a most unflattering account of her captors' way of life." (Hanna, Yale Exhibit)
$650.00

406. STRATTON, R. B. Life among the Indians or: The Captivity of the Oatman Girls among the Apache & Mohave Indians... San Francisco: Grabhorn Press, 1935. 231 pp., woodblock illustrations by Mallette Dean, map. 8vo, original beige cloth over orange patterned boards, printed paper spine label. Very fine.

Limited edition (550 copies). Fine press edition of preceding entry.
$100.00

407. SUTHERLAND, Mrs. Redding]. Five Years within the Golden Gate by Isabelle Saxon. London: Chapman and Hall, 1868. x, 325 pp. 8vo, original green blindstamped cloth. Hinges cracked, else very fine, with armorial bookplate.

First edition. Cowan, p. 170. Howes S1150. Rocq 12398: "Includes chapters on California, Nevada, and other parts of the West, and the Hawaiian Islands." Not in Hill. An account of social, life in San Francisco by an Englishwoman resident there from 1861 onwards. Her observations cover such subjects as gambling, Chinese emigrants, earthquakes, missions, law courts, etc., as well as describing the people, customs, and prevalent manners.
$150.00

408. TAPIA ZENTENO, Carlos de. Arte novissima de lengua mexicana... Mexico: Joseph Bernardo de Hogal, 1753. [22] 58 pp., half-page engraving of the arms of the Archbishop of Mexico by Antonio Moreno, woodcut acrostic leaf. Small 4to, original limp vellum. Small blind-stamp on first two leaves. Very fine copy.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition. Beristain III:170. Bright 509 (notes he was unable to locate a copy for examination). Field 1532. Medina 4142. Palau 327485. Pilling 3800. Sabin 455. This very rare grammar was written in Spanish for those who wished to learn the native language of Mexico. The author was a native-born Mexican, very knowledgeable in both the Mexican and Guastecan languages.
$2,000.00

409. TARDY, William T. (publisher). Notable Women of the Southwest. A Pictorial Biographical Encyclopedia of the Leading Women of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Arizona. Dallas, 1938. [6] 384 pp., numerous photographs. 8vo, original gilt-lettered blue cloth. Fine copy of an uncommon book.

First edition. Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project, p. 241. Biographical sketches of notable Southwestern women, such as Mabel Dodge Luhan, Erna Fergusson, Nancy Jane Hughes Cochran (Peters Colony pioneer), Adina de Zavala, Lucie Meusebach Marschall, Julia Moss Seton, Dr. Ann West, and many others, including many women ranchers and ranch wives who merit further research.
$125.00

410 [TELEVISION]. SARNOFF, David, et al. Television. Collected Addresses and Papers on the Future of the New Art and its Recent Technical Developments. New York: RCA Institutes Technical Press [1936]. vii, 452; viii, 435 pp., numerous charts and illustrations. 2 vols. in one, 8vo, original blue-green cloth. Very fine, with ownership signature of BBC pioneer Bevan.

First edition. Records of the first symposium on television. Mostly technical, but also including Sarnoff's comments on plans to establish television as a public service in the U.S. and the possible consequences. An epochal report on the invention that forever changed the American way of life.
$250.00

411 [TEXAS].. General Laws of the Sixth Legislature of the State of Texas, Passed at its Session, Convened November 5, 1855. Austin: Marshall & Oldham, 1856. 86 [2] xxxi pp. 8vo, original stitching. Title and last leaf ragged at lower corner and text lightly browned, overall very good, with contemporary ownership inscription of S. M. Lemon, Justice of Peace.

First edition. Winkler 736. Contains acts regarding creation of Atacosa, Bandera, Comanche, Erath, Kerr,

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Kinney, Lampasas, Live Oak, Llano, Maverick, Parker, San Saba, Uvalde, Wise, and Young counties. Other matters covered in this session include Texas-U.S. boundary line, numerous regulations on Texas' wild mustangs, Indian affairs, etc.

$100.00

412 [TEXAS].. General Laws of the Sixth Legislature of the State of Texas, Passed at its Adjourned Session, Convened July 7, 1856. Austin: Marshall & Oldham, 1856. 119 [1] viii pp. 8vo, original stitching. Title ragged and text a little brown, but overall a very good untrimmed copy, with contemporary ownership inscription of S. M. Lemon, Justice of Peace.

First edition. Winkler 740. Contains acts regarding surveys in Peters' colony, creating Comanche, Jack, McCulloch, and Palo Pinto Counties, relief of Coushatta Indians, use of Spanish in courts west of the Guadalupe, transcription of the Houston County Mark and Brand Book, railroad reserves, prohibition of slaves carrying guns, selling university lands, etc.

$100.00

413 [TEXAS].. Special Laws of the Sixth Legislature of the State of Texas, passed at its adjourned session, Convened July 7, 1856. Austin: Marshall & Oldham, 1856. 116, iv pp. 8vo, original stitching. Some staining, especially to title, but still a good unopened copy, with ownership inscription of Justice of Peace S. M. Lemon.

First edition. Winkler 739. Contains acts relating to relief of Texas veterans and their heirs, land matters, railroad appropriations, etc.

$75.00

414 [TEXAS IN FILMS].. A substantial collection of original campaign books, posters, scripts, and photographs portraying Texas in films.

More than 500 films which are set in Texas have to date been identified. They constitute the one major area of 20th century literature about Texas which has to date not been collected and represent a major opportunity for any library caring to investigate this field. A collection can be built to order with the needs of the library considered. For instance, a collection could be formed on a sub-genre, such as a particular time period, region, or subject.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

415 [TEXAS MONEY].. A complete set of Republic of Texas engraved notes. New Orleans & New York, 1837-40. Nine ornately engraved bank notes with secretarial signatures of Houston, Lamar, et al. Denominations include $1, $2, $3, $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, and $500. Condition very good to very fine.

Some of the most colorful remnants of the Republic of Texas era. These notes, with their handsome pictorial vignettes, capture the flavor of early Texas, depicting the Longhorn, Indians, train, steamship, cotton, deer, and romantic republican iconography. A complete set of the engraved notes is very difficult to assemble.

$2,500.00

416 [TEXTILES].. Album containing examples of pre-Inca weaving and printed fabrics. Chancay, Peru, 8th to 13th century. 21 swatches of colored textiles, various sizes, in 4to album.

An excellent, well-rounded grouping of interesting specimens exhibiting a variety of styles and techniques. Would make a good teaching collection.

$650.00

417. THEVENOT, M.] and Thomas Gage. Histoire de l'empire mexicain, représentée par figures. Relation dv Mexique, ov de la Nouvelle Espagne, par Thomas Gages. Paris: Andre Cramoisy, [1672]. Extract from Relations de divers voyages, part 4: [2] 58, 40 pp., including 46 full-page engravings reproducing Codex Mendoza. Folio, protective wrappers. A very fine, tall copy.

First French edition of Codex Mendoza and first translation into French of any part of Gage's account of New Spain (see Griffin 2078 for notes on Englishman Gage's early travels in Mexico and Central America). Glass, p. 709: "Gives engravings of the drawings, without glosses, and with French translation of the text." The codex is believed to have been commissioned by Viceroy Mendoza for presentation to Charles V and subsequently seized by French pirates. It presents a pictorial record of the Tenochca-mexica from the founding of Tenochtitlan in A.D. 1325 to 1521, including three tributes paid by all of the provinces of the Aztec Empire. A unique ethnographic record.

$400.00

418. TSA TOKE, Monroe. The Peyote Ritual... San Francisco: Grabhorn Press [1957]. xvii, 67 [2] pp., 14 colored plates. Folio, original orange and sand patterned boards with orange lettered beige backstrip.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

First edition, limited edition (325 copies). A fine press book of great beauty. The text is of special interest to students of ethnobotany and native American religion, containing illustrations and a guide to the paintings made by noted Kiowa artist, Monroe Tsa Toke, while in the mystical realm.

$325.00

419. TRUTH, Sojourner [and Olive Gilbert]. Narrative of Sojourner Truth, a Northern Slave... Boston: Printed for the Author, 1850. 144 pp., frontispiece portrait. 12mo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Fine.

First edition. Howes O163. Biography of Sojourner Truth (ca. 1797-1883), the renowned abolitionist, suffragist, orator, and reformer whom Harriet Beecher Stowe dubbed the Libyan Sibyl. Sojourner Truth was one of the first black women in America to participate in the suffragist movement. See Notable American Women III:479-81.

$250.00

420. TYLOR, Edward, B. Anahuac: or Mexico and the Mexicans, Ancient and Modern. London: Longman, Green, Longman, and Roberts, 1861. xi [1] 344 pp., colored plates, folding map, text illustrations. 8vo, original rose gilt pictorial cloth. Spine slightly worn and sunned, color plates and adjacent pages moderately foxed, but still a very good copy, with armorial bookplate.

First edition. Bernal 443. Field 1582. Gunn 1111. Palau 342634. Most of the English author's journey was spent in Mexico travelling by horseback, but he also includes a description of his stay in Cuba and the West Indies. Contains useful information and illustrations of Mexican and Spanish equestrian equipment.

$175.00

421. URRÉA, José. Proclama. Matamoros: Imprenta del Mercurio, June 8, 1836. Large folio broadside. Creased where folded and two neat repairs at folds, overall a very fine copy.

First printing of a very rare broadside. Streeter (866) located no copy, but Dr. Hanna in the revised edition locates one copy, that at Yale. In this proclamation issued after the decisive Battle of San Jacinto, Urréa, leader of the Mexican invasion of Texas who became known as the "Butcher of Goliad," addresses his "soldiers, friends, and companions," stating that he has been named commanding general of the army of operations in Texas. He urges his compatriots to avenge the Mexican nation's honor which has recently been attacked by the "ingrates" (Texans) whom the nation had recently "adopted." He also asks his troops to join him in saving the "illustrious president of the republic" (Santa Anna) and their brothers who are being held captive by the enemy.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$3,500.00

422. VAN CLEVE, Charlotte O. "Three Score Years and Ten," Life-Long Memories of Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and other parts of the West. [Minneapolis: Harrison & Smith] 1888. 176 pp., frontispiece portrait. 8vo, original green cloth stamped in gilt and black. A near fine copy, with an interesting manuscript note by a woman who knew the author.

First edition. Bradford 5550. Graff 4455. Howes V21: "Authoress was the first white child born in Wisconsin." Myres, "Following the Drum, p. 14. "Charlotte Van Cleve was born in 1819 while her parents were on route from Hartford, Connecticut, to Fort Snelling, to which her father had been assigned. She grew up in the army [and] married into it...Her experiences were numerous and she tells them with intelligence and charm" (Hanna, Yale Exhibit).

$200.00

423. VASCONCELOS, J. Breve historia de México. Mexico, 1937. 638pp. 12mo, original Mexican sheep over red cloth, spine with raised bands and red morocco label. Very fine.

First edition. Griffin 1038: "This volume, which has had numerous reprintings and editions since its original publication, represents a personal vision of Mexican history by one of the leading intellectuals of modern Mexico."

$50.00

424. VERACRUZ, Alonso de la. Specvlvm conivgiorvm... [Mexico: Juan Pablos, 1556]. 686 pp., italic type, title with fine woodcut coat-of-arms, woodcut initials, woodcut diagram in text. Small 4to, modern limp vellum binding. Marginal repairs to first four leaves, not affecting title woodcut and touching only a few letters of text; lower right corner of title repaired, affecting border of woodcut; second leaf extensively repaired with some text in facsimile. Aside from this, the volume is in remarkably fine, fresh condition, with marca de fuego on top and bottom edges. Very rare, especially when found complete like the present copy.

First edition, printed by the first printer in the New World, "the largest book known to have been printed in

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Mexico up to its time [and] the first [American] book printed in italic" (Huntington, Mexican Imprints 27). This monument of American printing is also important for its content, since it is one of the earliest American works in the fields of law and women's history, being a treatise on marriage. The book contains a tremendous amount of information on the Indians of the New World, their lives, customs, and religions, as well as material on the merging of European and American culture through intermarriage, making it a landmark of American social history. The author, an Augustinian who came to Mexico in 1535, was one of the first professors at the newly established University of Mexico, where he wrote this and other learned works on science, mathematics, theology, and linguistics. His books were the first of their kind published in the New World. JCB 1:I:195. Garcia Icazbalceta 28. Palau 459149. Medina 31. Sabin 98919. Wagner 27.
$18,500.0

0

425. VIDAL, Juan. Original manuscript derrotero in Spanish. [Mexico, ca. 1651]. 5-1/8 folio pages, stitched. Very fine, written in legible dark brown ink.

The document is entitled (in translation): "Report and description of the coast that runs from Cape Corrientos, which is at twenty [sic] degrees, to the straits, or bay, of California; of [its] ports and rivers. For Sr. Doctor Don Juan de Contreras Garnica, judge of this Royal High Court by Juan Rs. Vidal, High Constable of the City of Compostela [Mexico]." At the request of the judge of Guadalajara, Vidal presents a very detailed description of the west coast of Mexico immediately north of Banderas Bay (opposite the southern end of Baja California) to Acapulco. Vidal discusses the advantages of transferring the official port of call for the ships of the Philippine galleon to the port of Chacala or St. Mathias, 20 or 25 leagues north of the Bay. A most interesting document, exhibiting economic motives of inhabitants of Northern Mexico in an era when almost all of the economic imperatives originated from Mexico City or Spain.
$2,500.00

426. VIDAURRI, Santiago... Número y organización de los tribunales... Monterrey, April 31, 1843. 5 pp. folio folder. Very fine, with official manuscript

Decree for Nuevo León informing citizens of the national law concerning the establishment of a judicial system. Among the interesting aspects of the law is the article stating that the salary for judges in California, New Mexico, Sonora, and Texas will be higher than those for judges in the other states and territories of Mexico.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$75.00

427. VIDAURRI, Santiago. Manuel Maria de Llano, gobernador constitucional del Departamento de Nuevo León, por ministerio de la ley, a todos sus habitantes, hago saber... Monterrey, February 3, 1845. One page folio broadside. Very fine with rubrics of Llano and Vidaurri.

The government of Nuevo Leon announces the national decree of January 18th clarifying one of the articles of the constitutional law in which the frontier departments of Mexico are identified as New Mexico, Alta California, Texas, and Chiapas. An interesting decree, one of the last Mexican decrees to include New Mexico, California, and Texas as part of its territory (Texas had been an independent republic for about nine years!)
$75.00

428. VIELE, [Teresa]. "Following the Drum:" A Glimpse of Frontier Life. New York: Rudd & Carleton, 1858. 256 [4, ads] pp. 8vo, original green cloth. Spine tips a trifle worn, else fine, from Dorothy Josey's collection.

First edition, first issue. Hanna, Yale Exhibit: "As a bride she went with her soldier husband to Texas, when the Mexican War was not long over and where the fierce Comanches were plentiful. Effervescence does not keep her account of life there from being a very informative one." Howes V92. Myres, Following the Drum: "Vielé was the first woman to publish an account of army life in the trans-Mississippi West...and one of the few women who wrote about Texas." Plains & Rockies IV:312a:1 (new entry in the revised edition): "Describes her year's stay at Ringgold Barracks in Texas."
$275.00

429. VILAPLANA, Hermenegildo. Encheridion Canónico-Morale de Confessario... Mexico: Bibliothecae Mexicanae, 1764. [44] 217 [15] pp. Small 8vo, original limp vellum, remains of ties. Binding cracked on some edges, otherwise very fine original condition.

First edition. Medina 4925 (listing only the subsequent edition). Palau 365782: "Indispensable para el conocimiento de una de las mayores preocupaciones de la Iglesia durante toda la época colonial." This was the standard confessional handbook of Mexico and the Spanish Southwest. The author was on the faculty of the College of

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Querétaro, that sent the missionaries to Texas. He wrote an important biography of the founder of the Texas missions (see next entry).

$150.00

430. VILAPLANA, Hermenegildo. Vida portentosa del Americano septentrional apóstol, el V. P. Fr. Antonio Margil de Jesus... Madrid: Juan de San Martin, 1775. [14] 335 pp., engraved portrait of Margil preaching to Indians. 8vo, full Mexican antique calf, gilt spine with raised bands and green morocco labels. Very fine.

First Spanish edition. Clark I:166. Howes V98: "Father Margil's activities in Texas, 1716-1721, included establishment of three missions in the Nacogdoches area and several years residence in San Antonio." Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 59n. Jones 510. Palau 365781. Wagner, Spanish Southwest 142a. A quite rare biography of the founder of the Texas missions, including material on Margil's ministry to the Indians in Guatemala.

$2,500.00

431. WAGNER, Henry R. Peter Pond, Fur Trader & Explorer. New Haven: Yale University Library, 1955. [8] 103 pp., 3 folding maps in separate folder. 16mo, original plum cloth, beige linen backstrip. Very fine in publisher's slipcase.

First edition, limited edition (500 copies). Documentary study of the enigmatic Pond (1740-1807), pioneer American explorer and cartographer of the Northwest.

$75.00

432. WAGNER, Henry R. The Life and Writings of Bartolomé de Las Casas... Albuquerque: Cortés Society [1967]. xxvi, 310 pp., portraits of Wagner and Las Casas. 8vo, original grey cloth. Mint in d.j.

First edition. Biography of the Apostle of the Indians. The critical catalogue at the end is a useful bibliographical tool.

$35.00

433. WHEATLEY, Phyllis. Memoir and Poems... Boston: Light, 1834. 103 pp., lithographed frontispiece portrait. 12mo, original purple floral cloth, pink printed paper label on upper cover. Other than occasional light foxing, a fine copy of a scarce and important edition.

Early American edition containing the first biography of Wheatley. The original edition printed at London in 1773 was the first published volume of poetry by a black American. Afro-Americana 11110. Church 1101n. Sabin 103136. Work, p. 460. John Wheatley of Boston purchased Phyllis directly off a slave ship in 1761. Recognizing her unusual precociousness, the Wheatley family encouraged her literary talents. "It was not until 1834 when Margaretta M. Odell, a distant relative of the Wheatleys, published a 'Memoir' [present work] in a new edition of the Poems, that the first Negro woman poet in America attained the permanent place she holds in the history of American letters" (Notable American Women III:574).

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$250.00

434. WILLARD, Emma. Last Leaves of American History: Comprising Histories of the Mexican War and California. New York: Putnam, 1849. 230 [10, ads] pp., large folding Colton map (Wheat, Mapping the Transmississippi West 594). 12mo, original dark green blind-stamped cloth. Folding map repaired with tape on verso and text foxed as usual, otherwise very good in a fine tight binding.

First edition. Cowan, p. 684. Rocq 17245. Tutorow 3248. A succinct history of the United States during the first half of the 19th century, one third of which traces the history of California. The author, a leading 19th century American educator, was instrumental in expanding educational opportunities for women. See Notable American Women I:610-13.

$150.00

435. WILLIAMS, J. J. The Isthmus of Tehuantepec: Being the Results of a Survey for a Railroad to Connect the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans... [and] Maps illustrating the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. New York: D. Appleton, 1852. 295 pp. folding map, folding diagram, plan, 14 tinted lithographic plates + [4] pp., 8 large folding maps. 2 vols., 8vo, original brown blind-stamped cloth. Bindings worn but internally very fine, plates excellent. The atlas is usually lacking.

First edition. Hill, pp. 327-28: "This book was published to inform the American public of the advantages to be gained by an inter-ocean link built across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, west of the Yucatan Peninsula in Mexico. The first part of the book reviews the engineering and hydrographic reports of the survey group, and is a general summary of practicability; the second part deals with the natural history, the inhabitants and the natural resources of the region." Palau 375712. Sabin 3480.

$600.00

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

436. WILLIAMS, Vernon L. Lieutenant Patton and the American Army in the Mexican Punitive Expedition 1915-16. Austin: Presidial Press, 1983. 83 [1] pp., maps, plates. 8vo, original brown cloth, slipcase. New, as

First edition, limited edition (#115 of 25 specially bound copies signed by author).

$45.00

437. WILSON, D. The Life of Jane McCrea, with an Account of Burgoyne's Expedition in 1877. New York: Baker, Godwin, 1853. 155 [1] pp. 12mo, original brown cloth. Light wear to spinal extremities and occasional light stains to text, withal a very good copy.

First edition. Field 1683. Not in Ayer. The only full-length biography of the famous Revolutionary War martyr who died at the hands of her Indian captors who were allies of General Burgoyne. "Her death...roused support for the patriot cause and contributed to the American victory at Saratoga"--Notable American Women 438. WINKLER, E. W. (editor). Secret Journals of the Senate Republic of Texas 1836-1845. Austin: Texas Library and Historical Commission, 1911. 337 pp. 8vo, original grey printed wrappers. Unusually fine, uncut.

$100.00

First edition. Jenkins, Basic Texas Books 69n. Winkler assembled these papers from original records in the State Archives. One of the best source works on the Republic of Texas.

$45.00

439. WOODHULL, Victoria. The Origin, Tendencies and Principles of Government...with Special Considerations regarding the Future of the United States... New York: Woodhull, Claflin, 1871. [4] 247 pp., frontispiece portrait. 8vo, original green cloth. Text lightly browned with occasional foxmarks, but overall very good.

First edition. After mastering the business world of the Gilded Age with her sister Tennessee Claflin (see Item 122 in this catalogue), Woodhull attacked another masculine preserve--politics. Advocating themes expressed in this book, such as women's suffrage, socialism, communal living, free love, constitutional equality, fiscal reform, etc., Woodhull was named first woman nominee for U.S. President by the Equal Rights Party. Unfortunately, on election day Woodhull and her sister were in jail on an obscenity charge arising out of their publishing in rather lurid detail the story of Henry Ward Beecher's affair with Mrs. Tilton. The sisters were subsequently acquitted, but, alas, Ulysses S. Grant carried the day.

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

$300.00

440. WOOTEN, Mattie L. (editor). Women Tell the Story of the Southwest. San Antonio: Naylor, 1940. xviii, 394 pp., frontispiece. 8vo, original red cloth. An unusually fine copy of a scarce book.

First edition. Adams, Herd 2558: "Has several chapters on cattle and cowboys." Winegarten, Texas Women's History Project Bibliography, p. 234: "Wooten was one of the first scholars to take women in Texas history seriously." Records the experiences of pioneer women in their own words, including life in the cattle country, Indian captivities, early education, plantation life, encounters with outlaws, etc.

$125.00

441. WRISTON, Jennie A. A Pioneer's Odyssey. [Menasha]: Privately printed, 1943. xii, 92 pp., map. 12mo, original blue cloth. Fine.

First edition. Graff 4671: "This overland trip took place in 1873. The route was through Kansas and the party followed the Republic River to Red Cloud, Nebraska, north to Hastings and Fort Kearney, up the Platte to Cherry Creek in Colorado. They had come by railroad in 1863 from New York State to Missouri and in 1873 by wagon overland." Not in Howes.

$150.00

442. ZAVALA, Lorenzo de. Manifiesto del gobernador del estado de México... Tlalpam: Imprenta del gobierno, 1829. 39 pp., title within typographic border. Small 8vo, modern marbled wrappers. Very good condition.

First edition. In this yorkino proclamation Zavala, as governor of Mexico, calls for a return to the federalistic ideals which were embodied in the 1824 constitution. He, condemns Santa Anna and the centralists for changing the course of Mexican government. The failure of Zavala and the liberals in this internal policital struggle led directly to the Texas Revolution. Stephen F. Austin was one of the seven men present at the signing of the petition to organize the yorkinos in Texas a few months before this proclamation. A little-known work of central importance for understanding the genesis of the Texas Revolution. Palau 378345. Raines, p. 224. Not in NUC. See also Foote (Texas and the Texans, pp. 72-83 and "The

Dorothy Sloan Books – Catalogue 2 (6/85)

Austin-Leaming Correspondence, 1828-1836" in SWHQ LXXXVIII:3 for the political background leading to this proclamation). In 1824 Zavala was the first to sign and swear to support the federal constitution of Mexico, but for his later support of Texas, he was branded a traitor. He removed to Texas and became the first vice-president of the Republic. He is buried at San Jacinto.
$1,250.00